The board may with the approval of the Governor temporarily close all licensed places within any municipality during any period of emergency proclaimed to be such by the Governor

Section 2 This act shall be effective immediately upon its final enactment

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SURFACE. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, it seems to me that all that is necessary is to call the attention of this intelligent body to what this bill provides. It is simply atrocious to think that we are asked to vote for a bill that provides for the sale of liquor at all times of the day and night and on Sunday and on election days inclusive. It seems to me that all that is necessary is for us to comprehend what this means and we will express our disapproval of it. Also it provides for the sale of liquor upon the premises to be either consumed there or to be carried away in packages. Certainly we do not want such a condition in this state that will permit the sale of liquor on the Sabbath day and at all times of the day and night and on election day.

I could say much more on this subject but I feel it is only necessary to call attention to the atrocities that it contains.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

(During the calling of the roll and before the result was announced.)

REASON FOR VOTE

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to incorporate in the record the reason for my changing my vote from "aye" to "no". The reason for my "no" vote on this bill is that this bill contains a provision on page six that a hotel or restaurant licensee shall not maintain any counter or bar over which liquors are sold to guests, patrons or members.

Although the other provisions of this bill are satisfactory to me, the provision failing to permit the sale of liquor over the bar is my reason for voting "no".

The SPEAKER. The gentleman's reasons will be spread upon the record.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, is it in order for a gentleman to announce his reasons for change of vote before the final vote has been announced and announce that reason orally?

The SPEAKER. A member may state his reason orally but should file it in writing.

SENATE MESSAGE

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE

HOUSE BILL No. 1943.

An Act making an appropriation for aid to free public non-sectarian county libraries and for the purchase and transportation of books.

With the information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendments.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend title, page one, line one by striking out after the word "making" the words "an appropriation" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "appropriations".

Amend bill, page two, line five by inserting the following new sections:

"Section 2 In addition to the appropriation made by section one of this act the sum of one thousand four hundred seventy-three dollars and eight cents ($1,473.08) is hereby appropriated to the Department of Public Instruction for the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred thirty-five for the payment of obligations incurred by the Department for aid to free public non-sectarian county libraries and for the purchase and transportation of books to be used for demonstration and circulation purposes as provided by law during the two fiscal years ending May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred thirty-five and which were not paid out of the appropriation for such purposes made to the Department by the General Assembly at its regular session of one thousand nine hundred thirty-three because of insufficient revenues in the General Fund

Any law to the contrary notwithstanding amounts payable to the Department of Public Instruction out of this appropriation shall be paid as promptly after the effective date of this act as the revenues of the General Fund will permit and for this purpose payments from this appropriation shall take precedence over payments from the appropriation made by section one of this act

Section 3 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment and shall be retroactive to June first one thousand nine hundred thirty-five

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Section XI All fees provided for in this act shall be paid to the Department of Public Instruction who shall transmit the same to the State Treasurer through the Department of Revenue

Section XII Nothing in this Act shall be construed to prohibit the licensure or regulation of operators of power equipment by any subdivision of this Commonwealth in addition to the requirements of this Act

Section XIII It shall be the duty of the Department of Public Instruction to enforce the provisions of this act

Section XIV Prosecutions for violations of the provisions of this act or the rules and regulations of the Department may be instituted by the Department and shall be in the form of summary proceedings before an alderman magistrate or justice of the peace Upon conviction after a hearing the penalties herein provided for shall be imposed and shall be final unless an appeal be taken to a court of proper jurisdiction in the manner prescribed by law

Section XV Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this act or the rules and regulations of the Department as herein provided for shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be penalized by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars and costs and upon nonpayment thereof imprisonment in the county jail for not more than ten days

Section XVI All fines collected under this act shall be forwarded to the Department of Public Instruction who shall transmit the same to the State Treasury through the Department of Revenue

Section XVII This act may be cited as the Power Equipment Operator's License Act of 1935

Section XVIII The provisions of this act are severable and in the event that any provisions thereof should be declared unconstitutional it is hereby declared that the remaining provisions would have been enacted notwithstanding such judicial determination of the invalidity of any particular provision or provisions in any respect

Section XIX The act approved the eighteenth day of April one thousand eight hundred ninety-nine (Pamphlet Laws forty-nine) entitled "An Act to provide for the beter protection of life and property by the examination and licensing of engineers having charge of steam boilers steam engines and appliances connected therewith in cities of the first class in this Commonwealth and providing penalties for violations" and its amendments the act approved the fourth day of April one thousand nine hundred and five (Pamphlet Laws one hundred two) entitled "An Act to provide for the better protection of life and property by the examination and licensing of engineers having charge of steam boilers steam engines and appliances connected therewith in cities of the second and third class of this Commonwealth and providing penalties for violation" and its amendments and all other acts or parts of act inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed

Section XX This Act shall be effective and operative sixty days after its signing by the Governor

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the bill that is now before you is House Bill No. 1083, Printer's No. 1087. This bill has been before the House on two occasions, and I believe voted upon on two occasions, and was then again before the House and almost reached a vote and was then placed upon the postponed calendar. It now before us for final passage.

The bill pretends to be a bill for the better protection of life and property, but the bill is not such a bill. The bill pretends to license engineers, so that the public might be protected against high pressure boilers. The bill divides the boilers into two classifications: first, boilers that drive power equipment; and second, boilers that do not drive power equipment. The boilers that do not drive power equipment can be and are as dangerous as those that drive equipment.

I submit to you that if it is necessary for the protection of human life, then the engineers that are in charge of the boilers that heat our high schools should be licensed and should be qualified. The engineers that are in charge of large halls and places of entertainment, they too should be licensed and should be qualified, but this bill eliminates all of these engineers and leaves the public open to all kinds of dangers.

At the present time we have in the city of Philadelphia a system founded on the act of 1891, and a prior act of 1864, which works very efficiently and some eleven hundred applicants for license for boiler engineer have been rejected. If this bill were enacted into law, those eleven hundred rejected applicants would immediately be turned loose on the public, not for better protection of public life and health but to the injury and damage of the public.

Now, members of this House, we have in Pennsylvania approximately thirty-three thousand engineers. Only about forty percent would come under this bill. This bill purposely eliminates the other sixty percent. This bill purposely destroys the system of boiler inspection in first and second class cities of this Commonwealth. This bill purposely leaves the school children, the people and the patrons of public places of entertainment open to danger. This bill does not take care of the sixty percent of engineers that ought to be looked after and who should be qualified and who are now qualified in Philadelphia.

Shall we take a step backward and let these unqualified engineers have charge of our schools and look after our places of amusement? I ask you to vote "no" on this bill.

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I shall endeavor to be as brief as possible in order to conserve the time of the House. It appears to me that a bill to license stationary engineers is a subject for debate in this House.

The principle of licensure of trades and professions for the protection of the public is a well established principle in the state of Pennsylvania. To be more specific, the principle of licensing stationary engineers in this state has already been passed upon twice by separate sessions of the General Assembly. I shall try to clear up a few of the misapprehensions which may have been created by the talk of the gentleman from Philadelphia. In the first place, there is a provision in this bill which takes in the effect of ordinances which have been passed in first, second and third class cities. They will not be superceded by any provisions of this licensing act. Those ordinances will remain in effect to protect the public. In addition to that, this bill will extend to the entire state the benefits of licensure which are enjoyed to a certain extent by first, second and third class cities today. This bill has the endorsement of the State Federation of Labor. It is favored by the engineers themselves. It is also favored by manufacturers and employers throughout the state who desire to know the qualifications of the men who submit themselves to these employers for employment as stationary engineers.

This bill received very careful consideration in the House Committee on Education. A public hearing was had, where the parties concerned were heard. There amendments and proposals were submitted and given due consideration, and those of value were incorporated into the bill.

Therefore, I ask you as members of the Assembly in order to extend the benefits of licensure to the entire state, to vote "aye" on this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

SPECIAL ORDER ON HOUSE BILL NO. 932

The SPEAKER. The Chair lays before the House the special order of business fixed for this hour, House Bill No. 932, Printer's No. 1382.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 932, as follows:

An Act to enable cities of the third class to adopt the city manager plan of government providing the procedure for the adoption or discontinuance thereof making suitable provisions for the conduct of city government thereunder and in connection therewith imposing certain duties on mayors city councils county commissioners and election officers

Article I

Procedure for Adoption or Discontinuance

Section 101 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That in pursuance of the authority granted by section one of article fifteen of the Constitution of the Commonwealth any city of third class may adopt the city manager plan of government by the following procedure

Section 102 Question to be Voted on for Adoption Any city of the third class shall become subject to all the provisions of this act upon submission to the electors of such city at a public election and the adoption by a majority vote of the electors voting thereon of the following question

"Shall the city of .....adopt the city manager plan of government"

Section 103 Procedure for Securing Submission The county commissions of the proper county shall submit such question to the electors of such city upon the adoption of a resolution by the council of such city requesting the holding of such an election and the filing of a duly certified copy thereof with the county commissioners or upon the filing with the county commissioners of a petition making such request signed by qualified electors of the city equal in number to at least ten per centum of the population of the city according to the last United States census

Section 104 Regulations Concerning Petitions for Submission Petitions for such purpose shall be signed in ink or indelible pencil Each elector signing shall give his occupation place of residence and date of signing No signature shall be valid unless affixed thereto within thirty days of the filing thereof Any number of such petitions may be circulated among the electors contemporaneously and all separate original petitions when filed shall be treated together as one original petition Each separate petition paper shall be verified by the affidavit of the circulator thereof before any officer authorized to administer oaths Such affidavit shall set forth the residence of the circulator by street and number or other description sufficient to identify the place and shall state that each signature on the nomination paper was made in his presence on the date indicated and is the genuine signature of the person whose name it purports to be

Section 105 Time and Manner of Submission The question shall be submitted to the electors at the next general or municipal election occurring not less than sixty days after the filing of the petition or resolution The question shall be placed on the ballot votes cast thereon and returns made and computed in the manner and under the regulations provided by law for the submission of constitutional amendments or other questions to a vote of the people Before this question can be considered as having carried it shall be necessary that a majority of all of the registered voters approve the same

Section 106 Resubmission Permitted The failure of the electors to adopt the city manager plan at any election shall not prevent the submission of the question under the provisions hereof at any general or municipal election occurring at least three years thereafter

Section 107 Effective of Adoption If the electors of the city vote affirmatively on the adoption of the city manager plan the city shall thereafter be governed under the provisions of Article II of this act which shall take effect therein on the first Monday of January following the next succeeding election of city councilmen

Section 108 Transition to Manager Plan All officers and employes of any city holding office at the time the city manager plan goes into effect therein under the provisions of this act shall continue in office until superseded by the appointment or election of their successors or the termination of their offices as herein provided The council shall have power to provide by ordinance for any details of the transition to the manager plan not specified by law

Section 109 Procedure for Discontinuance Any city which has adopted the city manager plan may discontinue its use by a vote of the electors thereof initiated by a resolution or petition requesting such a vote under the requirements prescribed herein for a vote on the adoption of the plan The question printed on the ballot in such cases shall be

"Shall the city manager plan of government be continued in the City of ....."

No proceedings shall be taken to discontinue the plan until it has been in effect at least two years

Section 110 Effect of Discontinuance If the electors of the city vote against continuing the city manager plan of government the city shall cease to be governed by the provisions of Article II of this act on the first Monday in January following the next succeeding election of city councilmen and the city shall then be governed as provided by general law The city council shall have power to provide for the transition by ordinance A city which has adopted the city manager plan of government under the provisions of this act and subsequently discontinued it may readopt it by the same procedure as that provided for its original adoption but no proceedings shall be taken to readopt the plan until at least two years after it has been discontinued

Section 111 Notice of Election Notice by advertisement of the holding of each election for the adoption or discontinuance of the city manager plan shall be given in the manner and under the regulations provided by law for the giving of notice of the holding of elections for the election of public officers and the adoption of constitutional amendments or other questions

Section 112 Watchers Electors filing petitions for the adoption or discontinuance of the city manager plan under the provisions of this act may in any such petition designate not less than three nor more than twenty-five of their number as a political committee which committee shall have the same rights as political parties to appoint watchers in the manner required by law at any election to be held for the adoption or discontinuance of the city manager plan under the provisions of this act Such a political committee with the same power to appoint watchers may also be designated by a petition filed with the county commissioners for that purpose and signed by qualified electors of the city at least equal in number to one-tenth of the number required for submission of the question of adoption or discontinuance of the city manager plan by petition under the provisions of this act Any such petition shall be signed verified and filed in the manner prescribed for petitions requesting the submission of the said question Watchers appointed under the provisions of this section shall have the same rights as watchers appointed under the general laws regulating general and municipal elections except that they shall serve without compensation and need not be residents of the election districts in which they serve

Article II

General Provisions

Section 301 Application of General Laws No provision of any law hereafter enacted which conflicts or is inconsistent with any of the provisions of this act shall affect the government of cities in which the city manager plan of government is in effect under the provisions of this act unless such law specifically designates such cities and general references in such conflicting or inconsistent provisions to all cities or to cities of a class shall not be deemed to include cities in which the manager plan is in effect under the provisions of this act

General provisions of law relating to cities which are not in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this act shall apply to all cities which come under the terms thereof including those in which the city manager plan is in effect under the provisions of this act

Section 303 Meaning of Terms Wherever used in this act masculine pronouns shall be deemed to include the feminine A reference to the council of a city shall be deemed to refer to the legislative body thereof whether ordinarily designated by that term or not A reference to any county official shall be deemed to refer to the specified official of the county in which the city concerned is situated

Section 304 Short Title This act may be known and cited as the City Manager Act for Third Class Cities

Section 305 Effective Date This act shall take effect immediately upon its final enactment

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, House Bill No. 932, has been referred to as "The City Manager Bill". It is not a city manager bill. It is a referendum measure, permitting third class cities to adopt the city manager plan of government if they so desire. If there is any principle to which the Democratic party is definitely committed, if there is any principle to which this House is definitely committed, it is the principle of referendum. You have recognized the referendum principle in passing legislation affecting baseball. In this legislature, you have recognized the referendum principle in the Moomaw bill, in the movie legislation, and you recognized the principle in race horse legislation. The referendum is a principle from which the Democratic party cannot depart, and its a principle from which the Republican party in the past has not chosen to depart. Home rule is a sound doctrine. Yet, I recognize the fact, gentlemen of the House, that the larger cities of this state are the outposts of political empire, and that there are political considerations that might induce political leaders in those larger centers not to desire a city manager form of government, but even where that is the case, such consideration should not be urged for the purpose of preventing third class cities from adopting the city manager form of government, if they so desire.

This bill has been amended so that the city manager form of government cannot be adopted unless a majority of all the voters registered,—not a majority of the voters at a single election,—but a majority of all the voters registered so desire, and unless the proposition of adopting the city manager form of government does secure a majority of all the voters registered, the proposition falls, and I submit to the House that any principle of home rule in local government that can secure for its support a majority of all the voters registered is entitled to your support.

Mr. O'KEEFE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am in accord with some of the provisions of this bill, but I have consistenly opposed any legislation that would permit our local governments to have people come in from out of the state and take control of our local government. I believe that we can find men well qualified in our cities and in our state to carry on the functions of our government, and they would have a keener interest in the city in which they live. For this reason I oppose this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

SPECIAL ORDER ON HOUSE BILL NO. 237

The SPEAKER. The Chair lays before the House the special order of business fixed for this hour, House Bill No. 237, Printer's No. 1514.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 237, as follows:

An Act to provide unemployment relief in the present emergency provide for funds for old age assistance providing for and legalizing lotteries to raise approximately one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000) for such purpose creating a committee to conduct such lotteries in case the electors of this Commonwealth at a referendum vote in favor of such lotteries conferring powers and imposing duties on certain State officers departments and agencies making an appropriation to the Department of Welfare for the old age assistance and prescribing the powers and duties of the board with reference thereto

Whereas It is the duty of the government for the protection of the public health safety morals and welfare to care and provide for the poor old age persons who because of enforced unemployment are not able to care for themselves and properly caring for them will remove them from industry and

Whereas The long continued period of unrest and unemployment has placed upon the tax-payers of Pennsylvania an extraordinary burden of caring for the unemployed and extra and additional taxation would be intolerable and burdensome and

Whereas The lack of revenue will soon render it difficult and impossible for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to further carry on its unemployment relief programme and it is imperative that its humanitarian service and relief shall be continued and

Whereas All the usual means of raising money for this purpose have been utilized to the limit and the gravity of the situation demands the employment of unusual and extraordinary means and the Legislature finds and deems it advisable to permit lotteries to be conducted to best accomplish the desired purpose and

Whereas The conducting of the lotteries contemplated herein will furnish employment to a number of unemployed persons and the sale of tickets will afford an opportunity for a great many more to earn a living by the sale of the extra tickets in each book and

Whereas Such lotteries would tend to place money in circulation and to promote spending not only in the purchase of tickets but in the purchase of commodities by the prize winners thus assisting in the restoration of trade among the inhabitants of this Commonwealth therefore

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That a special Old Age Assistance Relief Committee is hereby created to conduct a series of lotteries or drawings in the manner hereinafter provided until such Committee has raised approximately one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000) for old age assistance No such lottery shall however be conducted unless the electors of this Commonwealth vote in favor thereof in order to raise funds for old age assistance as provided in this act

Section 2 Such Committees shall consist of eleven members to be selected under the supervision of the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in the manner hereinafter stated

Section 3 The Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania the State Treasurer the Auditor General and the Secretary of Internal Affairs and the Senate and House of Representatives if in session otherwise the president pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall each nominate three honest and reliable citizens and residents of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania The names of each of the persons so nominated shall be written on a slip of paper all of which shall be the same size and kind of paper and folded in the same manner so that none of the names shall be visible All of such slips of paper shall be placed in a container The Governor shall select a child of not greater age than twelve years who shall in the presence of the Governor and such other witnesses as may be present at the request of the Governor and such members of the General Assembly as shall desire to be present as well as any accredited newspaper reporters withdraw from such container one at a time eleven of the slips of paper contained therein The persons whose names appear on said eleven slips of paper shall constitute the membership of the Committee hereby created

Section 4 Each member of the Committee shall receive a salary for services and expenses not to exceed three hundred dollars ($300.00) for each drawing the amount to be fixed by the Governor

Section 5 The Committee may employ assistants the number and compensation of whom shall be fixed by the Committee with the advice and consent of the Governor

Section 6 All salaries and compensation and all other expenses in connection with the preparation and sale of tickets and the drawing shall be paid out of money realized from the sale of tickets Provided That the total of all such payments shall in no case exceed five per centum of the cash received by the Committee for tickets or any one drawing

Section 7 The Committee is hereby given power to adopt and put into effect such rules and regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of this act or the laws of this Commonwealth as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this act

Section 8 The Committee shall have printed by a printer in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania a series of tickets numbered from 000,000,000 to 999,999,999 in books or packages of two hundred and twenty (220) each except the last book which shall be of one hundred (100) tickets All tickets shall be for sale at ten cents per ticket which price shall be printed on each ticket together with a notice that the tickets are sold as an old age assistance measure for the purpose of raising money for old age assistance during the present economic crisis

Section 9 It shall be stipulated in the contract for the printin of such tickets that payment therefor shall be made only out of the proceeds from the sale of tickets and shall await the sale of a sufficient number of tickets to meet the same

Section 10 The Committee shall sell at the City of Harrisburg only such books or packages of tickets by personal delivery only to distributors and shall charge and receive cash for each book or package the sum or twenty dollars ($20.00) except for the last book or package of one hundred (100) tickets for which it shall receive the sum of nine dollars ($9.00)

Section 11 The distributors may sell the tickets so purchased by them in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania only and by personal delivery of the tickets to the purchasers They shall not use the mails or express or messenger service in any wise in connection with the advertising sale of distribution of any such tickets

Section 12 The ownership of all tickets may at any time be transferred by delivery of possession and the holder of any ticket shall be conclusively deemed to be the owner thereof and recognition and payment by the Committee of any prize to the holder of any such ticket shall be final and conclusive

Section 13 All moneys received by the Committee from the sale of books or packages of tickets shall be allocated and applied as follows

(a) Not more than five per centum (5%) thereof may be applied on the payment of the expenses of conducting each drawing

(b) Twenty per centum (20%) thereof shall be paid into the State Treasury from time to time as such moneys become available without waiting until any of the drawings hereinafter provided for have been completed and at the conclusion of the last drawing all unexpended balances of moneys withheld for the payment of the expenses of conducting the drawings shall also be paid into the State Treasury and be disposed of as hereinafter provided

(c) Seventy-five per centum (75%) thereof shall be distributed as prizes to the holders of the winning tickets as determined by the drawings hereinafter provided for

Section 14 (a) In the exercise of the police power for the protection of the public health safety morals and welfare threatened by existing conditions of unemployment and in the assumption by the Commonwealth of its duty to care for the poor old aged all of the moneys paid into the State Treasury under the provisions of this act are hereby specifically appropriated to the Department of Welfare to provide old age assistance Such appropriation shall be paid over to said Department from time to time as the moneys become available in such amounts as the Department shall determine

(b) The amounts expended under the provisions of this section shall be audited by the Auditor General as provided by law

Section 15 No prize awarded hereunder except the last prize shall exceed the sum of five hundred dollars ($500) in amount The moneys set aside for prizes shall be distributed as follows

10/75 thereof in $500 prizes
20/75 thereof in $250 prizes
20/75 thereof in $ 50 prizes
25/75 thereof in $ 25 prizes

any odd money left over after the foregoing distribution shall be awarded as the last prize

Section 16 The Committee shall at Harrisburg pay all prizes not less than twenty days after each drawing and then only upon personal presentation of the winning tickets The possession of each ticket shall be conclusive evidence of ownership for the purpose of payment and no one shall be permitted to dispute that the payment was not properly and lawfully made

Section 17 Not less than fifteen days after the Committee has sold the last book or package of tickets the Committee shall hold a drawing which may be continued from day to day to be conducted in the manner hereinafter provided

Section 18 The Committee shall provide a container of ten balls of equal and like weight on which shall be stamped the numbers 0 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 and 9 The container shall be such as will permit shaking and shall have a neck with a mechanical device to release the balls one at a time The balls shall be placed in the container and shall be released one at a time The number appearing on the first ball released shall be the first digit of the first winning number The balls shall then all be replaced in the container and the number appearing on the next ball released shall be the second digit of the first winning number and so on repeatedly until nine balls shall have been drawn The numbers thus appearing on the balls in the order in which they have been released shall be the digits of the winning number of the first prize The next fifty prizes shall be the fifty number nearest to the first prize number numbers greater than being given preference in order to numbers lower than the one drawn This shall be repeated for all the prizes The Committee shall conduct all the drawings in public at Harrisburg Pennsylvania and in the presence of not less than twelve newspaper reporters rep-

lished in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania who shall desire to be present

Section 19 New sets of tickets may be printed and sold and new drawings had thereon from time to time all in accordance with the provisions and requirements hereinbefore made Provided that no new tickets shall be sold nor new drawing held until at least five days shall have expired since the last drawing and the ascertainment of the winning prizes

Section 20 When the Committee has through successive drawings raised and paid over to the State Treasurer as hereinbefore provided a sum in the aggregate equalling one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000) no further drawings shall be held except the one for which tickets have already been sold Upon the completion of such drawing and the payment of the prizes thereunder all the powers and duties of the Committee hereunder shall cease and the Committee shall cease to exist

Section 21 No old age assistance committee shall be appointed under this act and no lottery shall be conducted under the provisions of this act unless at the municipal election in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five the electors of this Commonwealth shall vote in favor of conducting such lotteries for the purposes of providing funds for old age assistance At said municipal election in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five there shall be submitted to the electors of this Commonwealth the following question

Do you favor the conducting of lotteries in this State for the purpose of providing funds for old age assistance	Yes
	No

The said question shall be printed on separate official ballots in bound form by the county commissioners of each county and sufficient number of ballots shall be furnished to the election officers in each election district of each county so that one ballot may be supplied to each voter at such election In districts where voting machines are used such question shall appear on the face of the machine where the machine is properly equipped for such purpose

Section 22 The votes cast on such question shall be counted by the election officers and returns thereof made by them and by election officers where voting machines are used to the prothonotary of the county who shall lay the same before the return board for computation at the same time and in the same manner as other returns The return board shall compute the said returns and certify the result of the vote cast on the question to the Secretary of the Commonwealth who shall compute the returns for the entire Commonwealth

If by the returns it appears that the votes cast on such question in the entire Commonwealth shall be in favor of conducting lotteries for the purpose of providing funds for old age assistance then the old age assistance relief committee provided for in sections one two and three of this act shall be constituted as therein provided But if it appears by the returns of said election that the voters of this Commonwealth voting at said election have voted against the conducting of lotteries to provide funds for old age assistance then no such old age assistance relief committee shall be created

Section 23 All drawings or lotteries authorized by this act shall be legal if the electors of the Commonwealth have voted in favor of lotteries as in this act provided any Act of Assembly of this Commonwealth to the contrary notwithstanding No person shall be prosecuted for any violation of any criminal statute of this Commonwealth because of taking part in any of the activities authorized by this act except for embezzlement larceny or other dishonest conduct in handling moneys or tickets or contracts

Section 24 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed to the extent that they interfere with the operation of this act during the period this act is in force

Section 25 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the bill that is now before you is House Bill No. 237, Printer's Number 1514. The bill is an act to provide for unemployment relief in the present emergency to provide funds for old age assistance by suspending the gambling laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for an indefinite period of time to raise one hundred million dollars

The bill was before the House, it was argued pro and con, and the question was raised whether or not the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania should not themselves vote upon the subject. The bill as amended provides for the people to decide this question. It provides for a referendum at the November election in the year 1935.

Shall this proposition be submitted to the people? The other night we had the question raised as to how much money was needed for old age assistance. It was argued and it was proven by facts that the Commonwealth, in order to take care of the old and the infirm over seventy years of age, must have at least forty million dollars, and I submit to you that a fair method of raising the money to take care of the aged and the infirm is a state lottery. It will hurt no one, it will benefit everybody, it will stimulate trade, it will stimulate circulation of money, it will not interfere with the morals of any person, and it will not take money from the Commonwealth. I submit to you that the present schemes of chances and lotteries that are practiced in the Commonwealth are serious to this Commonwealth, because they take the money out of the Commonwealth and do not leave it here. I think I called your attention to the sweepstakes of Ireland that takes some fifty million dollars from the United States and returns to America less than two hundred fifty thousand dollars. Shall the policy continue of taking our money out of the state and giving us none back or shall we so regulate this gambling instinct that the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania shall be the one to take the profit and not the detriment.

I ask you members of the House to give the people of Pennsylvania the right to decide this question for themselves.

Mr. PFAFF. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I rise to support this bill in the interests of the most deserving class of people in this Commonwealth, the helpless, old and aged, many of whom are on the list today and will qualify to in this biennium. In my experience in rendering service to my constituents I have derived the greatest satisfaction from assisting the old and aged in my district in qualifying and finding out the status of their applications for old age assistance. In this work I have been ably assisted by the Philadelphia Old Age Assistance Fund. I take this opportunity to praise their efficiency, their consideration and fairness. In all my contacts and my inquiries about old age applications, they have extended me every courtesy and promptness in placing at my disposal the exact statlus of these applicants, but one thing the officials in this particular department have always brought home to me is the inevitable need for more funds for this biennium, so that they can take care of the many who are now on the application lists and who will qualify for this assistance during this biennium.

Last week with a heavy heart and great reluctance I voted against the Hoopes amendment to increase the appropriation for the old age assistance fund. I did it because I believe this Legislature could never agree on further tax levies on the already tax burdened people for this worthy cause. I know that there will be certain members of this House who will oppose the principle of state conducted lotteries. I respect their opinion. I know that there are many good people in this Commonwealth who are opposed to this principle. I respect their opinion too. I know there will be many clergymen throughout this Commonwealth who will oppose this principle. I highly respect their opinion, because I believe their profession is the most important profession on this earth, but in my opinion the noble purpose behind this bill, the critical need for funds to pay the old and aged justifies the members of this House to vote for and to support this extreme or revolutionary legislation to meet the critical needs of the times.

In conclusion, members of the House, I appeal to you in the name of charity, the greatest human virtue, to support this bill and to give the people of this Commonwealth the opportunity to decide for themselves.

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am going to occupy a minute of the time of this House. I simply want to state to the members of this House that although the benefits to be derived from a lottery are to be used to help the aged and the blind and other welfare work, is very commendable, all I can say is that we can easily and we have already arranged, provided that tax measures are passed, to raise sufficient funds for those interests. This is only a smoke screen provided to feature the passage of a measure which would be detrimental to the public interests. We do not want to raise the future genration in the belif that they can get something for nothing. W don't want to make gamblers of them. I ask you to vote against this bill.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I rise to defend this bill. Why should we continue to be hypocrites? They are writing numbers in every city in Pennsylvania, and why shouldn't that money come to the state? I represent a district that writes one hundred thousand dollars of numbers a day, and I tell you, ladies and gentlemen of the House, that it is about time that the people of Pennsylvania throw away these Blue Laws and let that money come to the state. Instead of the racketeers making the money, let the state make the money.

I rise in support of this bill and I ask the members to vote "aye" for it. Let us quit being hypocrites in Pennsylvania.

Mr. STEWART. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I rise to oppose this bill. Last week this bill was defeated and should not appear on our calendar again. An amendment has been made with the hope of getting enough votes to pass the bill. It is a step in the wrong direction. It is falling in line with Mexico, South America and Spain.

For the past six years we have been slipping. Those of you who have driven an automobile down an icy hill know the danger when the brakes do not hold. Here we are going down an icy hill attempting to remove the brakes and putting this Commonwealth into the lottery business.

Members of the House, we represent thousand of men and women of this Keystone state; and also thousands of boys and girls who have placed their confidence in us. Will we dare to betray that sacred trust?

Much of my life has been spent in training boys and girls, young men and young women. Do you think that I should advise them to go into the lottery business; should ask them to stand on the corner of Philadelphia and Seventh streets of Indiana, Pennsylvania where large crowds go by, especially on Saturday night, to sell their tickets to the farmer, the miner, and other laborers who need the money they have to keep their families.

Shall we destroy the morals of the rising generation to feed those of the closing generation, who will absolutely oppose such a law. They do not want us to send boys and girls into evil paths to help them. Let us provide for them in an honorable way. Let us keep the brakes on and thus honor those who led us in the right paths. Call to mind how you were trained by your father and mother. We all want our children to be so trained that they will honor us and uphold the government which has given us protection.

In that form of gambling which we call a lottery, many lost that one may win. It cannot possibly be otherwise. And the one who wins has done nothing whatever to deserve to win. Many far worthier and needier lose that he he may prosper. More than that, he revels in it and boasts about it; failing to see that he has already lost moral stamina and manhood. He may protest "Well, they went into it with their eyes open. They know they had a chance of losing just as I did." True, but one of the purposes of good government is to protect citizens against their own folly. The government has laws to protect foolish people against swindlers who promise a chance of great winnings for a comparatively small stake. Shall a government then sanction and make legal another wrong, which is one in principle with swindling, just because people are foolish enough to risk their money. Government ought to mean protection of the people.

The man who wins in a lottery business is usually the man who loses most. Winning once, he is almost ruined as an honest worker from that day on. The gambling habit is far more insidious and lasting than the drinking habit. The man who, at the loss of his brothers, wins money to which he has no real right is like the savage cannibal with his first taste of blood—he is never content to live in any other way. Who can tell of the wives and children who are without the ordinary comforts of life because the husband and father uses what should provide them with food and clothes to gratify his developed instincts of gambling, wanting to live at the cost of others—pauperism of the most vicious character.

Through a financial depression caused through this very instinct followed on a large scale through war and profiteering, many families in America have had to be supported by a public dole. From every part of our land comes the same story—that men are becoming pauperized in attitude of mind and are losing self-respect so completely that they are perfectly content to live off the public as completely as if they were on a poor farm. Our nation needs as much as anything else the renewal of the self-respect and self-reliance that earns its own way by honest work or honest trade, and any movement like a lottery which leads people in the more humble walks of life to indulge in the same spirit of profiteering and blood-sucking that has brought us to our present situation because practiced by a few—any movement like that, instead of being sanctioned and protected by the government of our state should rather be stamped out as most vicious and demoralizing.

It is Kipling in his Recessional who says:

"Lord God of Hosts be with us yet,
Lest we forget, lest we forget."

Mr. SURFACE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the one who drew this bill certainly showed good pugilistic tactics, because with his right hand he brings forth the phrase, to provide for unemployment relief in the present emergency. With his left hand he says, providing funds for the old age assistance, and with both feet he lands in the ring and says, for legalizing lotteries. Who ever saw such a smoke screen? He finds it necessary to back himself with two good propositions in order to bring out his third.

This bill is not for providing funds for unemployment relief. This bill is not for providing funds for old age assistance. This bill is to legalize lotteries, something which is illegal as shown by the fact that on page five, it says, "the distributors shall not use the mails or the express or messenger service in any wise in connection with the advertising, sale and distribution of such tickets" because it is illegal to use the mails for any such purpose as is provided here. It says here in the preamble, "All the usual means of raising money for this purpose have been utilized." I say, Mr. Speaker, that is in error. I have at the present time in the Committee on Counties, a bill, House Bill No. 244, providing for a reduction, a great reduction in the salaries of high salaried office holders. Two years ago that was said to be the best bill for salary reduction and for raising a fund that could be brought out. Now, however, the shoe is on the other foot and the subject is seen in a different light. This bill would bring to us at least nine million dollars per annum and at the same time do something well worth while.

I have also in the Committee on Ways and Means a bill providing for a flat income tax. I know, not by guesswork, but by the careful statement of the Secretary of the Interior that this bill would bring in one million dollars a month. We have spent nearly six months here, six million dollars would have accrued to the State of Pennsylvania had we been utilizing the flat income tax at this time, but we have no income tax.

I am greatly in favor of the proposition for a graded income tax. It is along the line of the proposition of the Tax Justice league, of which I am a member, but while we are waiting for the constitutionality of a graded income tax to be pronounced, while we are waiting to rewrite or amplify our own Constitution so that a graded income tax will be possible, why can't we pass the flat income tax and get the income it will bring to us. I say that there are other means that I could call to your attention for procuring funds.

A gentleman came to me this afternoon and said, "Dr. Surface, I wonder if it is possible that you and I belong to the old fashioned school that believe that I am my brother's keeper?" I said, "I do. If I didn't belive I am my brother's keeper I wouldn't be here representing him and trying to do for him those things that I think should be done at the present time." He said, "Thank God, that's my view exactly." So, there are some of us who do believe that they are their brother's keepers and it is our duty here in this Legislature, if anywhere, to do those things which are for the benefit of our fellow men. I feel, Mr. Speaker, that this lottery proposition is not one of the things that will benefit the people of the Keystone state.

I was speaking with a good, plain farmer, the kind with whom I delight to talk, because they have original ideas, I can learn something from them. I have already learned much, I feel, that is in the books, and I want to go to the other sources and learn things that are not in the books. This farmer says, "If this thing continues in our Legislative halls, what will become of our churches. We have our money invested in them, and according to the plan of the lottery, the first thing is to get them insured and then burn them down, because we will not have any use for them afterwards."

A father came to me a few years ago and said to me with tears in his eyes, "Professor, I wish you would talk to my son." I said, "What's the trouble?" He said, "He has taken to gambling and what little money he earns, he gambles away." Now, this lottery business is known to be a gamble, as was stated in the speech made by the sponsor here last week. We know that. We are trying hard to teach our youth that they should be willing to earn their bread by the sweat of their brow. This is distinctly criminal; it is wrong to attempt to get something for nothing or to get much for little. Back of the thing is the evil proposition of attempting to get something for nothing, which will corrupt the people of our state in a manner that will prove disastrous. A study of the economics of the lottery shows that it is fundamentally all wrong.

What else does this bill provide? Twenty-five per cent of the intake shall go back to the state and seventy-five per cent shall go to the bookmakers. That is helping the old and the poor and the aged with a vengeance, isn't it? I feel that if we were to consult with our own consciences and do that which is right, we would say "Lead us not into temptation." Lead none of the youth of our country into temptation, do not make it possible for any lad to be lead into temptation such as this.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have been listening intently to the debate on the floor of the House, and I thought perhaps I would hear some good reason that would cause me to change my vote as given last week. Thus far I have heard no argument that leads me to believe that this bill is any better today than it was last week. The only change in the bill that I can see is the provision that says our people back home shall vote and say whether or not they want a lottery conducted.

I submit that when this body goes on record one week as saying a certain bill on its merits is miserable and rotten, it is a very improper thing for us to say to the people back home, "Here's a bill which we know is rotten, yet we want you to back us up and say we are wrong."

I sak you all in the interests of your children and my children to keep gambling out of our state as a licensed racket.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, as a man new in legislation, I am inclined to think that this House at times is very inconsistent in its voting.

I wonder sometimes as these young people are gathered here listening to us and watching us legislate for Pennsylvania, what their impression of us is as a legislative body. We have had schools here and the galleries most of the time have been filled with young people.

If we are agreed, as the gentleman from Huntingdon has said, by a prior vote, that this bill is bad, what is there in this bill now that should induce us to again reconsider it and place it before the voters of the state? Doesn't this Legislature and its members who are gathered here in these halls have the nerve to say whether these measures are good or whether they are bad? Are we losing that tradition, which is always before us, that we are the lawmakers of this state and not the people by a referendum? It seems to me that during the last few weeks all we have been doing has been placing bills before the people and asking them to decide upon them. Is that the purpose for which they sent us to Harrisburg? Absolutely not. They had confidence that we knew what they wanted, and if we are continually placing the responsibility on their shoulders, then we are not doing our job. I think it is high time that this Assembly awakens to the fact that we are the lawmakers, not the people back home, and I am hoping that there are enough men here who voted "no" on this bill last week who will again have nerve enough to vote "no" now. This change in the bill makes it no worse and no better, in my opinion, and I am asking you to vote "no" as you did last week.

Mr. PFAFF. Mr. Speaker and members of the House the opposition has not offered one practical plan or one real solution of merit as to how we will raise this much needed money to meet the requirements of the old age pension act. The act is on our statute books, and if we don't have enough money to meet the requirements of the aged who qualify under the act, I then maintain that the old age assistance act before the end of this biennium will be a hollow mockery.

If there were some plan suggested in this House as to how we could get this much needed money, I would be glad to go along with the plan or with some other plan, but under the circumstances the bill before you now, in my humble opinion, is the only solution and I ask you to vote "aye" on this bill.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I will briefly reply to the opponents of this measure. I wonder why my friends should compare this bill and its operation with Mexico and then in the next breath argue morality? I know of no more moral countries than Sweden and Ireland. Has anybody said that Ireland has lost its morality because of its sweepstakes lottery?

Members of the House, my friend has argued that taking a chance is terrible and he has argued about our schools, but I know you know that our children are sent to various schools in this Commonwealth and elsewhere to study economics and for what purpose? To better serve those that play on the stock exchanges. When our good President sent for experts to curb the stock exchange in New York, he sent for the students of the various colleges on finance, and he found them in the employ of the bankers, to better advise how they might take a chance.

Now, members of the House, where does chance in business begin and where does it end? Is my friend so sure in idea of business to believe that men take no chances in buying real estate for a raise? If it is wrong to buy a ticket to help feed an old man, how much more then is it wrong to buy a house to raise the rent on the tenant and make him pay a higher price.

Now, members of the House, this bill does not legalize lotteries. It does not break down the gambling laws of this Commonwealth. It repeals no criminal law on our statute books. It is merely a dispensation to feed the old, while they are still here, that may enjoy life with pleasure and not with agony.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

REASONS FOR VOTE

Miss BRANCATO. Mr. Speaker, I desire to file the following reason for my vote.

Because the moneys raised by legalized lotteries will be used for old age pensions which are sadly needed in Pennsylvania and because no other apparent practical method has been presented to the House to raise the necessary money, I voted "aye" on this measure.

Mr. CARSON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to file the following reason for my vote.

SPECIAL ORDER ON HOUSE BILL NO. 1342

The SPEAKER. The Chair lays before the House the special order of business fixed for this hour, House Bill No. 1342, Printer's No. 999.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1342, as follows:

An Act requiring every person registering a motor vehicle in the Commonwealth to furnish proof of financial responsibility with respect to liability for personal injury or death arising from the ownership operation or use of such motor vehicle on the ways of the Commonwealth by the registrant or by any other person with his express or implied consent providing the nature of public liability policy which may be used as such proof providing for the regulation of the risk classifications underwriting rules premiums rates and schedule or merit rating plans of insurance companies issuing such policies providing penalties and repealing all inconsistent acts and parts of acts

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same as follows

(f) The singular shall include the plural and the masculine shall include the feminine and the neuter

Section 3 No Registration Unless Certificate of Financial Responsibility

No motor vehicle unless owned by the Commonwealth or by a political sub-division thereof shall be registered as required by The Vehicle Code or by any amendment or supplement thereto unless the application for registration is accompanied by a certificate of financial responsibility as hereinafter defined

Section 4 Certificate of Financial Responsibility

A certificate of financial responsibility shall be in a form approved by the Secretary of Revenue and shall consist of (a) the certificate of an insurance company authorized by the Commonwealth to issue liability policies as hereinafter defined stating that it has issued to the owner of the motor vehicle sought to be registered a liability policy or a binder covering that motor vehicle and running at least as long as the registration applied for or (b) the certificate of the Secretary of Revenue that such owner has deposited with him cash or securities as hereinafter provided in section nine or (c) the certificate of the Secretary of Labor and Industry that such owner is wholly exempt from insuring his liability under the workmen's compensation laws

Section 5 Definition of Liability Policy

A liability policy as used in this act means a policy of insurance against loss by reason of the liability to pay damages to others for bodily injuries including death at any time resulting therefrom or consequential damages consisting of expenses for medical nursing hospital or surgical services incurred in connection with or on account of such bodily injuries or death by any person properly chargeable with or actually furnishing support to the injured person at the time of the injury arising out of the ownership operation or use of any motor vehicle on the ways of the Commonwealth It shall provide indemnity for and protection to the insured and to any person responsible for the operation of the insured's motor vehicle with his express or implied consent against the hazards described above It shall provide indemnity to the amount or limit of at least one thousand dollars on account of injury to or death of any one person and subject to such limit as respects injury to or death of any one person of at least two thousand dollars on account of any one accident resulting in injury to or death of more than one person the policy shall not be required to provide indemnity on account of injury to or death of any person employed by the insured or by any other person responsible as above stated if payments or benefits under any workmen's compensation law shall be payable on account of such injury or death

Section 6 Contents of Liability Policy

Every liability policy shall contain substantially the following provisions but may contain additional provisions giving greater protection to the insured or to the injured or to both

(a) Liability of Insurer Fixed When Damage Done liability of the insurer shall become fixed whenever the loss or damage for which the insured is responsible occurs and the satisfaction by the insured of a final judgment for such loss or damage shall not be a condition precedent to the right or duty of the company to make payment on account of said loss or damage No such liability policy shall be cancelled or annulled by any agreement between the company and the insured after the insured has become responsible for such loss or damage and any such cancellation or annulment shall be void

(b) Direct Recovery Upon the recovery of a final judgment for any loss or damage which was indemnified against by a liability policy at the time of the accrual of the cause of action the judgment creditor shall be entitled to have the insurance money applied to the satisfaction of such judgment

(c) Acts of Insured Not to Void Policy No statement made by the insured or on his behalf either in securing the policy or in securing registration of the motor vehicle covered thereby no violation of the terms of the policy and no act or default of the insured either before or after the issuing of the policy shall defeat or void the policy so as to bar recovery by a judgment creditor within the limits provided in the policy However the company shall not be liable on a judgment for loss or damage covered by the policy if the company has not had prompt notice and an opportunity to appear and to defend the action against the insured or if the judgment has been obtained because the insured has refused to cooperate with the company in defending the action

(d) Policy Covers Legal Representatives of Insured If the death insolvency or bankruptcy of the insured shall occur within the policy period the policy during the unexpired portion of such period shall cover the legal representatives of the insured

(e) Cancellation Either the company or the insured may cancel the policy by giving to the other written notice fifteen days before the intended effective date of cancellation If the insured shall cancel the policy and if he has paid the premium on the policy to the company or to its agent who issued the policy or to the duly licensed insurance broker if any by whom the policy was negotiated he shall be entitled to receive a return premium after deducting the customary monthly short rates for the time the policy shall have been in force If the company shall cancel the policy the insured shall if he has paid the premium as aforesaid be entitled to receive a return premium calculated on a pro rata basis After receiving a notice of cancellation by the company the insured may terminate the policy immediately by filing a new certificate of financial responsibility in which event the return premium shall be calculated as of the date of such filing

(f) Return Premium if Company Ceases Business If the company shall cease for any reason to be authorized to transact business in the Commonwealth the insured shall if he has paid the premium as aforesaid be entitled to a return premium calculated on a pro rata basis as of the date of such cessation

(g) Policy Application and Rider Form Entire Contract The policy the written application therefor if any and any rider or endorsement which shall not conflict with the provisions of law shall constitute the entire contract between the parties

Section 7 Rights and Liabilities Under Binders

If an insurance company shall issue a binder pending the issuing of a formal liability policy the provisions of the preceding section shall apply to such a binder except that paragraphs (a) to (g) inclusive need not be expressly stated therein but may be incorporated by reference in a manner approved by the Secretary of Revenue

Section 8 Authorized Companies

The Insurance Commissioner shall on or before September first one thousand nine hundred thirty-six and from time to time thereafter notify the Secretary of Revenue of the names of all companies as they become or cease to be authorized to issue liability policies

Section 9 Deposits of Cash or Securities

(a) In lieu of obtaining a liability policy an applicant for registration may deposit with the Secretary of Revenue for each motor vehicle sought to be registered cash or direct obligations of the United States or both of the aggregate face value of twenty-five hundred dollars

(b) The Secretary of Revenue shall require a similar additional deposit for each accident in respect to which an action is brought against the depositor or against any person operating or using his motor vehicles with his express or implied consent

(c) The Secretary of Revenue shall place any cash so deposited with him in a special deposit account with a bank or a trust company in which he shall be authorized by law to deposit official funds The depositor of securities shall be entitled to the income from such securities until they shall be returned to him or attached to satisfy a judgment as hereinafter provided

(d) The deposit shall be returned to the depositor when he shall file for the same motor vehicle a certificate of an insurance company or of the Secretary of Labor and Industry as above provided or on the expiration of the registration of the motor vehicle with respect to which the deposit was made if the Secretary of Revenue shall know of no pending action which could give rise to an attachment as hereinafter provided and the time has expired within which any such action can be brought

(e) If an action shall be brought which could give rise to an attachment as hereinafter provided the depositor shall within ten days of receiving notice thereof give written notice thereof by registered mail to the Secretary of Revenue If he shall fail to give such notice the depositor shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be subject to a fine of not less than one hundred dollars or more than one thousand dollars

Section 10 Attachment Sur Judgment

If the plaintiff procures judgment in an action he may compel the insurance money or the cash or securities or both deposited with the Secretary of Revenue as herein provided to be applied to the satisfaction of his judgment by causing a writ of attachment sur judgment to be issued If an insurance company is the garnishee in such attachment it shall not deduct from or credit to the amount of the judgment any sum owed it by the insured

If the purpose of the attachment is to realize on cash or securities deposited with the Secretary of Revenue a writ of attachment sur judgment may be issued by the court in which the judgment has been obtained naming the Secretary of Revenue and the depositor of such cash or securities as garnishees The sheriff of the county in which judgment has been obtained shall deputize the sheriff of Dauphin County to serve the writ on the Secretary of Revenue and the sheriff of the county in which the depositor may be found to serve the writ on the depositor If the sheriff cannot find the depositor in the Commonwealth before the return day of the writ he shall serve the writ on the Secretary of Revenue whom the depositor shall be conclusively presumed to have appointed as his agent to accept such service and the Secretary of Revenue shall promptly send to the depositor notice of such attachment by registered mail addressed to the depositor's last known address as it appears in his records The court which issues the writ of attachment shall have jurisdiction of the fund sought to be attached and shall give judgment in the attachment proceedings

Section 11 Furnishing Names of Insurers The Secretary of Revenue shall on request furnish to the plaintiff in any such action the name and the Pennsylvania address of the company which has insured the defendant

Section 12 Regulation of Rates The classifications of risks underwriting rules premium rates and schedule or merit ratings plans for the insurance of motor vehicle owners under this act all of which matters are in this section hereinafter referred to as rates shall be established by one or more rating bureaus as the Insurance Commissioner shall determine situate within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania conducted by the insurance companies and subject to examination by the Insurance Commissioner However the Insurance Commissioner may in his discretion permit to be filed with him in lieu of the schedule described below any schedule established by a rating bureau of national scope even though such bureau is not situate within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

On or before April first of each year beginning with the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six each rating bureau shall file with the Insurance Commissioner a schedule of rates for the ensuing calendar year This schedule shall be effective for the ensuing calendar year and thereafter until new rates are established as provided by this act unless the Insurance Commissioner shall on or before May first file in his office written objections to the schedule and shall promtply notify the rating bureau of such objections It shall be the duty of the Insurance Commissioner to filed such objections if he shall decide that any risk classification underwriting rule premium rate or schedule or merit rating plan is unreasonable inadequate or unjustly discriminatory among risks of essentially the same hazard

If the Insurance Commissioner shall file objections as above provided he shall on or before May first appeal to the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County asking for a review of the schedule filed by the rating bureau and for a consideration of his objections thereto The court shall hear and determine this appeal as promptly as possible and shall in its decree fix reasonable adequate and non-discriminatory rates for the ensuing calendar year

If any year the Insurance Commissioner shall find that there is any item of rates or any insurance company with respect to which no such schedule has been filed on or before April first he shall on or before May first establish reasonable adequate and non-discriminatory rates for the ensuing calendar year with respect to such item or such insurance company From such action of the Insurance Commissioner any rating bureau may within ten days appear to the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County which shall hear and determine the petition as promptly as possible and shall in its decree establish reasonable adequate and non-discriminatory rates for the ensuing calendar year

In any appeal taken to the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County in pursuance of the provisions of this section the appellant shall file a petition stating in detail the matters objected to and after the other party has filed an answer the cause shall be heard by the court without a jury in accordance with such rules of procedure as the court shall adopt

From any decree of the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County entered in pursuance of the provisions of this section the Insurance Commissioner or any rating bureau may appeal to the Superior Court but no other party may so appeal Such an appeal shall be entertained by the Superior Court in the same manner as an appeal from the Public Service Commission and the Superior Court shall thereupon establish reasonable adequate and non-discriminatory rates for the ensuing calendar year

Pending an appeal to the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County or to the Superior Court the rates effective when the appeal is taken shall continue to be effective until new rates shall be established as provided by this act except as the court before whom the appeal is pending shall otherwise direct

Neither the Insurance Commissioner nor the court shall be required to establish a schedule or merit rating plan with respect to any class of risk or any insurance company for which such a plan is not included in a schedule filed by a rating bureau

Section 13 Cancellation of Liability Policy

If the insurer or the insured shall notify the other of an intention to cancel any liability policy the insurer shall immediately give written notice of such intended cancellation to the Department of Revenue and the Department of Revenue shall revoke the registration of the insured motor vehicle as soon as the cancellation becomes effective If any insurer shall knowingly fail to give such written notice the Insurance Commissioner may deprive such insurer of its right to do business in the Commonwealth

Section 14 Rules and Regulations

The Governor shall have power to make reasonable rules and regulations to carry this act into effect and may from time to time delegate any of such power to the Secretary of Revenue or to the Insurance Commissioner

Section 15 Constitutionality

It is the intention of the General Assembly that if this act cannot take effect in its entirety because of the judgment of any court of competent jurisdiction holding unconstitutional any part or parts thereof the remaining provisions of the act shall be given full force and effect as completely as if the part or parts held unconstitutional had not been included herein

Section 16 Repealer

The act approved the fifteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws five hundred fifty-three) entitled "An act relating to the financial responsibility of operators and owners of motor vehicles and to make uniform the law with reference thereto requiring operators and owners of automobiles under certain circumstances to furnish proof of financial responsibility as herein defined providing for the suspension of operators' licenses and motor vehicle registration certificates in certain cases regulating insurance policies which may be accepted as proof of financial responsibility imposing duties upon the Secretary of Revenue the State Treasurer and prothonotaries and prescribing penalties" is hereby repealed

All other acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed

Section 17 Effective Date of Act

This act shall become effective on the first day of January one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BURKE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, we sort of started on this bill last week and I guess we will finish it tonight. This is the compulsory insurance bill, which provides that before anyone can get a license plate for his car, he show evidence that he carries an insurance policy for at least from one to two thousand dollars, one thousand dollars for one person and two thousand dollars for more than one person injured in an accident.

Now, members of the House, I am particularly incensed on this compulsory insurance proposition tonight, much more so than I was one week ago, because just yesterday I was reminded of the mental attitude of thousands of Pennsylvanians who are financial irresponsible, when I was driving my car in Philadelphia and suddenly heard the clanging of bumpers and fenders. I pulled off to the side of the road and a young chap about twenty years of age, was driving a roadster with two young ladies in the front seat, and a second young chap in the rumble seat. The bumper was tied up with a rope. And very unfortunately, I guess, by colliding with my car, he broke the rope and he pulled off to the side of the road following me. After the usual exchange of pleasantries I looked at his driver's license and said, "I suppose you are not insured," and he replied very sheepishly he was not. One of the sweet young things in the front seat, about 18 years of age, said to me, "Oh, you cannot get anything."

Members of the House, I cited that little instance just to bring home to you, as it has been brought home to me before, the indifferent attitude of a lot of people who drive so called rattletraps.

The question of benefits from automobile accidents is becoming rather alarming. Since 1913 the fatalities from automobile accidents have increased 500 per cent, while accidents from other causes have declined 30 per cent. In 1934 in Pennsylvania, 2075 persons were killed by automobiles, and 51,000 were injured.

Now, in urging the passage of this bill, I rest my claim on the premise that when the State gives a license to a person to operate a motor vehicle, that is, when they license a car, they are putting in the hands of the owner or the operator of that car a dangerous instrumentality, and I do not believe the license should be given until it has been shown that the person is financially able to pay for the damage that he could inflict with his car. Now, I have heard a lot of comment on this bill around the House. I think that all of the objections that have been raised to my bill are really objections to the Massachusetts law. So, let us move the House up to Massachusetts.

Let us look at their law, let us compare that with my bill. I think a lot of the members who have criticized my bill have not even read it. In the first place, the compulsory insurance law of Massachusetts made a very inauspicious start when the bill permitted the insurance commissioner to fix the rates. During the first year of the operation of the law the Insurance Commissioner,—I want you to get this,—cut the rates 22 per cent, over the objections of the rating bureaus. Naturally, while insurance rates in other states were rising it was very unwise for Massachusetts to cut their insurance rates 22 per cent. How could you expect a real favorable reaction from such an unintelligent approach to a serious problem? But, by some peculiar process of reasoning there has been an objection raised that compulsory insurance increases accidents. I will concede this, that the compulsory insurance increases the number of reported accidents, but I will not concede that it increases accidents because I can't imagine an automobile operator who, when he is not insured, comes to a crossing blows his horn and puts his foot on the brakes, but as soon as he gets an insurance policy, he rides past the intersection, with his foot on the gas. There is nothing further from common sense.

Let us take a look at the accident rate in Massachusetts. In 1927, the first year that the Massachusetts law was in effect there were 682 people killed. In 1930, their fatalities had increased 16 per cent.

Let us compare that with Connecticut which had at that time a financial responsibility law. Connecticut in 1927 has 337 fatalities. In 1930 they had an increase in fatalities of 17 per cent.

Now, let us look at Pennsylvania. In 1927 they had 1,860 fatalities. And in 1930 their fatalities had increased 32 per cent, against an increase in Massachusetts of 16 per cent.

Now, if you are going to use the fatality rate as evidence of the bad effects of compulsory insurance, then you must use those same statistics against the compulsory law of Connecticut and the lack of either law in Pennsylvania. There has been a great deal of discussion about increase in rates. I have figures here which I got from a report submitted to the Columbia School of Social Science. A National survey was made concerning the benefits received in automobile accidents. The figures which I have are not colored with bias. If they were, they would favor the insurance companies, because they were supplied by the National Association of Casualty and Surety Underwriters, who do not favor compulsory insurance. So I will use their figures, without the elaborate adjectives fraud and collusion. We shall see what happened to the insurance rates in Massachusetts. I am going to compare the rates in Massachusetts with the rates in nine other states that are comparable to Massachusetts, industrially and economically.

For 1927, we will use the index number 100 to represent the average incurred loss, for the incurred loss is directly proportional to the insurance rate. In 1928, the figure for Massachusetts went up to 111. In 1929 it was 110; in 1930 to 122. Nine comparable states during those four years were as follows: 100, 102, 111, and 119. In other words in spite of all of the excoxiation of the Massachusetts law, their 1930 rates were represented by the number 122, while nine comparable states were 119, and the country at large 121.

I want you to compare for the year 1929 the average amount of benefits paid to dependent relatives under the Massachusetts Workmen's Compensation Act and the Massachusetts Compulsory Insurance Law. Under the Workmen's Compensation Law, there was an average of three thousand seven hundred ninety-nine dollars paid, while under the compulsory insurance law, which is supposed to induce fraud and collusion, they paid only two thousand and eighty-eight dollars.

There has also been raised the objection that compulsory insurance will drive the registration list down. In Massachusetts during the first year of the law, they lost one per cent of the registration, and since that time they have increased, at a greater rate than Pennsylvania.

Members of the House, if you are disposed to pass on the merits of this bill by weighing the cost of the insurance, I submit those figures to you, and say that compulsory insurance in Massachusetts did not increase rates The incurred losses of the insurance companies prove it.

There is another angle to this bill. I am not submitting the bill because it will not increase insurance rates, and I do not believe it will, but I say that this bill has merits even if it would increase insurance rates, because I think this House is pledged, both Republican and Democratic members, to the advancement of social legislation.

I speak, members of the House, for the nine hundred and eighty Pennsylvanians, who in nineteen thirty-four were killed by automobiles, and they did not receive one cent in compensation. I speak for the Pennsylvanians who were killed in nineteen thirty-four, only seven per cent of whom received enough to pay their funeral expenses.

Now, I wish to draw an analogy between this bill and the Workmen's Compensation Act. Twenty years ago, the legislature of Pennsylvania was sufficiently socially minded to pass a Workmen's Compensation Act. You know that under the Workmen's Compensation Act, the employer is required to insure his employes against injuries, and the employer is liable to pay benefits, even in cases,—I want you to get this;—where the accident is caused by the negligence of the employe.

I submit this bill to you as a social proposition, which requires payment of benefits only in the case where the driver of the automobile is at fault. I speak on behalf of the people who are unorganized, on behalf of your constituents who are dependent relatives of who have the victims of auto accidents and other constituents who are going to be killed and injured in nineteen thirty-five, nineteen thirty-six and every other year. Are you going to turn your backs on them simply because you think that the bill might cost the few more dollars represented by the cost of insurance? If we are ever conscious of the rights of these poor victims, who carry no influence, you cannot vote "no" on this bill.

Mr. REISING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I listened quite attentively to the remarks of the gentleman who just preceded me, and of course, he has a good, strong argument from the point of view of the fellow who is financially able to meet this obligation, but when you take into consideration the fact that many thousands and even millions of our people who are working one, two and three days a week, have been forced away from their work by reason of high rents and other living costs in the city and their inability to get by on their incomes, go to the country districts, where hey have been compelled and are now being compelled to depend on an automobile for transportation, which they can buy at a reasonable figure; and due to the further fact that transportation facilities have increased in price, railroad cars and street cars have been taken out and buses have been substituted with the increased cost of transportation, and if you are going to compel at this time everyone owning an automobile to take out two thousand dollars worth of insurance, you are just going to add more people to the relief rolls, due to the fact that they will not be able to hold their jobs, and make a living and get by as they are at this time. I feel we should give some consideration to the applicability of this proposition, and while it is a meritorious thing, yet at this time I think we are not justified in imposing this hardship upon the people.

With respect to what the gentleman said with regard to the insurance rates in Massachusetts being reduced, because of the increased number of policies on account of this law, he does not say by any stretch of the imagination that we are going to have a reduction in rates in Pennsylvania, because they are not in the habit of reducing rates in Pennsylvania; they are more in the habit of increasing them.

So, I would ask you to look at the side of the fellow who just simply cannot afford to meet this obligation, and they are the greatest number in this state.

I want to say in conclusion, that it is not so much the insurance policy that causes accidents but it is that loose nut behind the wheel.

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, under House Bill Number 1342 it will be absolutely necessary for each person who applies for license plates to furnish an insurance policy showing that he is financially responsible in case of an accident. I don't know how many of you have had the experience since financial responsibility went into effect in the state of Pennsylvania in trying to obtain insurance for the man who drives an automobile and does not own one. When you try to get operator's financial responsibility policy, you have to go and hunt a company to take them. Now, if we have laws in this state to compel you to do a certain thing, it will be up to the state to provide the means and the state of Pennsylvania will positively have to go into the automobile insurance business, if the insurance company will not take the risks. Insurance companies have the right to decide whether or not they are going to take certain risks, and if they decide they will not take them and there is a law that you must have insurance then the State will have to provide the means and it will be exactly the same as the Workmen's Compensation Laws. There will be a big appropriation to carry the expenses of the Department, in order that they may be able to compete with the insurance companies to carry this business on a business basis. I say that it is absolutely wrong to pass a compulsory insurance bill at this time when everybody is trying to get back on his feet.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I had not intended to speak on this bill, but one of my friends here said this is just another insurance company racket. I wish to dispell that idea. I can say, as the executive of an insurance company that this bill is not backed by the insurance companies. It is not a safety measure. It is a compulsory measure and it unquestionably would work a hardship upon a great many poor people if they were compelled to insure their cars under the provisions of this compulsory act. I believe it would be a mistake to pass such a bill at this time. We have passed measures here which provide a reasonable degree of protection. In case of an accident the license is withdrawn and not renewed until after a period of time. It is not renewed after a certain number of accidents until the car owner can prove that he has taken out the proper insurance protection. Those laws we have on the statute books and I feel that this bill would do no good at the present time. I agree with my friend from Philadelphia, who just spoke, that it would result in perhaps the state going into the insurance business, and I do not believe that would be a good thing. All in all I believe that this bill is not timely. It has merit, and perhaps in time we will be ready in Pennsylvania for a compulsory law, but I don't believe that that time is now when the people are so hard up and distressed that they could not afford to pay this additional premium.

Mr. FLINCHBAUGH. Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question.

The motion was seconded by Messrs. Ruth, LaRue, Cohen, Sumney, Stone, Haberlen, Sinwell, Coakley, VanSickle, Rinn, Cannon, Coolahan, Stank, Harmuth, George E. Downey, Pfaff, Furman, Schwab, Panton, Cochran, Welsh and others.

On the question,

Shall the main question be now put?

It was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Section 25 Effective Date This act shall become effective on the first day of January one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Butler permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MURRIN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman to explain the purpose of the bill.

Mr. MURRIN. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, this bill is captioned an appropriation bill, the purpose of which is to provide revenues for schools. You may have a dozen appropriation bills but if there isn't anything to appropriate, of what use are they?

This bill also provides for that which to appropriate. Since the introduction of this bill I have had correspondence from every section of the state, from educators enlisting aid for it, because they were impressed with its merits.

In addition to the revenue provided for the public schools, it also contains a provision which calls for a reduction on real estate taxation, for which I have also had tremendous support and sentiment for it. Incidentally, we have heard so much about reduction of real estate taxes, and about revenue for public schools, this takes care of both, and I ask you to vote for this bill.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, do the provisions of this bill change the present four mill tax on securities to a tax of seven mills for school purposes?

Mr. MURRIN. Mr. Speaker, that is true.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, would it leave the four mill tax to be levied and collected by the county?

Mr. MURRIN. Mr. Speaker, no, it will not.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, in other words, this bill would take away from the county its present four mill tax?

Mr. MURRIN. It will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am thoroughly in accord with the general desire of the members of this House to relieve real estate where we can by increasing the return from the State to the public schools. There is no question that our public schools are facing a very grave problem in the next biennium. The amount of the general appropriation bill is fifty-eight million dollars to take care of subsidies under the Edmonds act. That is the usual subsidy; that does not increase the amount which the state has to contribute, and therefore is no further relief upon real estate. But this bill, while its purpose is very good, is bad in its affects because it will take away from the county the four mill tax which it now receives. It would mean in almost every county in this State, particularly the counties in the Philadelphia metropolitan district, it would mean that that tax would have to be placed back upon real estate by the county.

In the second place the most dangerous thing in the attempt to take away from the counties the four mill tax is that you disrupt the borrowing capacity of every county, because personal property which is taxed by the counties is calculated on the amount of the assessed valuation that the counties have, upon which they can create indebtedness. If you were to pass this bill, I am sure that you would throw your county finances into chaos and therefore this bill should be defeated.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented extracts from the Journal of the Senate which were laid upon the table.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE TO MEET DURING SESSION

Mr. HARKINS asked and obtained permission of the House for the Committee on Pensions and Gratuities to meet during the session.

STATEMENT BY MR. TURNER

Mr. TURNER asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I just want to call the attention of the House to the fact that a little earlier in the evening you passed the McCreary bill that provided for increasing the usual four mill tax on personal property to six mills, four mills to the county and two mills to the state. You have now passed a bill with the usual four mill tax, but increased it to seven mills, and the tax will go to the school board.

Mr. VanSICKLE. Mr. Speaker, that is following the usual custom of giving a great latitude to the Senate in making their choice.

HOUSE BILL NO. 473 TAKEN FROM TABLE

Mr. CAPUTO. Mr. Speaker, I move that the Senate Message on House Bill No. 473, which was laid upon the table be taken from the table.

Section 3 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment"

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendment made by the Senate?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, House Bill No. 473 was passed by this House as amended. It then went over into the Senate and the Senate removed our amendment and sent it back here for concurrence in their amendment. I talked to the representative of the Department of Banking and he informed me that the administration has adopted the bill as passed by the Senate.

I was opposed to the bill; I was opposed to the amendments but realizing that it is now an administration bill, it would be useless for me to further continue to quarrel with them.

On the question recurring,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

An Act making an appropriation to the Downingtown Industrial and Agricultural School Downingtown Pennsylvania

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of information.

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know if the Downtown Industrial and Agricultural School is a state institution under the control of the state.

Mr. STOTT. Mr. Speaker, it is not a state instituion.

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I am very much opposed to any appropriation to schools that are not under the control of the state in these times when we have cut the appropriations to normal schools and public schools. I think that we do not have enough money to make appropriations to schools for which we accept no responsibility. I ask the members to vote against this appropriation.

Mr. STOTT. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the Downingtown School has been receiving a state appropriation for years and is doing wonderful work for the colored people in that vicinity and for people from all over the state. I ask the members of the House to vote for this appropriation.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2929 (Senate Bill No. 963), entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Trustees of the University of Pennsylvania

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I would like to register my objection to the passage of this bill, which appropriates almost two and one-half million dollars to the University of Pennsylvania, which is not a state school. Our Normal Schools have been cut, the public schools have been cut, and the proper place to make the cut is in this University. I ask you gentlemen to vote against this bill.

(Remarks expunged from record).

MOTION TO EXPUNGE REMARKS

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I move that that portion of the remarks which the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Brown, has just made, as follows: "bribed the Senators with scholarships" be expunged from the record.

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to state that I told you the truth and the truth should never be removed from the record. The people of this state have the right to know the truth.

The SPEAKER. The Chair rules that the motion to expunge can be made after the House has disposed of the bill.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Vol. 18. HARRISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, JUNE 18, 1935 No. 78

SENATE

TUESDAY, June 18, 1935.

The Senate met at 12 o'clock noon.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. William E. Howard, D. D., offered the following prayer:

We thank Thee, O God, for our nation—for what she has done and has been in the past and for what she is doing and is today.

We thank Thee, O God, for Pennsylvania, the Keystone State of our great union of States—for the record she has made in by-gone days and for her present power and glory. Give us high and holy ambitions for the future.

May the patriotic deeds of our fathers be rounds of a ladder by which we shall climb to loftier heights of civic achievement. May we look upward, not downward; may we march forward, not backward.

Voices from afar call us and shadowy forms upon the mountain-top of Liberty beckons us. Help us to quickly answer their call scale the heights and clasp their hands.

May the legislative acts of this day in this place be an upward stride toward these high ideals in our State and national life. Amen.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Said amendments having been printed as required by the Constitution, were twice read as follows:

Amend title page 1 line 1 by striking out the words "an appropriation" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "appropriations" also section 1 page 1 line 4 by striking out the word "two" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "one"; also line 4 by striking out the numerals "($200,000)" and inserting in lieu thereof the numerals

"($100,000)"; also page 1 by adding the following sections after line 10:

Section 2 In addition to the appropriation made by section one of this act the sum of one hundred thirty-five thousand four hundred seventy-five dollars fourteen cents ($135,475.14) is hereby appropriated to the Jefferson Medical College of Philadelphia for the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred thirty-five for the payment of obligations incurred by such college for the support and promotion of medical education during the two fiscal years ending May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred thirty-five and which were not paid out of the appropriation for such purposes made to such college by the General Assembly at its regular session of one thousand nine hundred thirty-three because of insufficient revenues in the General Fund

Any law to the contrary notwithstanding amounts payable to the Jefferson Medical College of Philadelphia out of this appropriation shall be paid as promptly after the effective date of this act as the revenues of the General Fund will permit and for this purpose payments for this appropriation shall take precedence over payments from the appropriation made by section one of this act

Section 3 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment and shall be retroactive to June first one thousand nine hundred thirty-five

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President and members of the Senate, last night and also this morning, when many of the Senators were asleep and more probably groggy, we discussed to some extent a bill we call the Deputy Sheriff Bill. During the discussion we sought to point out just what this bill was aimed at; we tried to point out that for a long time it has been the habit of sheriffs in this Commonwealth, at the instance of industrial corporations, to appoint deputies for the protection of their properties. As to the compensation of those deputies the practice has been to pay the sheriff for the use of those deputies. We pointed out this morning where in one case a sheriff of this Commonwealth was receiving an amount for each deputy considerably in excess of the amount that he would pay his deputies, a pure and simple case of what we call grafting; and the industrial company that paid him the money, with that knowledge, was guilty of bribing the sheriff.

The Deputy Sheriff Bill that we discussed this morning was a Deputy Sheriff Bill to eliminate that practice. The Deputy Sheriff Bill that we sent back to committee was to permit the sheriff to appoint the deputies for the protection of industrial companies, but the companies would have to pay the county and the county pay the sheriffs, so as to eliminate the grafting and bribing of our sheriffs throughout this Commonwealth.

When that bill was called up for second reading there was a motion made that the bill should be recommitted to committee for the purpose of amendment. I am now informed positively by the chairman of that committee that that bill was sent back to committee and was indefinitely postponed, which means "picking"—in our Senatorial language. There is no question of where the bill is now, and what its fate is in this session.

In this particular case there are certain individuals who come from counties where the situation is altogether different from the situation that faces the western part of this State, where the coal companies select the men and bring them to the sheriff, who deputizes them, and then they go out to defend the companies' properties. They take orders from the companies, and the companies pay these deputies as they pay any other employees.

Now, in some other counties that is not true, and I understand, and the talk has been going around this Senate floor, that Labor is opposed to this bill. Labor is not opposed to this bill; it is the bill that Labor has been fighting for for a long time. They wanted that bill out instead of the old Coal and Iron Police Bill, which did not at that time affect anybody; it had been dormant for many years. But this situation that we are facing today, this open door to corruption and bribery of our sheriffs throughout this Commonwealth, is a serious matter; and, as I pointed out this morning, the reports of the State of Pennsylvania will show that was sent to jail for doing that very thing, and I cannot understand how any man with common sense could be opposed to abolishing a system involving, or closing the door to, this kind of practice.

Now, Mr. President, since we know the status of this bill at this time, since we know that it has been indefinitely postponed, I am about to move for the discharge of that committee from further consideration of that bill; and I challenge the statement of any member of this Senate that a vote against the discharge of the committee is not a vote against the elimination of the practice which I have illustrated.

MOTION TO DISCHARGE COMMITTEE

At this time, Mr. President, I move that the Committee on Labor and Industry be discharged from the further consideration of Senate Bill No. 338 (House Bill No. 354), and that said bill be reported to the floor of the Senate for constitutional consideration.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, may I further make this statement: That the bill which was sent back to committee was drawn up at the instance and suggestion of the chairman of that committee otherwise I would not have drawn the bill up. And before the bill was introduced in this Senate it was shown to members of that committee, who approved the bill; and then the chairman of the committee, last week, in the bustle that we had, left the Senate session without taking action on that bill, and we have to contact him in the city of Philadelphia as to whether or not we could report the bill out, with the understanding that we would give them a chance to look the bill over on second reading. The Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, had that understanding—that after second reading we would send it back so that they could make much more advantageous the kind of bill they wanted.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I would like to inform the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, that I voted for indefinite postponement of this bill because I was informed that the Senator from Fayette had agreed to offer certain amendments to the bill, and that he had not made his promise good; and I thought if he was so little interested in it, in keeping his obligation, I was free to vote against the bill.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, in view of the fact that I have already made statements several times on the floor of this Senate that I keep my promises, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, yes sir.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I would like to know to whom I made a promise to amend the bill.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, to the chairman of the committee.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, the chairman of the committee is present and I wish to interrogate him,—the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Hunsicker.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Hunsicker, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HUNSICKER. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I would like to know if I at any time made a promise to the chairman of the committee to amend the bill.

Mr. HUNSICKER. Mr. President, the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, did not.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I thank the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Hunsicker.

Mr. HUNSICKER. Mr. President, I would like to make just one statement: This bill was drawn under an agreement with the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante. I did leave the Senate on Wednesday evening. I was called up in Philadelphia and I made the statement to the gentleman who called me up, the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, that if the bill was as we had agreed to draw it up it should be reported out. When I came back to the Senate on Monday the bill was not drawn up in the form in which it was agreed to be drawn up, so that my objection to the bill was that—there was a misunderstanding between the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, and myself, and it was not drawn up in the form in which I understood it was to have been presented.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I have not any qualms to the discharging of committee, but there is some mystery about this bill that I do not understand. Last night the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, made the motion—or, at least, he made a second to the motion to recommit this bill; and we are informed that the Pennsylvania Federation of Labor is not for this bill, and I do not think there is any higher authority trying to support labor bills than the Pennsylvania Federation of Labor, and since they are not for the bill I will be compelled to vote against the discharge of the committee.

Mr. THOMPSON (Westmoreland). Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. THOMPSON (Westmoreland). Mr. President, I understand this bill does not abolish deputy sheriffs in the manner in which they have been used in industrial plants.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, it does not; it still permits the sheriff to appoint the deputies, and rightly so. As much as I have championed the cause of labor, as much as I have fought in their behalf, I still think that the sheriff should have the power to deputize for the protection of property; and the only thing that this bill does is, it changes the mode of appointment: instead of the company paying the sheriff, or paying the deputy directly, the bill requires that the company should pay the county and the county pay the deputy.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I should like to interrogate the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, made the statement that labor was in favor of this bill. The Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, made the statement that labor was not in favor of this bill. I am interested in those things that labor is interested in; I would like to know which of those two statements is the correct statement of the fact.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I could answer that question with some degree of intelligence if I only knew who the individuals are that represent themselves as labor.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. Prsident, that is what I want to know too; and it is pretty nearly time we found out; and I would like the gentleman to answer.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I cannot answer it except as to the laboring people of my county; I can answer for them readily, and I can say that they are for it.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, there are a number of people on the Welfare Federation Program who call themselves laborers. I do not know who the laboring people of Fayette County are. And I also should like to state, first of all, that there is in the Republican platform a provision that deputy sheriffs should be abolished. I now learn to my amazement that this bill does not abolish deputy sheriffs, but, as a matter of fact, it permits, by a subterfuge, the same system to continue to which these people have been objecting so much; and inasmuch as that is the situation in the bill, it interests me, especially as the Senator from Fayette County last night moved to refer this bill back to committee. I see no reason at this time for the discharge of a committee which is discharging its duties according to the wishes he expressed last night, and where we are called upon now to act upon a bill which it is not anywhere indicated that labor is in favor of it, a bill that does not accomplish the purpose that they said they do want to accomplish. I think it is time we put a stop to it.

I am of the opinion, and have grown to believe, that these public questions, which are really matters that the whole public are interested in, should be taken up on the floor; and everybody should be given an opportunity to express his opinion on this bill. The fact that I might have voted to discharge the committee would not indicate that I would be inclined to vote for the bill; and I certainly do not think we should be asked to discharge a committee which has performed its duty in the way in which the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, said he was in favor of last night.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I do not intend to discuss the merits of this motion, but, inasmuch as my name has been referred to in these proceedings, I think it is only fair for me to say that the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Hunsicker, and the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, in my opinion have in every particular kept their agreements.

There was an understanding in the Committee on Labor and Industry that Senator Cavalcante would introduce a bill, and that it would have consideration. Senator Hunsicker, as he explained, left the city on account of an important engagement, and because of that fact I telephoned him and received his permission to report out this bill. It was reported out by me, with the understanding with the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, that because the committee had not considered the bill, it would be recommitted after second reading. That engagement was carried out to the letter, and at a largely attended meeting of the committee the bill was indefinitely postponed.

I want simply to make this explanation because I do not feel that there should be any imputation made by anyone that this matter was not considered entirely as was agreed upon by all the parties.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Cavalcante and Mr. Thompson (Centre), and were as follows, viz:

INVESTIGATION OF GOVERNOR'S REMARKS TO SENATE FINANCE COMMITTEE RELATIVE TO BILL TO TAX CHAIN STORES

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I desire to call up at this time for consideration, the resolution which I presented on June 12th.

The resolution was read as follows:

In the Senate, June 12, 1935.

Whereas, During a visit paid by the Members of the Finance Committee of the Senate of Pennsylvania to Governor George H. Earle at his office in the State Capitol, Tuesday, June 11, the Governor in a discussion of tax bills suggested an investigation into what he termed 'ugly rumors" concerning the attitude of Senators upon pending legislation known as the bill to tax chain stores, and

Whereas, The remarks of Governor George H. Earle have been given great prominence in the newspapers of Pennsylvania today and constitute a reflection upon members of this body, making it imperative that the facts upon which any such statement as made by Governor George H. Earle should be made known to the Senate, now therefore be it

Resolved, That the Senate of Pennsylvania hereby respectfully requests Governor Earle to submit to the Senate in writing any information he may possess as a foundation for the remarks made by him at his conference with Members of the Finance Committee of the Senate of Pennsylvania on Tuesday, June 11.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair desires to point out the parliamentary status of this resolution: When it was first presented it was referred to a committee and at the request of one of the Senators it was laid on the table, in order to prepare amendments. The resolution is not really properly before the Senate, unless by unanimous consent. It has not been referred to a committee, but was laid on the table and it is now called up.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39 which requires that resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee be suspended and that the Senate proceed to the immediate consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that the resolution under consideration be referred by the Chair to an appropriate committee.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, when the resolution was originally offered I stated to the Chair that I had an amendment that I desired to offer to the resolution.

The PRESIDENT. Objection was made to the immediate consideration and under the rules the resolution will have to be referred to committee. The Chair refers the resolution to the Committee on Judiciary Special.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. CLARK from the Committee on Appropriations reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 1099 (House Bill No. 2113), entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Mines and Mining Committee of the House of Representatives for the investigation of the Gilberton mine disaster.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. WOODWARD from the Committee on Public Health reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 1497 (House Bill No. 2397), entitled:

An Act to protect the public health defining and providing for the licensing of confectionery factories and wholesale confectioners' warehouses and regulating the inspection maintenance and operation of confectionery factories and premises and wholesale confectioners' warehouses and premises defining and regulating the manufacture sale and offering for sale of confectionery products conferring powers on the Department of Agriculture and providing penalties.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objections? The Chair hears none.

Mr. COYNE from the Committee on Executive Nominations, reported with a favorable recommendation the following nominations by His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth.

WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION REFEREE

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

In conformity with law, I have the honor to nominate for advice and consent of the Senate, the following appointment:

T. F. Hanahue of Scranton, Lackawanna County, as Workmen's Compensation Referee vice John C. Lesniak, whose term expired.

GEORGE H. EARLE.

EXECUTIVE SESSION

By unanimous consent,

A motion was made by Mr. SONES,

That Rule 38, which requires nominations made by the Governor, to lie on the table one day be dispensed with, and the Senate do now resolve itself into Executive Session, for the purpose of acting upon the foregoing nomination.

Which was agreed to.

Whereupon,

A motion was made by Mr. SONES,

That the Senate do advise and consent to the nomination reported.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

The motion was agreed to.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON SENATE BILL NO. 22

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the report of the Committee of Conference on Senate Bill No. 22, entitled:

An Act to provide for the permanent personal registration of electors in cities of the third class as a condition of their right to vote at elections and primaries and their enrollment as members of political parties as a further condition of their right to vote at primaries prescribing certain procedure for the conduct of elections and primaries and the challenge and proof of qualifications of electors and prescribing the powers and duties of citizens parties of bodies of electors county commissioners registrars inspectors of registration and other appointees of county commissioners election officers municipal officers departments and bureaus police officers courts judges prothonotaries sheriffs peace officers county treasurers county controllers registars of vital statistics and boards of school directors and imposing penalties

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The PRESIDENT. The Report will be printed and noted on the calendar.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. HOWELL. Mr. President, I desire to call up at this time Senate Bill No. 1537 (House Bill o. 1703), on third reading, entitled:

An Act relating to motion picture exhibitions and sound motion picture exhibitions together with orchestral or other instrumental musical or mechanical musical accompaniment prelude playing or selection in connection with or incidental thereto on Sunday prohibiting motion picture exhibitions and sound motion picture exhibitions and orchesral or other instrumental musical or mechanical musical accompaniment prelude playing or selection incidental thereto on Sunday during certain hours and also during other hours unless the electors of a municipality approve thereof regulating the employment of persons in conducting such exhibitions on Sunday providing for referendums to ascertain the will of the electors and providing penalties and repealing inconsistent laws.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1537, (House Bill No. 1703), as follows:

An Act relating to motion picture exhibitions and sound motion picture exhibitions together with orchestral or other instrumental musical or mechanical musical accompaniment prelude playing or selection in connection with or incidental thereto on Sunday prohibiting motion picture exhibitions and sound motion picture exhibitions and orchestral or other instrumental musical or mechanical musical accompaniment prelude playing or selection incidental thereto on Sunday during certain hours and also during other hours unless the electors of a municipality approve thereof regulating the employment of persons and conducting such exhibitions on Sunday providing for referendums to ascertain the will of the electors and providing penalties and repealing inconsistent laws

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That Municipality Defined The word "municipality" as used in this act shall be construed to mean and include any city borough town or township of this Commonwealth

Motion Picture Exhibitions Defined The words "motion picture exhibitions" as used in this act shall be construed to mean any motion picture exhibitions or showings and sound motion picture exhibitions or showings together with any orchestral or other instrumental musical or mechanical accompaniment prelude playing or selection in connection therewith or incidental thereto

"Two O'clock Post Meridian" Defined The words "two o'clock post meridian" as used in this act shall be construed to mean "two" o'clock post meridian eastern standard time except during the period commencing the last Sunday in April and ending the last Saturday in September inclusive when such words shall be construed to mean two o'clock post meridian eastern daylight saving time provided that eastern daylight saving time is the customary time in common use in such municipality during such period

Section 2 Penalty for Unlawful Motion Picture Exhibitions on Sunday It shall be unlawful for any person co-partnership association or corporation to conduct stage manage operate or engage in any motion picture exhibition regardless of whether a charge of admission is made or whether labor or business is necessary to conduct stage manage or operate the same on the first day of the week commonly called Sunday before the hour of "two" o'clock post meridian

It shall be unlawful for any person co-partnership association or corporation to conduct stage manage operate or engage in any motion picture exhibitions regardless of whether a charge of admission thereto or incidental thereto is made or whether labor or business is necessary to conduct stage manage or operate the same on the first day of the week commonly called Sunday after the hour of two o'clock post meridian unless the voters of the municipality have first voted in favor of motion picture exhibitions and sound motion picture exhibitions on Sunday as hereinafter provided and in no case shall a person be employed as a projectionist of operator of motion pictures on Sunday or in or about motion picture exhibitions unless he or she shall have had twenty-four consecutive hours of rest during the preceding six week days

Any person co-partnership association or corporation violating any of the provisions of this Section shall upon conviction thereof in a summary proceeding be sentenced to pay a fine Fifty Dollars ($50.00) and in default of the payment of such fine and costs of prosecution such person or any member or agent of any co-partnership or association or any officer or agent of any corporation responsible for such violation shall be imprisoned for a period of not more than ten (10) days

Section 3 Referendum Statement of Question on Ballots At the municipal election in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five (195) there shall be submitted in the manner provided by the election laws of the Commonwealth upon petition to the county commissioners By the city or borough council or by the township commissioners or supervisors or upon petition to County Commissioners by electors equal to at least five per centum (5%) of the highest vote cast for any candidate in the municipality at the last preceding general election a question to determine the will of the electors of each municipality in this Commonwealth so petitioning with respect to motion picture exhibitions Such question shall be in the following form

Do you favor the conducting staging operating and exhibiting of motion pictures regardless of whether an admission charge is made or incidental thereto or whether labor or business is necessary to conduct stage operate or exhibit the same after two o'clock post meridian on Sunday	YES NO

The said question shall be printed in separate official ballots in bound form by the county commissioners of each county and sufficient number of ballots shall be furnished to the election officers in each election district of each municipality so that one ballot may be supplied to each voter at such election In districts where voting machines are used such question shall appear on the face of the machine where the machine is properly equipped for such purposes

Section 4 Returns and Computation of Votes The votes cast on such question shall be counted by the election officers and returns thereof made by them and by election officers where voting machines are used to the prothonotary of the county who shall lay the same before the return board for computation at the same time and in the same manner as other returns Such election shall be governed by the election laws of the Commonwealth and all penalties provided by said laws shall apply to such elections The return board shall compute the said returns by municipalities and certify the results of the vote cast on the question to the acting chief executive officer of each municipality affected

If at the election in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five (1935) where any such election was held as herein provided a majority of the electors in any municipality voting at said election vote in favor of motion picture exhibitions on Sunday after the hour of two o'clock post meridian then upon the certification of such election return to the acting chief executive officer of such municipality as is provided in this section it shall hereafter be lawful to conduct stage manage operate or engage in motion picture exhibitions from and after the hours of two o'clock post meridian on Sunday

The right to conduct stage manage operate or engage in such motion picture exhibitions shall be subject only to those rules and regulations which govern motion picture exhibitions on days of the week other than Sunday

If the vote of the electors in the municipality was not in favor of motion picture exhibitions or if no such election was held then it shall be unlawful to conduct stage manage operate or engage in such motion picture exhibitions to which an admission charge is made or is incidental after two o'clock post meridian on Sunday

Section 5 Further Referendums In any municipality the will of the electors with respect to the conducting staging and exhibiting of motion pictures and sound motion pictures on Sunday may after the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five (1935) but not oftener than once in five years be ascertained and the question as provided in Section 3 of this act shall be submitted to the electors of any municipality upon demand in writing of petitoners equal to at least five per centum (5%) of the highest vote cast for any candidate in the municipality at the last preceding general or municipal election Such petition shall be filed with the corporate authorities at least sixty (60) days before the day of any general or municipal election at which the question is to be submitted and if the petition is signed by the requisite number of petitioners it shall thereupon be certified to the county commissioners who shall cause such question to be submitted in the same manner as is provided in this act for the election in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five (1935)

If a majority of the voters in any municipality in which are motion picture exhibitions permitted from and after two o'clock post meridian on Sunday to which an admission charge is made or is incidental are not in favor of the continuance of such exhibitions then upon the certification of such election return to the acting chief executive officer of such municipality as is provided in Section four of this act it shall thereafter be unlawful to conduct stage manage operate or engage in such exhibitions after two o'clock post meridian on Sunday but if a majority of the electors in any such municipality which has not heretofore permitted such motion picture exhibitions after two o'clock post meridian on Sunday or which has not theretofore voted on such question are in favor of such exhibitions then upon the certification of such fact to the acting chief executive officer of such municipality as is provided in Section 4 of this act such exhibitions shall thereafter be lawful

Section 6 Intent of Act It is the intent of this act to provide a method whereby the will of the electors of each municipality with respect to motion picture exhibitions together with orchestral or other instrumental musical or mechanical musical accompaniment prelude playing or selection in connection with or incidental thereto after two o'clock post meridian on Sunday may be ascertained

Section 7 It shall be unlawful at any motion picture exhibition conducted or operated under the provisions of this act to provide for any form of entertainment except the exhibition of motion pictures and sound motion pictures and any orchestral or other instrumental musical or mechanical musical accompaniment prelude playing or selection in connection with or incidental thereto and any person or any member or agent of any co-partnership or association or any member or officer of any corporation who shall provide or furnish or assist in providing or furnishing any other form of entertainment in such motion picture exhibitions shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and in the proper court shall be punished by a fine of One Hundred ($100.00) Each Sunday's providing furnishing conducting staging managing operating or engaging in furnishing any form of entertainment forbidden under this act shall constitute a separate offense hereunder

Section 8 Constitutionality The provisions of this act are severable and if any of the provisions hereof are held to be unconstitutional the decision shall not be construed to impair any other provision of this act It is hereby declared as the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provision not been included herein

Section 9 Repeal Section one of the act approved the twenty-second day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-four (Three Smith Laws one hundred seventy-seven) entitled "An act for the prevention of vice and immorality and of unlawful gaming and to restrain disorderly sports and dissipation" be and the same is hereby repealed insofar as it prohibits motion picture exhibitions and any orchestral or other instrumental musical or mechanical musical accompaniment prelude playing or selection in connection with or incidental thereto All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith be and the same are hereby repealed

Section 10 Effective Date This act shall be effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. TRAINER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous concent to amend title, page 1, line 11 of title, by striking out the word "municipality" and inserting in lieu thereof: "county": amend Section 1 page 2 line 6, by striking out the words "city, borough, town or township" and inserting in lieu thereof county": amend Sec. 3, page 4, line 3, by striking out the words "upon petition to" and inserting in lieu thereof: "at the option of"; amend Sec. 3, page 4, lines 4 and 5, by striking out the words "of the city or borough council or of the township commissioners or supervisors"; amend Sec. 4, page 5, line 11, by striking out the words "by municipalities"; amend Sec. 4, page 5, lines 12 and 13, by striking out the words "acting chief executive officer of each municipality within the"; amend Sec. 4, page 5,

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I object to them at this time.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. TRAINER. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed second reading.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The motion was not agreed to?

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Trainer.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Trainer, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TRAINER. Mr. President, I will. .

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, as I listened to those amendments I understood that the effect would be to put the election over to the county instead of each individual municipality, each individual district; is that correct? In other words, if the county voted on it, it would control the subdivisions of the county. That is correct, is it not?

Mr. TRAINER. Mr. President, yes.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the House is requested.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, since the 19th day of March there has been in the Committee on Judicial Special House Bill No. 1307. The committee has considered this bill and has acted to indefinitely postpone the same. This bill is the bill calculated to prevent unfair practices by employers toward employes, and to guarantee to employes the right of collective bargaining without interference by their employers, and to prohibit dictation to such employes as to the representatives who should represent them in negotiations with the employers.

MOTION TO DISCHARGE COMMITTEE FROM FURTHER CONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL NO. 652 (HOUSE BILL NO. 1307)

Inasmuch as no action can be had upon this bill now by the committee, I therefore move you, Mr. President, that the Committee on Judiciary Special be discharged from further consideration of Senate Bill No. 652 (House Bill No. 1307), so that the same may be reported to this Senate floor for constitutional consideration by the members of this body; and I ask for a roll call on the motion.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. THOMPSON (Centre) and Mr. CAVALCANTE, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—20

Baumer,	Lanius,	Rankin,	Rodgers,
Cavalcante,	Law,	Reed,	Shapiro,
Frey,	McCreesh,	(Washington)	Thompson,
Harris,	McGinnis,	Rice,	(Centre)

Chapman,	Howell,	(Dauphin)	Woodward,
Clark,	Hunsicker,	Rupp,	Ziesenheim,
Coyne,	Mallery,	Salus,

So the question was determined in the negative.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. I introduced a motion to discharge the Committee on Judiciary General from further consideration of the Anti-Injunction Bill that we are all familiar with, and up to this time the chairman of that committee informs us that no one had asked him to act on the bill, up to the time that I made my motion. In the discussion of the motion it was noted that a meeting of the committee would be had on Monday night,—that was yesterday—and that some action would be taken. I understand that the action has been taken, but nobody seems to know just what is the status of that bill at the present time.

Mr. President, I wish to interrogate the chairman of that committee, the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, if he would be so kind as to yield.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I shall be glad to do so.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, what is the action on the Anti-Injunction Bill.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, the so-called anti-injunction bill was called up in committee meeting, held yesterday afternoon at about half past five; and was, on motion of the committee referred to a sub-committee of three for the purpose of studying the bill, comparing it with the national act, and so forth, and to report back to the main committee after they had performed that duty.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, do I understand that the sub-committee has not yet reported, up to this time?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, that is correct.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, is there any indication as to when the sub-committee might report?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I am not a mind reader; I do not know what is in their minds.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, would it be disclosing confidential information of the committee to give us the names of those on the sub-committee?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I consider that it would be against the rules of this Senate to do so.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, does the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, know whether the sub-committee has met to consider the bill.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I have no knowledge; I am not their keepers and not with them continuously.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, with that very valuable information I, at this time, move —

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, will the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, yield?

The PRESIDENT. For what purpose?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, to give information to the gentleman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, yield to the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, this altercation has so far upset me that I have almost forgotten what I intended to say. I have, first, no information that the commitee has met—the sub-committee, or that the sub-committee is prepared to report back to the main committee. I see no reason for any motion at this time to discharge the committee. They ought to be given time at any rate.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I always take the kind suggestions of the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro. Last night, or, rather, this morning, we took up another bill, and the gentleman from Dauphin, Senator Reed, who was interested in the bill, made a motion to refer it back to committee. On a point of inquiry from him the record should now show that the Senator stated that the bill was recommitted for the purpose of amendment: and, Mr. President, I was reliably informed at that time that in the desks of a few members of this Senate repose amendments drawn up to be made to that bill, and I understand the committee met this morning and all amendments are rejected, and the bill has been—a vote was taken and the bill indefinitely postponed.

Now, I say that practice of that kind fully confirms the name of this body as a slaughter house of all useful legislation; and their action in doing that is absolutely consistent with that reputation. But I feel that I am not ready to be branded as one of those who will go along with a practice of that kind, and I am also sure that there are other members of this body who deprecate a reputation of that kind; and for that reason.

MOTION TO DISCHARGE COMMITTEE

Mr. President, I now move that the Committee on Judiciary Special now be discharged from further consideration of Senate Bill No. 693 (House Bill No. 132), so that the same may be returned to the Senate floor for third reading and constitutional consideration by members of this body. This bill is the Miners' Certificate Bill.

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, I second the motion.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I demand a roll call.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, last night, upon my motion, this bill was recommitted to the committee for the purpose of amendment. Various amendments were submitted and were considered, and the committee did indefinitely postpone the bill. I do, however, object, and object most seriously to the statement of the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, intimating that this Senate is acting as a slaughter house on social legislation. If that means that every bill which is introduced is bound to come to the floor of this Senate for a vote, then that statement is correct; but the records of this Senate show that a vast amount of legislation of this character has been reported from committees and has been considered in the Senate. And I might also add that it might be inferred from the action which the House of Representatives is taking that when we do present social legislation it is emasculated in such a way as to make it unreasonable and impossible and often times unconstitutional.

I say, therefore, that I do resent the statement that the Senate is being used as a slaughter house. I believe, Mr. President, that each and every member of this Senate is entitled to use his individual judgment as to the merits of legislation. I do not believe, Mr. President, that committees of this Senate can be or should be stampeded under attacks of that kind. I am here to say that this bill was fairly considered by the Committee on Judiciary Special, and the fact that it is indefinitely postponed represents a majority sentiment of that committee; and under that belief I ask this Senate to vote down this motion.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. CAVALCANTE and Mr. McCREESH and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—21

Baumer,	Lanius,	Rankin,	Shapiro,
Cavalcante,	Law,	Reed,	Staudenmeier,
Frey,	McCreesh,	(Washington)	Thompson,
Harris,	McGinnis,	Rice,	(Centre)

MOTION TO DISCHARGE COMMITTEE FROM FURTHER CONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL NO. 1159 (HOUSE BILL NO. 1199)

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, the Democratic Party, as the Republican Party last year, promised that there would be a revision of the Workmen's Compensation Law, a reasonable revision.

Therefore, Mr. President, I move for the discharge of the Committee on Labor and Industry from further consideration of Senate Bill No. 1159 (House Bill No. 1199), and that the same be reported to the floor of this Senate for constitutional consideration.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. THOMPSON (Centre) and Mr. CAVALCANTE, and were as follows, viz:

MOTION TO DISCHARGE COMMITTEE FROM FURTHER CONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL NO. 320 (HOUSE BILL NO. 443)

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, on February 19th there was referred to the Committee on Labor and Industry Senate Bill No. 320 (House Bill No. 443). This is the bill known as the Minimum Wage Bill, and provides for the establishment of fair wage standards for women and minors employed in trades and industries in this Commonwealth.

I move that the Committee on Labor and Industry discharge from furher consideration Senate Bill No. 320 (House Bill No. 443) so that the same may be returned to the floor of this Senate for first reading and constitutional consideration by the members of this body.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Frey.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Frey, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, I desire to know if the Senator from Allegheny County, Mr. Frey, read, on page 3 of Senate Bill No. 39, Printer's No. 643, what it says thereon.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I did.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, after reading the bill will the Senator kindly state for the benefit of the Senate whether or not the provisions of Senate Bill No. 39 (Printer's No. 643) are identical with, or similar to, the provisions of the Brancato Bill which he has now mentioned

Mr. FREY. No, Mr. Presdent, I did not consider them as such.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, will the Senator from Allegheny County, Mr. Frey, point out any difference that exists between the so-called Salus Bill and the Brancato Bill?

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I understand that Senate Bill No. 39 has been amended on the age, but in view of the fact that we anticipated this bill would be voted down I insist on the motion I presented.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, in view of the gentleman's statement, I sincerely hope that the members of the Senate will now display their fairness in voting down this motion—until, at least, such time as Senate Bill No. 39 (Printer's No. 643) is brought before this Senate for a vote as to whether or not the Senate will concur in the amendments placed therein by the House. I think that is the least that I, as a Senator, can ask my fellow-Senators to do.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, when the Senator from Schuylkill, Mr. Staudenmeier, brings up the matter of fairness in dealing with his colleagues in this Senate, I am reminded that the Senator from Schuylkill, last night, discussed with me, several times, Senate Bill No. 1307, known as the Revenue Certificate Bill, which was introduced to give the people of Pennsylvania an opportunity to take advantage of a lot of Federal Relief money or the Federal Public Works money; and the Senator from Schuylkill, Mr. Staudenmeier, when he talks about fairness, should remember that last night he took advantage of my absence from this Chamber, when I was drawing up amendments to another bill, to move to recommit Senate Bill No. 1307, when he knew I had discussed it with him, shortly before that, and he knew I wanted to voice my protest against the recommitment of that bill. When he talks about fairness I want to call his attention to what he did last night to Senate Bill No. 1307.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I am not going to get into the quarrel between the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, and the Senator from Schuylkill, Mr. Staudenmeier, but I am going to make this statement—that I have read Senate Bill No. 30 in its present form, and I had read the bill known as the Brancato Bill when it came over here; and what has been done in this case has been merely to take the suit of clothes of the Salus Bill and substitute the dress of the Brancato Bill; and exactly as the situation now is, we have before the Senate the Brancato Bill.

I have said before, and I repeat, I have no qualms about voting for the discharge of a committee on a bill which is a matter of public interest. This is one of those bills, but I do not think that motions to discharge committees should be made merely for the purpose of making them, whether the purpose be for political or for personal reasons, or whether it be merely for the purpose of taking up the time of the Senate to see how many times the roll can be called on the discharge of a committee.

This bill is now before us, and if I get an opportunity to vote on the bill I shall vote "no" on the Brancato Bill, because I do not believe the Brancato Bill is the proper bill for this purpose; I believe the Salus Bill is a step in the right direction. We are dealing with a matter which has never been known before in the history of industrialism in Pennsylvania; and contracting between employer and employe can be supervised by a body having nothing to do with the business. That might be a proper thing to do in these enlightened days, but when we have taken the first step, that is enough. I think his bill should be voted down because it has no purpose to it.

If the gentleman on the other side want to put the members of this Senate on record, they have the opportunity now. We will be asked to vote on the amendment, which changes the Salus Bill to the Brancato Bill, and that is as much as anybody knows.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I withdraw my motion.

The PRESIDENT. Does the seconder of the motion withdraw his seconding of it?

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, I withdraw my seconding of the motion?

The PRESIDENT. The motion to discharge the Committee on Labor and Industry from further consideration of Senate Bill No. 320 (House Bill No. 443) is withdrawn with the consent of the seconder.

BILL ON CONCURRING IN HOUSE AMENDMENTS

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I now call up Senate Bill No. 39 (Printer's No. 643), and ask that the Senate concur in the amendments made by the House.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the consideration of Senate Bill No. 39, entitled:

He also returned to the Senate, Senate Bill No. 39, entitled:

An Act for the protection of the health, safety, and welfare of women and minors in any occupation, trade or industry except domestic service in private homes newspaper boys and farm labor by regulating under the police power of the Commonwealth the minimum fair wage standards which shall be paid to such women and minors employed in trades and industries providing for wage boards to recommend the minimum fair wage standard for women and minors in any occupation defining the powers of and imposing duties on the Department of Labor and Industry and the wage boards, imposing certain duties on employers of women and minors and requiring certain records to be kept and information to be furnished by them prohibiting contracts for and payment of less than the minimum wage standards and providing penalties.

Said amendments having been printed as required by the Constitution, were twice read as follows: amend the title page 1 line 3 by inserting after the words "homes" the words "newspaper boys"; also amend section 2 page 4 by inserting after the word "homes" in line 12 the following: "but shall not include domestic service in private homes or newspaper boys lawfully engaged in the business of buying selling delivering exposing or offering for sale and newspaper magazine periodical or other publication"; also page 5 line 8 by striking out the word "fifteen" and inserting in lieu thereof the word sixteen"; also line 13 by striking out the word "nine" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "ten"; also page 5 section 3 line twenty-five by inserting after the word "occupation" the following: "heretofore defined in the act"; also page 8 line 3 by striking out the word "distinterested" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "disinterested"; also page 10 line 1 by striking out the word "he" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "it."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

CONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL NO. 39

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, it is hardly necessary for the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Frey, to call up this bill; I have been waiting here patiently for over an hour for the chance to call it up, because it is the next bill on the calendar, and I want to suggest to my friends on the Democratic side of this house that if they do not stop these discharge motions of theirs pretty soon and let up get down to business there are going to be a good many meritorious bills—on this calendar and coming over from the House—that will fail.

I am very glad, Mr. President, that we have at last the opportunity of voting on Senate Bill No. 39; and I want to call the attention of the Senate to the fact that this bill as passed by the House has been entirely changed—by the amendments written into it by the House. In my judgment the bill as it now stands is worthless, and is unconstitutional. This bill should go to a conference committee, to be ironed out; and I hope that every member of the Senate will vote "no" on this motion of concurrence.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, this is one of the first bills that were offered in this body. It is No. 39, and was offered and referred to the Committee on Labor and Industry on January the 14th. It remained in that committee for about four months, until the Brancato Bill came over, and then the bill took on a little life.

The main difference between this bill and the Brancato Bill as I see it, is that the Secretary of Labor appoints the wage board, whereas under the Salus Bill the Common Pleas judges of each county appoint these wage boards. Now, personally, I am opposed to the Common Pleas Courts extending their jurisdiction into wage boards, or having their fingers on wage boards. It sets up sixty-seven different boards in this Commonwealth, which would have sixty-seven different view points and would cause confusion; and I do not think it is workable.

This bill passed this Senate—it is a Republican bill—and I believe most of the Democratic Senators voted for it. It goes over to the House and is amended, to change the appointment of the wage boards. Now, I can see that if we shuffle back and forth here there will not be any legislation on minimum wages or child labor. Therefore, if we continue shuffling these bills back and forth we will not have any legislation; and perhaps that is the purpose of this shuffling.

Mr. HUNSICKER. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis.

The President. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. HUNSICKER. Mr. President, I ask the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, if he did not make the statement that Senate Bill No. 39 was introduced in the Senate early in the session to lie in committee for four months, until the Brancato Bill arrived in the Senate. Is that correct?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, until the Brancato Bill came over.

Mr. HUNSICKER. Mr. President, what time?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, it arrived in the Senate and on the day it arrived it was sent to the Committee on Labor and Industry, February 19th.

Mr. HUNSICKER. Mr. President, that was one month after?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, Senate Bill No. 39 remained in committee three months after the Brancato Bill got over here.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I want to deny the statement of the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, that the purpose of the Senate when it passed the Salus Bill was to put upon the statute books of Pennsylvania a law so that women and children in industry, who are suffering because the wages which they received do not enable them to live properly, will have redress. It is not the purpose, I believe, that any conference committee which is appointed by the Senate will give this matter honest and fair consideration. The attempt to iron out the differences which exist between the two houses. Therefore, in order that minimum wage legislation may not die I ask that every Senator to vote "no" on this motion to the end that the conference committee may be appointed.

That appointment is merely a temporary appointment, and these boards consist of a representative of labor, and of a representative of a particular industry, and a man—a disinterested party. The difference between that bill and the Brancato Bill is that the Brancato Bill centralizes that matter in Harrisburg, and provides that the Department of Labor and Industry shall appoint a permanent board, or shall have control of the appointment of every board for the sixty-seven different sections of this State.

It seems to me that what is and what is not a fair wage in a particular district can best be determined by the people in that district, and who is or is not the kind of person it would be proper to appoint in that district can be best known by the people who live in that district.

Now, I say, secondly, that the Department of Labor and Industry is not obliged, under the Salus Bill in its original form, to wait for the appointment by any court of any county; but the Department of Labor and Industry is given the right, upon its own initiative, to initiate an investigation to determine in anyone of the sixty-seven counties whether or not a fair rate is being paid in any partcular industry.

Now, I am afraid that I gathered, from what has been said here, that this is not a question of the value of the legislation, but, rather, that it is a question of whose legislation it shall be. For instance, I am told by my friend on the other side that this bill went over as a Republican measure with Democratic approval; and now it comes back as a Democratic measure, and I suppose we, then, ought to give it Republican approval. That seems to be the game, and if there is any battle door and shuttlecock that this conference committee used, it seems to be on the other side.

There is no danger, if we are dealing with sensible sane people that this bill will be killed, because the conference committee has the right to consider it, and if they cannot agree, the gentleman from the other side can recede from their position and they will find themselves in this position: If they recede, there will be on the statute books of Pennsylvania a law which will for the first time give the right to any industry to institute an investigation to determine whether or not a sweated shop condition exists in a factory and whether or not a fair rate is being paid to employees in that factory and it seems, as I said before, that that is the start, the first step, in attempting a new method of governing business. And if, afer one or two years, this thing does not work out right, and new amendments are necessary, we can then come back and take care of that situation. But to say that merely because the appointment of three disinterested persons is given to a court of law in a county instead of to a department head in the State of Pennsylvania makes the bill bad is merely to beg the question. Politically the Republican organization has taken a step forward, and is entitled to credit for it. If that step forward is repudiated, the responsibility belongs with the Democratic organization.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—22

Baumer,	Lanius,	Pytko,	Rodgers,
Cavalcante,	Law,	Rankin,	Rupp,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "nay" the question was determined in the negative.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I would like to state that the people of Pennsylvania are paying higher telephone rates, electric light rates, street railway car fares, bus and taxi fares, than the people of any other State in this Union. It would be presumed that this State would be charged those exorbitant rates during a period of prosperity, and that they would be reduced during a period of depression; but that is not so, for during this depression, when people were losing their homes, entire families were without work, and many of the families of this State had exhausted their entire life's savings, these utility companies of Pennsylvania continued drawing down, during every year of this depression, these outrageous dividends. They not only drew down these dividends for the operating companies but drew them down also for the holding companies all through this depression.

The use of electric power in this country is becoming more and more general; it is in nearly every home; nowadays machinery is run by electric power; more and more every day it is demonstrated that the field of use of electric power is increasing. By machinery you can harrow, sow and reap; and the operations of the mill are done by electric power.

Mr. President, it does seem to me that in this State the Public Service Commission should have the right, or should have jurisdiction over these holding companies.

MOTION TO DISCHARGE COMMITTEE

Therefore, Mr. President, I move to discharge the Committee on Public Utilities, which has held Senate Bill No. 1468 (House Bill No. 2685) since May the 28th, from further consideration of this bill, so that said bill may be reported to the floor of the Senate and given constitutional consideration. This bill extends the jurisdiction of the Public Service Commission to holding companies.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. SHARPIRO. Mr. President, I do not know whether this bill is such a bad piece of legislation, or whether it is a good piece of legislation, but I would like to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, when did the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, ask that this bill be acted upon?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I did not ask, but Mr. Roberts asked several weeks ago; and the bill was voted down in committee.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, it could not have been several weeks ago; the bill only went into committee June 1st, or May 28th.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, at least two weeks ago.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, is the Senator from Northampton, Mr. Roberts, in the hall of the Senate?

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Northampton is in conference at the desk.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, will the Senator from Northampton, Mr. Roberts, permit himself to be interrogated at the desk?

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Northampton, Mr. Roberts, permit himself to be interrogated at the desk?

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, will the Senator from Northampton, Mr. Roberts, state when he asked that this bill be called up for action?

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, I cannot state exactly, but about a week ago.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, in regard to which bill?

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, the bill in question.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, may I inquire from the Senator from Northampton which bill is in question.

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, is the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, aware of what bill is being considered?

Mr. SHAPIRO. No, Mr. President, I am trying to find out about it.

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, can ask the Secretary.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, that proves that none of us know what bill we are talking about.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair accepts the apology.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. McGINNIS and Mr. FREY and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—22

Baumer,	Law,	Rankin,	Sones,
Cavalcante,	McCreesh,	Reed,	Thompson,
Frey,	McGinnis,	(Washington)	(Centre)
Harris,	Miller,	Rice,	Thompson,

Clark,	Howell,	(Dauphin)

So the question was determined in the negative.

RECESS

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess until four o'clock.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed, the Senate will be in order.

HOUSE BILL FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, presented for concurrence bill of the House of Representatives as follows:

House Bill No. 2581 (Senate Bill No. 1705), entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the State Emergency Relief Board for direct relief, work relief and expenses, during the biennium ending the thirty-first of May, one thousand nine hundred thirty-five, defining the purposes for which such monies may be expended, prescribing the powers and duties of the State Emergency Relief Board and certain State Departments.

Which was committed to the Committee on Appropriations.

HOUSE CONCURS IN AMENDMENTS MADE BY THE SENATE TO HOUSE BILL NO. 2139

He also presented communication from the House of Representatives informing the Senate that the House has concurred in amendments made by the Senate to House Bill No. 2139, entitled:

An Act to amend the act, approved the fifteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (P. L. 624), entitled "Banking Code," as amended, by regulating the establishment and maintenance of branch banks, branch offices, agencies, sub-offices, sub-agencies, or branch places of business.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Mr. SHAPIRO asked and obtained leave of absence for the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed.

The PRESIDENT. On the question of final passage of Senate Bill No. 1428, there is some question whether the Senate has amended the bill by other than strike outs. The Chair withdraws his statement. The bill will lie on the table temporarily, until we investigate the status of the amendments.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Schuylkill, Mr. Staudenmeier, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, this is the first time I have arisen on the question of personal privilege. In the heated atmosphere of this afternoon, the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, in the course of his remarks made some statements—that there was an implication of sharp practice on my part in the matter of the recommitment of Senate Bill No. 1307 to the Committee on State Government last evening. I think the gentleman will agree with me, that this morning he came to my desk in connection with the bill and I immediately informed him that I was not aware of the fact that he was not in his seat, and in addition to that, I think he will agree with me, that I informed him last evening before making the motion to recommit Senate Bill No. 1307, that I intended to do so, and I did not want him to consider it a personal matter as far as he was concerned, and I wish to assure him that if I were aware that he was not in his seat, I would have been the last one to make the motion of that type.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I am very glad to accept the assurance given by the Senator from Schuylkill, Mr. Staudenmeier.

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, at the request of my colleague, the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. McCreesh, I desire at this time to call up Senate Bill No. 1143, on third reading, entitled:

An Act requiring cities of the first class to allow members of the police departments twenty-four consecutive hours of rest each week, except in emergency cases.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1143, entitled:

An Act requiring cities of the first class to allow members of the police departments twenty-four consecutive hours of rest each week, except in emergency cases

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

MOTION TO RECOMMIT BILL.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Municipal Government.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, before any action is taken on this motion, I would like to say that this bill merely provides for the City of Philadelphia what is already provided for in other cities, second and third class cities, and there is no reason why this bill ought to be taken off the floor of the Senate at this time.

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, if this bill is recommitted now, it means we have nothing more to do with it for two years, and I am very much opposed to sending it back. This is a very important bill. The police force in Philadelphia today is working twenty-four hours a day for seven days a week. Now, if you allowed the policemen one day a week off, it is justly due them, we might perhaps have better families. If you have a family of boys or girls, and the father of the house stayed at home with the children at least one day a week, you will have better children, as the old custom was that the father would take the children to the park or playground or somewhere, one day a week, and if you did this they would not go out on the hillside and get into bad company, and that is the trouble with families today—the mother and father have no time for the children. Now, gentlemen, If I were you, I would give these policemen one day a week off. They now hang around the police stations every day and do not get out with their families at all. Some of you members from Philadelphia might think it would be expensive to Philadelphia, they are not worrying about the expense to Philadelphia. There is some little probability that in the next Fall, we hope to have all the good men of Philadelphia on the sidewalks just telling to the people what the Senate did for the police force of Philadelphia, so if I were you, gentlemen, I would vote against the recommitment of this bill.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I do not think seven days a week and twenty-four hours a day, we need worry about the policemen, because they can sleep the rest of the time, and so far as Philadelphia is concerned, I want to say our position is simply this: Having knowledge of the finances somewhat of the City of Philadelphia, this would be additional expense and a burden to the city, that it does not at this time want to assume. However, in this situation, what I have always contended is true. The Senator does not represent the district he is in, he represents the whole State of Pennsylvania in the Senate, and puts himself in opposition or in favor of legislation that does not concern his city. He is likely to find himself in the position Philadelphia is in today, we cannot consistently say that that which is not good for the rest of the State is not good for Philadelphia. Financially, Philadelphia is in a position to not want to add another burden, and I cannot find myself in a position to vote against this bill by permitting it to go back now, because it would be killed in committee. Under these circumstances, I say to the gentlemen from the rest of the State they will have to use their own judgment, as I intend to use mine.

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, it seems to me that every man in the State is entitled to one day a week for rest and recreation. We have had a lot of labor bills here and we have been accused of being selfish, but that is not so. I think this is a very worthy bill and deserves the support of every member of the Senate. There is no earthly reason why these men should not be entitled to twenty-four hours rest each week.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I do not think there is a man in Philadelphia who is friendlier to the police than I am, but I have been in consultation with a number of the officials and they are in accord that it is important not to have this bill pass, as it means that it will require at least seven or eight hundred new officers to police the streets of Philadelphia properly. That means it will put the City of Philadelphia to an expense of over two million dollars and a half, and we are now striving to meet the present payrolls of Philadelphia, and we do not have the money that is necessary. I feel that the Superintendent of Police would be very anxious that these men should have one day off a week, but they do not have the finances to pay for it. Now, are we going to increase taxation to meet this proposition? This is a simple problem. The officers themselves have not asked that this bill be passed. This bill has been in committee for months, and I have not received a note from an officer who is favorable to this bill. They have good jobs and they get good pay, and in times like this they ought to be satisfied to have jobs and be paid for their services. I, therefore, ask the Senate to recommit this bill—the majority of the Senators from Philadelphia are in favor of recommitment.

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, last Friday or Saturday, we had a parade in Philadelphia and there were three or four hundred policemen in the parade, and I have not heard a word from the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Aron, saying about the waste of money there. I ask that this bill be recommitted.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. McCREESH and Mr. THOMPSON (Centre), and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—12

Aron,	Buckman,	Hunsicker,	Pierson,
Batchelor,	Chapman,	McClure,	Salus,
Bean,	Homsher,	Owlett,	Woodward,

Baumer,	Lanius,	Reed,	Sordoni,
Cavalcante,	Law,	(Washington)	Staudenmeier,

Graff,	Miller,	Rodgers,	Thompson,
Harris,	Prince,	Rupp,	(Westmoreland)
Harvey,	Pytko,	Shapiro,	Trainer,
Kahle,	Rankin,	Sones,

So the question was determined in the negative.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—36

Aron,	Harvey,	Pytko,	Sones,
Batchelor,	Hunsicker,	Rankin,	Sordoni,

NAYS—5

Bean, Chapman, Homsher, Pierson, Buckman.

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair desires to make a statement with respect to final passage of House Bill No. 1418 (Senate Bill No. 1428). The Legislative Reference Bureau has checked it and the bill has passed the House and the Senate without amendment, and the House will be notified accordingly.

HOUSE MESSAGE

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEE TO STUDY SYSTEMS OF DISTRIBUTION OF PUBLIC FUNDS FOR UNEMPLOYMENT RELIEF

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives which was twice read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, June 18, 1935.

The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania has during the past few years, to an ever increasing extent, recognized its obligation to the weak and unfortunate, in the form of appropriations of vast sums of money.

These moneys are distributed, and the various systems of aid and relief are administered, by numerous separate, and sometimes wholly unrelated, agencies, resulting in an unnecessarily heavy overhead expense, and at times in overlapping and duplication of efforts. In addition, local political subdivisions have from earliest times, administered local poor relief, and, more recently Mothers' Assistance, therefore, be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That a committee be created to consist of nine members, three of whom shall be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, three by President Pro Tempore of the Senate, and three by the Governor. The committee shall organize on the call of the Governor, and shall select a Chairman and a Secretary from among its number. The duties of the committee shall be to make a study of the various administrative systems for the distribution of public funds for unemployment relief, poor relief, mothers' assistance, old age assistance and assistance to the blind, with a view to (1) correlate the efforts of the various existing agencies, (2) prevent duplication of effort, and (3) consider, as bearing upon public aid, the efforts of private agencies.

Resolved, That the committee shall make a report to the next general session of the Legislature. Such report shall include the recommendation of the committee, together with drafts of such legislation as the committee shall deem beneficial.

Resolved, That the committee shall have the power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person to appear before them and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the force and effect of subpoenas issued out of the courts of the Commonwealth. Each member of said committee shall have the power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the committee. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said committee or to produce any books, papers, records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I move that the Resolution be referred to an appropriate committee.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The PRESIDENT. The Resolution will be referred to Committee on State Government.

HOUSE CONCURS IN SENATE BILL NO. 255

He also returned to the Senate, Senate Bill No. 255 entitled:

An Act to amend Rule Thirty-two of article twenty-five of the act approved the ninth day of June one thousand nine hundred and eleven (P. L. 756), entitled "An act to provide for the health and safety of persons employed in and about the bituminous coal mines of Pennsylvania, and for the protection and preservation of property connected therewith," by prohobiting the use and possession of matches, pipes and smokers' articles in certain mines.

with the information that the House has passed the same without amendment.

SENATE BILL NO. 754 RETURNED WITH AMENDMENTS

He also returned to the Senate, Senate Bill No. 754 entitled:

with the information that the House has passed same with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that Rule 21, which requires amended bills to be noted on the Calendar, be in this case dispensed with, and that the Senate proceed to the consideration of the amendments made by the House of Representatives to the foregoing bill.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Said amendments having been printed as required by the Constitution, were twice read as follows: amend title page 1 line 1 by striking out he words "an appropriation" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "appropriations"; also section 1 page 1 line 4 by striking out the words "one million" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "seven hundred and fifty thousand"; also line 5 by striking out the numeral "($1,000,000)" and inserting in lieu thereof the numerals "($750,000)" also by adding after line 12 the following sections:

Section 2 In addition to the appropriation made by section one of this act the sum of two hundred ninety-seven thousand dollars ($297,000) is hereby appropriated to the trustees of Temple University at Philadelphia Pennsylvania for the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred thirty-five for the payment of obligations incurred by the trustees for the general maintenance of and the purchase of apparatus and equipment for such University during the two fiscal years ending May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred thirty-five and which were not paid out of the appropriation for such purposes made to such trustees by the General Assembly at its regular session of one thusand nine hundred thirty-three because of insufficient revenues in the General Fund.

Any law to the contrary notwithstanding amounts payable to the trustees of Temple University out of this appropriation shall be paid as promptly after the effective date of this act as the revenues of the General Fund will permit and for this purpose payments from this appropriation shall take precedent over payments from the appropriation made by section one of this act

Section 3 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment and shall be retroactive to June first one thousand nine hundred thirty-five

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr OWLETT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. OWLETT from the Committee on Judiciary General reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 1197 (House Bill No. 2468) entitled:

An Act validating certain proceedings for municipal improvements municipal assessments municipal claims and municipal liens in the several townships of the second class of this Commonwealth and validating such improvements assesments claims and liens providing for the filing of claims and liens therefor and the proceedings for the collection of such assessments claims and liens.

Mr. ZIESENHEIM. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is their objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. ZEISENHEIM from the Committee on Education reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 1649 (House Bill No. 1994), entitled:

An Act to validate contracts for the erection and construction of school buildings additions to and improvements of existing school buildings and improvements of the grounds appurtenant to the same and orders for extra work and material in connection therewith and to authorize payment therefor by the school districts where there is no evidence of fraud or conspiracy.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1459, entitled:

An Act to re-enact and amend the act approved the second day of June one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (P. L. 736) entitled "An act defining the liability of an employer to pay damages for injuries received by an employe in the course of employment; establishing an elective schedule of compensation; and providing procedure for the determination of liability and compensation thereunder," as amended by extending said act to members and employes of volunteer fire companies increasing compensation rates and benefits; increasing medical and hospital benefits; making changes in the definition of "wages"; providing compensation for accidents arising out of and in the course of employment; regulating proof in hernia cases; further defining dependency as to widows; extending the time for the commencement of proceedings to recover compensation in certain cases; providing for autopsies in cases of death from injury; further regulating the review, modification, reinstatement, suspension and termination of original and supplemental agreements and awards; requiring employers to pay the compensation of physicians, surgeons and experts appointed by the board or referees to make examinations; providing that final receipts for compensation shall be conclusive after two years; further defining the jurisdiction and powers of the referees, boards and courts of common pleas; and repealing section four hundred and twenty-six of said act.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I rise in opposition to this bill. This bill is an application of the old adage that "all is not gold that glitters." This bill purports to liberalize the Workmen's Compensation legislation in this State, when in fact the bill does exactly the opposite from what it purports to do. The benefits under the act are, of course, increased very slightly, which we all know, but the act, in one major feature, in fact reduces the benefits which actually accrue to those who are supposed to be benefited. If this act were passed, it would entirely do away with the rule that the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania has recently passed on in the case of Romig vs. The Champion Forge and Blowers Company. All of us are more or less familiar with the controversy that has gone on during the past two years relative to the calculation of the wage rate in compensation cases. Ever since the original Compensation Act was enacted, in 1915, the wages of workmen injured were calculated on a 5½-day a week basis. Under the decision of the Supreme Court in the Romig case, that wage rate, in existence for some seventeen or eighteen years, the method of computing the wage rate was changed to a standard which in itself was not yet understandable by the time the Supreme Court reversed the decision of the Superior Court and put back into effect the application of the law as it had existed since 1915. This bill would substantially return us to the method of calculating the wages as was applied by the Superior Court. The bill would return us to the application of the 4-day week instead of the 5½-day week, which has been almost an established precedent. A study of the compensation cases in the Workmen's Compensation Bureau, which are taken as a whole for the first four and a half months of 1935, reveals that the net effect on the workers of Pennsylvania from the so-called benefits of the Batchelor bill effects not an increase, but a decrease of 2.3% in the weekly benefits which would be paid. In other words, Mr. President, if we would take all the cases that have come into the Bureau in the first four and a half months of this year, in place of the workers' return of compensation being increased under this Batchelor bill, the returns in all of these cases would be diminished by 2.3%.

A study of these cases also reveals that 25% of the injured workers among those cases would receive less than $10 a week under this Batchelor bill, whereas, under the act as it now stands only 12½% of those workers would receive less than $10.00 a week. A study also shows that while 50% of the injured workers would enjoy slightly increased benefits, 35% of the workers would suffer decreased benefits, and the benefits would remain the same for 15% of the parties represented in those cases.

This is one of those bills which has been called so often during the past two weeks a vicious piece of legislation. In the first place, the standard of industrial accidents is entirely changed. We have been familiar since 1915 with having a Compensation Act by which compensation is awarded for an accident sustained in the course of employment. Now this act changes the wording of the substance of the act and uses these words: "Accidents arising out of and occurring in the course of employment." What that means no one will know until the Superior Court of Pennsylvania decides. Does that change the method of awarding compensation in Pennsylvania, or does it not? There is a technical legal trouble which will affect every injured workman in the State of Pennsylvania if this Batchelor bill passes the legislature.

Another very vicious provision of this act is the provision relative to autopsies. Under the provisions of this act, as I understand it, as I read it, all that the employer has to do in the event of the death of one of the employees is to notify the family of the decedent that an autopsy will be held in three hours. In three hours, mind you, Mr. President, after the family of the decedent is notified, the employer, his physician and his representatives, can walk into the family of the decedent at any time of the day or night and can take that body and examine it, without asking or securing the consent or the permission of either the deceased's widow, or any of the members of his family. Certainly it is one of the most absurd provisions that has been introduced into any piece of legislation that has been before this Senate during this session.

Now, with respect to the rights of reviewing compensation agreements. In this Batchelor bill as it stands, it makes the general limitation two years for the right to review compensation agreements. It has been well settled and satisfactory to both employer and employees, that in eye cases there should be an indefinite right to review agreements. That is the present law. Nobody has disputed that for some time and everybody has been satisfied with that, and why should we now come along and stultify the act in this manner? Again, we have an application of reactionary jurisprudence in the provisions relative to modification or termination of an agreement, or an award of compensation. Under this Batchelor bill the compensation of employee immediately ceases as soon as the petition for termination or a petition for modification is filed. Even though the employer admits that there is some percentage of disability existing or continuing, even though he admits that the employee is entitled to some compensation in some amount, nevertheless, as soon as the petition for modification or termination is filed, compensation ceases at once. Under the present act, Mr. President, in order for compensation to cease during the pendency of a petition, that the disability has entirely ceased, and unless the petition contains an averment that the disability has entirely ceased, compensation, at least for such portion as is admitted, must continue under the act as it exists at the present time.

This bill also eliminates entirely the right of the Workmen's Compensation Board to grant rehearings, and anyone who has done work of any sort in connection with our workmen's compensation jurisprudence knows how often rehearings are necessary to do substantial justice between the parties in actions of this kind. The Batchelor bill limits the power of review of such agreements to one year after the execution of those agreements. Some of those agreements may run for four or five, or even six years, and yet within one year after execution, under this Batchelor bill, those agreements must be reviewed. Under the present act those agreements cannot be reviewed any time during the life of the agreement.

I could go on almost indfinitely, Mr. President, and pick out portions of this Batchelor bill which brand it once and for all as a definite reactionary piece of legislation, and I say to you, Mr. President, that this Senate should defeat this bill as an anti-social piece of legislation.

Mr. BATCHELOR. Mr. President, judging by the remarks of my friend the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, he does not like my bill very well. I am also quite sure of the action of my democratic colleagues on the left that they were in favor of a bill which is known in the Senate by number 1199. Mr. President, I challenge the accuracy of calling House Bill 1199 a compensation bill.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, will state his point of order.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, my point of order is that the gentleman is not discussing the bill before the Senate.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair is inclined to sustain the point of order.

Mr. BATCHELOR. Mr. President, I take it that we are discussing the Workmen's Compensation bill, which covers the entire field as now covered by compensation. The bill before the Senate is a bill that re-enacts and amends the present Workmen's Compensation Law. The bill before the Senate is Senate Bill No. 1459, and not the bill referred to by the Senator.

The PRESIDENT. The bill before the Senate is No. 1459 and not the bill referred to by the Senator. The point of order is sustained and the Senator will confine his remarks to the bill before the House and related subjects.

Mr. BATCHELOR. Mr. President, I am, only that my friends, the Democratic colleagues on the left, do not care to enter into the discussion of any Workmen's Compensation bill before this Senate, apparently, for reasons best known to themselves; but which the public and the members of the Senate here can judge for themselves.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, again I must arise in defense of the assertion made by the Senator from Beaver. The Democratic members of this Senate to let Bill No. 119 come to the floor of the Senate.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Tioga Mr. Owlett, will state his point of order.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, is not discussing the bill before the Senate.

The PRESIDENT. The point of order is well taken.

Mr. BATCHELOR. Mr. President, this bill is an honest attempt to liberalize the Workmen's Compensation Law, I venture to say that if this bill is passed by the Senate and concurred in by the House, the workers of Pennsylvania will have made considerable increase in the amount of compensation, and the manner in which that compensation will be received. I ask the Senate to support this bill.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. HARVEY. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1472, on third reading, entitled:

An Act defining the powers of persons partnerships associations or corporations operating cemeteries and buriel grounds to act and make regulations governing their conduct and operations and prohibiting certain acts and conferring upon common pleas courts jurisdiction to restrain the violation of this act.

go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1516, entitled:

An Act for the protection of producers of farm produce providing for the licensing and regulation of certain individuals and entities receiving selling or offering for sale as principals or on consignment or on a net return basis within this Commonwealth farm produce conferring powers and imposing duties on the Department of Agriculture and otherwise providing for the administration of this act providing for appeals and prescribing penalties

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. HUNSICKER. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1530, entitled:

An Act to amend section three of the act approved the twenty-seventh day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (Pamphlet Laws four hundred sixty-five) entitled "An act to provide for the safety of persons employed housed or assembled in certain buildings and structures not in cities of the first class and second class A by requiring certain construction and ways of egress equipment and maintenance providing for the licensing of projectionists requiring the submission of plans for examination and approval providing for the promulgation of rules and regulations for the enforcement of this act by the Department of Labor and Industry and in certain cases by the chiefs of fire departments in cities of the third class providing penalties for violations of the provisions of this act and repealing certain acts" as amended requiring buildings to be equipped with certain equipment in connection with gas meters to prevent or retard the escape of gas be recommitted to the Committee on Public Health.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

A division being called for, nineteen Senators voted in the affirmative and twenty in the negative.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1530, entitled:

An Act to amend section three of the act approved the twenty-seventh day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (P. L. 435) entitled "An act to provide for the safety of persons employed, housed, or assembled in certain bulidings and structures not in cities of the first class, second class, and second class A, by requiring certain construction and ways of egress, equipment, and maintenance; providing for the licensing of projectionists; requiring the submission of plans for examination and approval; providing for the promulgation of rules and regulations for the enforcement of this act; providing for the enforcement of this act by the Department of Labor and Industry, and, in certain cases, by the chiefs of fire departments in cities of the third class; providing penalties for violations of the provisions of this act; and repealing certain acts;" as amended, requiring buildings to be equipped with certain equipment in connection with gas meters to prevent or retard the escape of gas.

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Sordoni, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Sordoni, if this bill does not require the owner of a property to spend from $50. to $100. for an appliance to be used in connection with gas service.

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I do not know the amount of money that would be required to make these installations. The bill was introduced by me at the request of a certain individual, in whom I have a lot of confidence. There seems to be a question of the amount of money necessary for a particular piece of equipment that they have in mind. I am not familiar with it, I do not know what the cost would be, but the cost is put on the owner of the property. The cost is not borne by the utility serving the property.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to ask whether there was ever any hearing to determine whether the appliances required by this act have been tested or approved, or if any inquiry was made by the committee as to the practicability of this appliance.

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, not to my knowledge.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, it seems to me that this is a pretty serious thing, to pass a bill like this, on which I understand there has been no hearing whatever. It requires the owners of property I am told, to spend $50. to $100. for an appliance, the value of which is doubtful. There has been no hearing in the committee to determine whether the appliance is practical, and no inquiries have been made by any committee to determine whether or not this is a plan to compel the property owner to buy an untested appliance. I ask the Senate to vote down this bill.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Sordoni.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Sordoni, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Sordoni, whether or not the appliance that is to be inserted in homes by this bill is an appliance that is a patented article or not.

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I understand that they are patented.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator whether or not it is a fact that this bill creates a monopoly for the patentee of the article to be used.

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I am not familiar with the question, and I do not know whether it would be just one particular item or not, I am not familiar with the situation, I put this bill in by request.

MOTION TO DROP BILL FROM THE CALENDAR

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, in view of the answers of the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Sordoni, I move that the bill be dropped from the calendar.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

O the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, as I understand this bill it is a safety measure for the prevention of fire, but it does not apply to buildings more than four stories in height. I inquired about this bill when I saw it on the calendar. I consulted with men who are trained in the fighting of fires, the head of the Firemen's Association of the State, and I inquired particularly as to whether or not it provided for certain patented devices at this time. I was informed that it did not. I was informed that any one of thirty devices now on the market could be used, and if this is installed in buildings of this kind, that it will prevent fire, it will reduce fire insurance costs and will save lives. I would ask the members of this body to vote down the motion of Senator Buckman to strike this bill from the calendar. This bill has real merit, prepared and introduced by people who have a fine and splendid knowledge of fighting fires and the prevention of accidents, and for that reason it would be wrong, it would be inhuman to drop this bill from the calendar.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny Mr. Harris, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, whether or not the people who prepared and sponsored this bill and had it introduced by the Senator from Luzerne, whether or not they are manufacturers of some of the articles to be used under the terms of this bill.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I know of no one connected with any association or any firm who has any patented article. I received my advices from the gentlemen trained in fighting fires and prevention of accidents and from no other place.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, has not answered my question. Perhaps he does not know.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I believe I have answered your question. If I have not, I will ask you to repeat and I will answer it, because I have no hesitation in answering any question you may ask.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, the question is whether or not the people who prepared and sponsored this bill are interested in the device that would be used under its terms

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I do not know whether they are interested at all in the device. I say again that the gentleman with whom I spoke has no interest, because I asked that very question.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, will the Senator tell us, if he can, whether or not the party with whom he consulted represented the people who sell this device.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I asked that gentleman the question and he replied in the negative.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, and that is all that the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, knows about it.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, that is plenty what I know about it.

Mr. REED (Washington). Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of the bill.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Sordoni, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. REED (Washington). Mr. President, does the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Sordoni, know whether this bill applies to dwelling houses?

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I understand that it does

Mr. REED (Washington). Mr. President, would it also apply to farm owners?

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I would say that this bill applies to all buildings where gas is used, that are under four stories in height, as Senator Harris just mentioned.

Mr. REED (Washington). Mr. President, does the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Sordoni, know what the equipment cost.

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, no I do not.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I should like to ask the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, whether he considers, as I understand his remarks to be a state-wide improvement bill.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I do.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I suggest that the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, that this bill should apply only to cities of the first and second class.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I still say that it is a state wide improvement.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, in other words, I should like to call to the attention of the members of the Senate to the fact that if it does not apply to cities of all classes and is specifically restricted in its terms— I think in the beginning of the "Act to provide for the safety of persons employed, housed or assembled in certain buildings and structures not in cities of the first class, second class and second class A".

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, the very argument of the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, convinces me that it is highly desirable. The reason it applies to cities outside of the first and second classes is because the fire departments are volunteers and are not equipped to fight fires and to respond to them as readily as they do in the cities, and that is the reason that it does not apply to the cities.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I simply want to suggest that after this bill is dropped from the calendar, that it be returned to its sponsor for further study.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I think perhaps the purpose of this bill has not as yet been adequately explained. This bill requires that there be at the intake lead of every building using gas in the municipalities of the characters just mentioned here a moment ago, an automatic shut-off, which in case of fire will automatically shut off the gas, or can enable the gas to be manually turned off from the exterior of the building. Only yesterday a catastrophe happened in one of the northern communities of this State, I do not recall which one it is, where a life was lost by reason of a gas explosion in the interior of a building during a fire. If that building had been equipped with the apparatus provided for by his act, the life of that fireman would not have been lost. I am also reliably informed that similar catastrophies have happened right in this city of Harrisburg, and the purpose of this bill is to provide such buildings with equipment to prevent the recurrence of these catastrophies. Now this bill is an amendment to other legislation and, as I understand it, applies only to a certain class of buildings, namely, four-story buildings and larger buildings, which are under the supervision of the Department of Labor and industry. This apparatus is not a unique. There are any one of a number of such instruments that can be obtained. No one person has a monoply of such an instrument, and as I understand the bill it does not apply to residences. I say in view of these things I am at a loss to understand the opposition to this bill, when it does definitely have a great safety value.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, for the information of the Senate, I would like to read the provisions of this bill and the subject under discussion.

"There shall also be attached to the intake pipe leading to each gas meter installed in buildings subject to the provisions of this Act a combination automatic and manually operated gas shut-off device approved by the Department of Labor and Industry."

Now it has got to be a combination automatically and manually operated gas shut-off device approved by the Department of Labor and Industry. We are in placing in that Department, if there is more than one of these devices manufactured, putting in the Department of Labor and Industry the right to require the owners of real estate affected to spend an amount that I have been told varies between $50. and $100. to take care of a condition of which there is no such need. There has been no demand for a hearing in this bill, no consideration of it. The sponsor himself admits that, he does not know the cost of the device or anything else about it. Now I ask the Senate to vote in favor of this motion to drop this bill from the calendar.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, if there has been no consideration of this bill, how has it got on this calendar for third and final reading?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I am told that the bill was reported out of Committee by mistake. In further answer to the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, I call the Senate's attention to the fact that I, or someone here on the floor, made a motion last night or this morning about three o'clock that this bill go back to committee, and that motion was voted down. That explains the fact that it is on third reading, because there was an attempt made yesterday to send it back to committee.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I am just as anxious as anyone here to find out whether or not this bill relates to a patented article, or patented device, and if the Senator from Bucks will withdraw his motion to strike this bill from the calendar; I will ask my colleague to allow this bill to go over in order, so that we can make some inquiry, and if it does apply to a certain patented device, I will help to defeat the bill on the floor, and if the Senator from Bucks will do that, then I will ask that it go over in its order. That will gives us twenty-four hours to find out, and if it is a proper bill, we still have time to pass it. I request the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, to withdraw his motion.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, if I can receive any assurance from the Senate that there will be no objection to the bill going over in its order, I shall be glad to withdraw my motion.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 1530, go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, at the request of the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, I withdraw my objection.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objections.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I insist upon my motion that the bill be dropped from the calendar.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, there seems to be some dispute about this bill as to what it covers. I notice that this bill is an amendment to an act of 1927, and in section 2 of that Act, it says:

"The following are the classes of buildings and structures which it is intended that this act shall cover:

(a) Factories of more than one story, power plants, mercantile buildings, hotels, office buildings, hospitals, asylums, public and private institutions, schools, colleges dormitories, warehouses and garages.

(b) Theatres and motion picture theatres.

(c) Public halls, dance halls, banquet halls, lodge halls, churches, skating rinks, armory halls, or any other auditorium not used for any of the other purposes mentioned in this act.

Tenement houses, apartment houses, apartment hotels, club houses, lodging houses, and rooming houses.

(e) Grandstands, stadiums and amphitheatres, summer theatres, observation towers, exhibition and fair buildings, amusement park equipment, roof gardens and roof structures."

I think that answers the question as to what buildings it covers.

Mr. TRAINER. Mr. President, if you just read the last line of that bill, I think you will see that you are wasting a great deal of time. It is apparently an inefficient and ineffective article that is for sale. It says "to prevent and retard the escape of gas". We have had enough gas here already.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. BUCKMAN and Mr. HARRIS, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—34

Batchelor,	Graff,	McCreesh,	Rupp,

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1585, entitled:

An Act to amend section two of the act approved the nineteenth day of September one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four (Pamphlet Laws six) entitled "An act transferring money from the Liquid Fuels Tax Fund to the General Fund and providing for the subsequent return from the General Fund of the transferred money" by extending the time for the repayment of the amounts transferred

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I hold in my hand two telegrams. In reading these telegrams into the record, I would like this discussion to be considered as applying on all of these bills from 1585 to 1595, inclusive, as they all practically pertain to the same thing. The first telegram reads as follows:

Oppose McClures measure to defer payment of gasoline money due various counties as your counties are badly in need of these funds.

R. M. HERSHEY, County Controller and a second telegram as follows:

Centre county opposes McClure measure to defer repayment of gasoline money due various counties and oppose further diversion of highway fund.

BOYD C. VONADA, Clerk to Centre County Commissioners.

Mr. President, we went on record yesterday, wisely or unwisely, to spend our revenue before we get it. Now these bills are an attempt to postpone the payments of the just debts of this Commonwealth, which we solemnly pledged to repay by the 31st of December of this year. This movement started back in the legislature last September, in the Special Session, when the Special Session of this Legislature dodged their solemn duties to raise taxes for emergency needs of this Commonwealth, and in place of meeting their issues fairly and squarely, they transferred money from distressed school districts, from counties, townships, from boroughs and from almost anybody they could transfer money from to use for relief, when they should have levied taxes. At that time the Legislature of this State, and a great many of you gentlemen who sit in this Senate, last September gave their solemn pledge to the people of this Commonwealth that these funds would be returned by December 331st, of this year. We made a similar pledge in February of this year to the people of this State expect us to live up to that pledge and return these funds that belong to them and do not belong to us. Our counties need these liquid fuel taxes for county purposes and our boroughs need these license taxes, and there are distressed school districts in this State that need these fund that were taken from their districts. We sent these bills back to committee last week. Among them were two bills for the Firemen's Relief fund, #1588 and #1590, taking these moneys. The committee that returned these bills to the Senate floor did not have the courage to bring these same bills out from this committee, but they will take moneys from the counties and boroughs—they will take those moneys and violate their solemn pledges. I say, Mr. President, that it is the duty of every Senator in this body, in keeping his word to his constituency and all the people of Pennsylvania to vote against each one of these bills from 1585 to 1595, inclusive.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I also wish to read into the record telegrams as follows:

Hon Glenn R Law
State Senator Harrisburg Penna.

Oppose McClure measure deferring repayment of gasoline money to counties and further diversion of highway funds

Mercer County Commissioners.

Glen Law, State Senate
Harrisburg Penn

Vote against McClure measure deferring the repayment of gasoline money and diversion of highway fund

The Crawford County Commissioners.

That represents the attitude of the Commissioners in the two counties in my district in regard to this bill, and I may say further, for the benefit of the gentlemen on the right, that these are both Republican members of the Boards of County Commissioners.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr .HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I think we have all received telegrams in respect to these bills on the calendar tonight. I, however, would like to ask that this bill go over in its order for the present, and that is to apply to all bills in this series of bills.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, how long he desires to postpone action on these bills.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, until a little later this evening.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, will the Senator from Monroe fix the hour?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, twelve o'clock.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I agree to that.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

It was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1626, entitled:

An Act providing for the escheat of certain dividends profits debts and interest on debts of associations and corporations doing business within this Commonwealth not engaged in the business of receiving deposits of money securities or other property for safe-keeping except building and loan associations and fiduciaries with interest actually accrued thereon to the date of the decree for the escheat of the same as well as the interest threon accrued between the fixing of the amount of such property by the award of any court and the actual distribution thereof and providing for the payment of fees and the procedure in the discovery and collection thereof and in connection therewith

And said bill having been read at length the third time.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

BILL DROPPED FROM CALENDAR

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1626, the bill just read, be dropped from the calendar.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1636, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation for the payment of the salaries of members of the Senate and House of Representatives elected to fill vacancies happening during the Session of the General Assembly of one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

And said bills having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 984 (House Bill No. 1565), entitled:

An Act to amend section two hundred and twenty-one of the act approved the fourteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred sixty-two) entitled "An act concerning poor relief and the creation and government of poor districts and the administration of the same in all counties of the Commonwealth except in counties of the first and second class and revising amending consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" by requiring records of poor districts to be open to inspection

The first section of the bill was read as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section two hundred and twenty-one of the act approved the fourteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred sixty-two) entitled "An act concerning poor relief and the creation and government of poor districts and the administration of the same in all counties of the Commonwealth except in counties of the first and second class and revising amending consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" is hereby amended to read as follows

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I move to amend section 1, page 2, lines 20, 21 and 22, by striking out with heavy-faced brackets the words "but the proper officers may make reasonable rules and regulations respecting the time and place of such inspection"

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I have no interest in these bills of this amendment, but the amendment as placed in the bill in committee was after due consideration, and the amendment that was placed therein meets with the approval of all persons interested in this bill, except only the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Sordoni. I ask, therefore, that this amendment be voted down.

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I, therefore, ask that this amendment be voted down. Senator Ealy just mentioned that he was not inerested in this bill or the amendment. I am interested in the bill and the amendments. The amendments seem reasonable, but as I said the other night in one of my many talks on the floor of the Senate, that it was not the particular law that I was interested in, but the manner in which it was enforced. This amendment provides that the proper officers make rules and regulations in respect to the time and place of such inspection. The proponents of this bill are under the impression that some of the officers in connection with this piece of legislation might make rules and regulations that would not be reasonable in any means. Now, the only amndment to this entire Act is the following:

"The minute books and other records and documents of all other poor districts shall be open to inspection of any taxpayer thereof."

There is no reason that I can see that the minute books and other records and documents should not be open for the inspection of the public, and I hope the Senate will adopt the amendment.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, in the Committee on County Government there were certain bills introduced providing for the records of poor districts to remain closed. There also was this bill introduced which provided that the minute books, records and documents of every poor district should be open for the inspection of every taxpayer, and the committee, after discussion, and with the consent of all persons who seemed interested in this bill except the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Sordoni, added to that amendment: "But the officers may make reasonable rules and regulations in respect to the time and place for making such inspection".

I cannot see any reason why we should strike out the addition that was made in Committee, and I ask that the Senate vote it down.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. SORDONI and Mr. GELDER and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—19

Bennett,	Kable,	Prince,	Roberts,
Cavalcante,	Law,	Rankin,	Sones,
Frey,	McClure,	Reed, (Washington)	Sordoni,
Gelder,	McGinnis,	Rice,	Thompson, (Centre)
Harris,	Miller,
Harvey,

NAYS—20

Batcheler,	Ealy,	Pytko,	Thompson, (Westmoreland)
Bean,	Graff,	Rodgers,	Trainer,
Buckman,	Homsher,	Salus,	Woodward,
Chapman,	Hunsicker,	Shapiro,	Ziesenheim,
Clark,	Mallery,	Staudenmeier,
Coyne,

So the question was determined in the negative.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The second section of the bill was read as follows and agreed to:

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment

The title of the bill was read as follows and agreed to:

An Act to amend section two hundred and twenty-one of the act approved the fourteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred sixty-two) entitled "An act concerning poor relief and the creation and government of poor districts and the administration of the same in all counties of the Commonwealth except in counties of the first and second class and revising amending consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" by requiring records of poor districts to be open to inspection

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 985 (House Bill No. 1566), entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws one thousand two hundred seventy-eight) entitled "An act relating to counties of the second third fourth fifth sixth seventh and eighth classes and revising amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto" by requiring county records to be open to inspection.

The first section of the bill was read as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws one thousand two hundred seventy-eight) entitled "An act relating to counties of the second third fourth fifth sixth seventh and eighth classes and revising amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto" is hereby amended by adding thereto the following section

Section 111 Records Open to Inspection The minute book and other records and documents of every county shall be open to the inspection of any taxpayer thereof but the proper officers may make reasonable rules and regulations respecting the time and place of such inspection

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I move to amend section 1, page 2, line 4, by inserting after the word "other" the following: fiscal; also page 2, line 5, by striking out with heavy-faced brackets the word "shall" and insert in lieu thereof may; also page 2, line 8, by inserting after the word "inspection" the following: In case any officer shall refuse to permit the inspection of any fiscal record or document, the taxpayer may, by petition to the court of common pleas of the county, set forth his reasons for desiring to make such inspection, and if the court deems such reasons proper, it shall order the officer to permit the inspection to be made.

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

The second section of the bill was read as follows and agreed to:

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment

The title of the bill was read as follows:

RECESS

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess for fifteen minutes.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed, the Senate will be in order.

MOTION TO RECONSIDER

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 985 (House Bill No. 1566), entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws one thousand two hundred seventy-eight) entitled "An act relating to counties of the second third fourth fifth sixth seventh and eighth classes and revising amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto" by requiring county records to be open to inspection.

passed second reading.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I wanted to ask that a roll call be had on the amendments. That would have been proper, but the Chair did not hear the request for a roll call.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I think that the Senator from Philadelphia will be perfectly satisfied with the amendments. They do not kill the bill at all. I talked to people about it and they are satisfied with the amendments.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I have talked to people who are dissatisfied with the amendments.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, this is one of a series of bills on the calendar. They have all been amended and this one has been amended precisely as the others have been amended, except that I think I put an addition in that makes this one bill better than the others, to wit: it allows the petitioner to go into Court and get a rule, while the other bills stand here with the possibility of having to go into Court and examine the records. I say that in the bill submitted, my amendments are precisely the same as in two other bills, and I, therefore, ask that these amendments be sustained. I have taken this up with the Chairman of this committee, I have spent a good deal of time on it; I saw three members of the association here, and they are all satisfied with the amendments.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, my reason for asking to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed second reading is because the effect of this amendment is that there will be no mandatory duty on the part of the Board to permit an inspection by everyone that wants an inspection will have to file a petition as the bill stands. They can be mandamused to permit an investigation of their books. The inspection, as the amend provides, it will be necessary to file a petition to set forth reasons, and we would be in the same position that we are now, and I therefore ask the Senate to reconsider this bill and vote down the amendments.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I wish to controvert the statement made. The amendment says it gives the right to a taxpayer to examine the records, and if refused, he may go into Court with a petition and get an order. I ask that the amendment be sustained.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The motion was not agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I desire at this time to call up Senate Bill No. 1585, on third reading entitled:

An Act to amend section two of the act approved the nineteenth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four (P. L. 6) entitled "An act transferring money from the Liquid Fuels Tax to the General Fund; and providing for the subsequent return from the General Fund of the transferred money," by extending the time for the repayment of the amounts transferred.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1585, entitled:

An Act to amend section two of the act approved the nineteenth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four (P. L. 6) entitled "An act transferring money from the Liquid Fuels Tax to the General Fund; and providing for the subsequent return from the General Fund of the transferred money," by extending the time for the repayment of the amounts transferred.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Senate Bill No. 1585 is one of a series of bills which I introduced last week. The purpose of the introduction of those bills at that time seemed not to be understood by some of the Republican Senators and also some of the Democratic Senators. I, therefore, had them recommitted to the Committee on Finance. These bills only make the fiscal affairs of the Commonwealth more flexible than they are at the present time. I have not asked the committee to report out the other bills diverting money from any funds. These bills only represent a continuation of the existing diversions which have already been made. It seems to me that the County Commissioners of the different counties are not taking exactly the right attitude in connecion with these bills. They ought to have in mind the Federal Government and the State Government bearing the largest part of the burden for relief, practically all of it, and while they are denied temporarily the use of these funds, during the first year of the biennium, possibly from receiving all the money due them, it will only require on their part a small interest charge.

I received a telegram similar to those of the other Senators, and it was replied to as I have replied here tonight, therefore, I ask the Republican and Democratic Senators here to pass these bills in order to give the Governor an opportunity, if he sees fit, to extend the time to return these funds for as far a period ahead as May 31, 1937, if the funds cannot be returned before that time.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I do not like to vote for these bills and the succeeding bills any more than anyone else does, because my people out home need their share of these funds, and the only excuse I have for voting for these bills is the very happy one that if we do not extend the time, as the financial situation is at this period, the Governor of the State will be in default. There are no funds here and there have been no funds provided, as I see the situation, to pay these funds back where they belong. There not being any money here, I think it is more honorable, and with more propriety, we can extend the time to allow these past-due bills to remain as past-due bills or debts.

There is a provision being made, as I understand it, or an attempt being made to arrange to borrow some money to an amount of $50,000,000.00, and if the Supreme Court sustains that move, we will be able, in spite of these expenses, to pay back these funds in a few months. I say that under the present condition there does not seem to be anything else to do but to extend the time to pay these obligations.

And the question recurring,

Sall the bill pass finally?

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Law.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Law, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Law, whether these are the same amendments offered last week.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, these are a portion of the amendments offered last week. These amendments only restore the provision in regard to the graduated income tax They do not go to the question of the disposition of the funds, or to the question of the amount of the tax.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, are they just the same in the bill as was before the committee?

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, they are.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, has the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Law, any estimate of the amount of taxes this will produce.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I have some estimates here. The estimate is that #1473, as it came from the House, would yield $13,000,000 per year. It is impossible to determine the exact amount of additional revenue to be obtained. By reducing the exemption to $1500.00, it would make a considerable difference.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, do I understand that the Senator from Mercer is willing to assume the responsibility of having this determined unconstitutional in order to raise revenue for school purposes and thus reduce the real estate taxation?

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I believe I may say that we are assuming that this act is constitutional. I believe that that statement has been made by the Senator from Tioga, that the act is unconstitutional.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Mercer if it is not a fact that the Attorney General of the State is of the opinion that a graduated income tax is not constitutional.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I believe that at one time the Attorney General did so consider it, but I believe he has somewhat changed his opinion since that time.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I desire to state that I shall vote for this amendment because I think it is a very great improvement on the pending bill. On the question of constitutionality I do not regard that it is necessary to get the opinion of the Attorney General. Personally, I studied the question, and while no one can say our Supreme Court of Pennsylvania will say that a graduated income tax is constitutional or not, under the best of the authorities, it is my own opinion that there is a strong probability that it will be declared constitutional, and I know of no decision of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania which indicates that they will take a contrary position.

The statement has been made that this matter would go to the Supreme Court of the United States and thereby there will be a considerable delay. I question very much whether that statement is accurate, for the simple reason that the Supereme Court of the United States did declare a graduated income tax in Oklahoma to be constitutional, and a few years ago, when North Carolina passed a graduated income tax, the Supreme Court of the United States refused to consider the matter upon a certiorari. Therefore, I believe on any question such as this, we should use our individual judgment as Senators, and, believing as I do that there is a strong probability that it will be declared constitutional, and that any tax could, which may be passed, be declared unconstitutional, and I propose to vote for these amendments.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I stated last night, and I repeat now, that in my judgment the graduated income tax is constitutional under our present Constitution, and that these amendments now offered would very obviously produce as much revenue or more than will be produced by the bill as it was read, and since our friends on the other side are suggesting that it be a graduate income tax and are willing to take the responsibility of the constitutionality, I shall vote "aye" on these amendments.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

The title of the bill was read as follows:

An Act imposing an income tax for school purposes on residents of Pennsylvania including fiduciaries and on income of non-residents derived from property or business in Pennsylvania defining taxable income and requiring filing of returns thereof providing for the assessment collection and lien of said tax and for the disposition of proceeds thereof providing for administration and enforcement of the act by the Department of Revenue conferring powers and imposing duties on certain persons partnerships associations corporations school districts State officers employes and departments imposing penalties and appropriating the revenues derived from said tax

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the title?

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I move to amend page 1, line 1 of the title by striking out after the word "graduated" and before the word "income" the word [an] and inserting in lieu thereof the words: a graduated

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the title as amended?

It was agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

An association may levy upon any shareholder or upon any corporation or person intending to become a shareholder a membership fee which shall not exceed one-eighth of one per centum of the par value of each share issued or to be issued to such shareholder corporation or person All membership fees so paid shall be credited to the general profit account of the association and shall not be credited as dues in the passbook or other receipt issued to the shareholder

Section 616 Order of Payment and Funds to Be Used to Pay Matured or Withdrawn Shares Power to Sue A Withdrawn or matured shares shall be paid in the order in which the withdrawals become effective or maturities are declared but withdrawals which become defective or maturities which are declared upon the same day shall be paid on a pro rata basis However the board of directors may at any time either authorize payment of withdrawn [or matured] shares on a pro rata basis or with the consent of the department fix a maximum amount to be paid periodically on such shares The action of the board of directors in authorizing payment to be made on a pro rata basis or in fixing a maximum amount to be paid periodically shall also apply to unpaid withdrawals which became effective [or to unpaid maturities which were declared] prior to the date on which such action was taken by the board of directors

B At least two-thirds of the funds in the treasury of an association shall be applied to the payment of matured or withdrawn shares whenever such amount is necessary for this purpose but the association shall first deduct such amount as shall be necessary to pay current expenses and interest or dividends on full-paid shares to protect or preserve the assets of the association and to make proper provisions for meeting such obligations as it may reasonably be expected to be compelled to pay Whenever two-thirds of the funds in the treasury other than such amounts as are required by this section to be deducted are insufficient to pay in full all matured or withdrawn shares one-third of such funds shall be applied to the payment of matured shares and one-third to the payment of withdrawn shares but if less than one-third of such funds shall be sufficient to pay in full all matured shares the balance of such one-third shall be applied to pay withdrawn shares and conversely if less than one-third of such funds shall be sufficient to pay in full all withdrawn shares the balance of such one-third shall be applied to pay matured shares

C Whenever funds are not available in the manner hereinbefore provided to pay any matured or withdrawn share upon which payment has been due for a period in excess of six months [all] eighty per centum of the funds in the treasury other than such amounts as are required by this section to be deducted shall be applied to the payment of matured or withdrawn shares Whenever [all] eighty per centum of the funds in the treasury other than such amounts as are required by this section to be deducted are insufficient to pay in full matured or withdrawn shares [one-half] forty per centum of such funds shall be applied to the payment of matured shares and [one-half] forty per centum to the payment of withdrawn shares If less than [one-half] forty per centum of such funds shall be sufficient to pay in full all matured shares the balance of such [one half] forty per centum shall be applied to pay withdrawn shares and conversely if less than [one-half] forty per centum of such funds shall be sufficient to pay in full all withdrawn shares the balance of such [one-half] forty per centum shall be applied to pay matured shares

D Whenever matured or withdrawn shares have not been paid by an association for a period of six months after the maturities have been declared or the withdrawals have become effective owing to the fact that the funds in the treasury which under this act are to be applied to the payment of such shares are insufficient to pay them in full so much of the bonds or other obligations of the United States of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or of a Federal Home Loan Bank owned by the association as shall be necessary to pay such matured or withdrawn shares shall be sold and the proceeds paid into the treasury of the association to be used to pay such shares unless the department shall give written permission to the association to hold such bonds or other obligations for a longer period of time

E For the purpose of this section the words "funds in the treasury" shall be construed to include all moneys received by the association from any source whatsoever except money borrowed from the Federal Home Loan Bank

F The holders of matured or withdrawn shares shall not have the power to sue for the amount due them by virtue of such maturity of such withdrawal until such time as under the provisions of this section such matured or such withdrawn shares should have been paid

Section 618 Restriction on Dividends on Full-Paid Shares Undivided Profits A The rate of cash dividend or periodical interest paid on full-paid shares during any year shall not exceed the [net] rate of [dividends earned] earnings apportioned during such year [on all the outstanding] to installment or prepaid shares of the association [less the amount thereof if any set aside as a reserve for contingent losses]

B An association may retain earnings in an undivided profit account to be used at the discretion of the board of directors for that purpose of paying additional dividends provided that the total undivided profits on hand at any one time shall not exceed two per centum of the amount paid in by shareholders on account of shares

Section 621 Reduction of Liability to Shareholders Whenever the losses of any association resulting from a depreciation of its securities or otherwise exceed its accumulated profits and its reserve for contingent losses so that the fair value of its assets is less than the total amount due its creditors and shareholders the court of common pleas of the county in which the place of business of the association is located may upon the petition of the association approved by a majority of all its directors and by the department order a reduction of its liability to its shareholders [in such manner as to distribute the loss equitably among such shareholders] The manner of apportioning the losses among the corporations or persons whose claims arose through the ownership of shares of the association shall be the same as that provided by this act in the case of an association which is in possession of the Secretary of Banking as receiver or which is being liquidated in pursuance of a plan of voluntary dissolution authorized by this act

Such petition shall be advertised at least once in a newspaper of general circulation

Section 801 Powers of Association In addition to the general corporate powers granted by this act and in addition to any powers specifically granted to an association elsewhere in this act an association shall have the following powers subject to the limitations and restrictions imposed by this act

(1) To issue full-paid prepaid and installment shares

Section 808 Segregation of Dues Upon Order of Department A Whenever it shall appear to the department that the affairs of an association are in such condition that the action hereinafter provided in this section is justfied the department may by written order issued in the manner provided by law direct that all payments of dues made on account of installment shares which have not been transferred and pledged to the association as security for loans shall be segregated from the other assets of the association and that the association shall not grant any further loans [issue any new shares] make any payments on account of withdrawn or matured shares or allow any credit for the value of any shares on account of the principal of any loan until such order is revoked in writing by the department Such order of the department shall be known as an order of segregation Such segregated money shall either be kept on deposit in a depository selected in the manner provided by this act or invested in the bonds designated by this act as authorized investments for associations The moneys so segregated and the bonds in which such moneys are invested shall be known as the segregated fund

If an association at any time after an order of segregation has become effective has no liability except to its shareholders arising from the ownership of shares it may with the written consent of the department transfer to the segregated fund a portion or all of any cash which it may have on hand and bonds if any designated by this act as authorized investments Cash and bonds so transferred shall become a part of the segregated fund the same as though paid into the segregated fund by the shareholders whose shares are not pledged to the association as security for loans in proportion to the amounts paid in on account of their shares on the date that the order of segregaion was issued Such segregated fund shall not be subject to any attachment issued on a judgment obtained by any creditor or shareholder of the association

During the period of segregation the segregated fund shall be available exclusively for the benefit of the shareholders who made such payments or for whose benefit the transfer of cash and bonds was made and may be withdrawn during such period of segregation upon thirty days' written notice

B All dues paid in during the period of segregation by shareholders whose shares are pledged to the association as security for loans shall be known as segregated credits and shall be applied as credits against the principal of any loans so secured which are repaid during the period of segregation

When any transfer of cash and bonds is made to the segregated fund the shareholders whose shares are pledged to the association as security for loans shall be entitled to segregated credits which shall bear the same relation to the amounts paid in by them on account of their shares prior to the effective date of the order of segregation as the amount of cash and bonds so transferred bears to the total amount paid in on account of shares prior to the effective date of the order of segregation by shareholders whose shares are not pledged as security for loans

If at any time during the period of segregation the segregated credits on shares pledged for a loan exceed the amount of the loan for which such shares are pledged all payments made by the borrower thereafter shall be segregated in the same manner as payments made by shareholders whose shares have not been pledged to the association as security for loans

C If the Secretary of Banking shall in the manner provided by law take possession of the business and property of an association while an order of segregation is in force or if a liquidating trustee or liquidating trustees shall pursuant to a plan of voluntary dissolution take possession of the business and property of such association while such order is in force the amount in the segregated fund shall be paid only to the shareholders whose payments were segregated or for whose benefit the transfer of cash and bonds was made and only to the extent that they can be paid from the segregated fund or from the proceeds of the sale of the bonds in which such segregated fund has been invested and the shareholders whose shares have been transferred and pledged as security for loans shall receive credit on account of the principal of their loans for the full amount of their segregated credits

D If an association while an order of segregation is in force shall enter into an agreement of merger or consolidation with another association or with other associations the shareholders whose shares have not been pledged to the association as security for loans shall receive credit in full for their interest in the segregated fund on account of the shares of the surviving or new association into which their shares are converted and the shareholders whose shares have been pledged to the association as securtiy for loans shall receive credit in full for their segregated credits on account of the shares of the surviving or new association into which their shares are converted

E If while an order of segregation is in force the liability of an association to its shareholders shall be reduced by order of the court of common pleas pursuant to the provisions of this act the interest of the shareholders in the segregated fund and the segregated credits of shareholders shall not be reduced by the order of court but such shareholders shall receive credit in full on account of their shares for such interest in the segregated fund or for such segregated credits

F The department may revoke an order of segregation whenever it shall appear that the condition of an association justifies such action In such event the association may exercise all the powers it could have exercised prior to the issuance of such order It shall treat all payments on account of shares or otherwise made by shareholders during the period of segregation and all segregated credits in the same manner as all other payments on account of shares whenever made

G The department in its order of segregation may impose all or any part of the directions authorized by this section or may limit modify or qualify them and may also from time to time after an order of segregation has been issued by an amended order or orders limit modify or qualify directors already given but this subsection shall not be construed to authorize the department to omit from the original order of segregation or to limit modify or qualify the requirement that all payments of dues made on account of installment shares which have not been transferred and pledged to the association as security for loans shall be segregated from the other assets of the association In the event that a limited modified or qualified order of segregation is issued by the department the association shall have the right to conduct its business in accordance with such order or amended order of segregation as limited modified or qualified

Section 910 Security for Share Loans An association may grant share loans to any of its shareholders upon the following security only The note of the borrower secured by the transfer and pledge to the association of installment full-paid or prepaid shares which have not previously been transferred or pledged to anyone other than the association the amount paid in on account of such shares prior to or at the time of the granting of any loan upon the security of such shares shall be at least equal to the total amount of all loans granted thereon

Section 1002 Approval of Joint Plan of Merger or Consolidation A The board of directors of each of the associations which desire to merge consolidate shall by resolution adopted by at least a majority of all the members of each board approve a joint plan of merger or consolidation as the case may be setting forth the terms and conditions of the merger consolidation and the mode of carrying the same into effect the manner and basis of converting the shares of each association into shares of other securities or obligations of the surviving new [corporation] as the case may be and such other details and provisions as are deemed necessary

B The board of directors of each association upon approving such plan of merger or plan of consolidation in accordance with the provisions of this act shall by resolution direct that the plan be submitted to a vote of the shareholders of such association entitled to vote thereon at an annual or special meeting of the shareholders Written notice shall not less than fifteen days before such annual or special meeting be given respectively to each shareholder of record unless the plan of merger or [plan of] consolidation contemplates an increase in the authorized capital of the constituent associations in which event sixty days' notice of such meeting shall be given to each shareholder The notice shall state the place day hours and purpose of the meeting and a copy of a summary of the plan of merger or plan of consolidation as the case may be shall be included in or enclosed with such notice

Provided however that in the case of the surviving association in a merger if the articles or by-laws specifically so provide the plan of merger shall not be required to be submitted to the shareholders for approval but in such case written notice of such contemplated merger shall be given to all shareholders of the surviving association prior to the day upon which the articles of merger are filed with the Department of State

And provided further that in such event upon request in writing to the secretary of the association any shareholder of the surviving association shall be entitled to receive forthwith a copy of the proposed plan of merger

C The plan of merger or consolidation shall be ratified upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon of each of the merging or consolidating associations except in the case of a surviving association the articles or by-laws of which pursuant to this act provide that action by the shareholders shall not be required in which case no ratification shall be necessary

Section 1003 Articles of Merger or Consolidation Upon the approval pursuant to the provisions of this act of the plan of merger or the plan of consolidation by the shareholders of the associations desiring to merge consolidate or in the case of a surviving association the articles or by-laws of which pursuant to this act provide the action by the shareholders shall not be required upon the giving of written notice to the shareholders of the intention of the board of directors to file articles of merger with the Department of State articles of merger or articles of consolidation as the case may be shall be executed under the seal of each association and verified by two duly authorized officers of each association and shall set forth

(1) The name of the surviving or new association

(2) The time and place of the meeting of the directors at which the plan of merger or consolidation was proposed and except where pursuant to the provisions of this act the plan of merger is not submitted to a vote of the shareholders of the surviving association the time and place of the meeting of the shareholders of each association at which the plan of merger or consolidation as the case may be was ratified the kind and period of notice given to the shareholders and the total vote by which the plan was adopted

(3) In the case of a merger any changes desired to be made in the articles of the surviving association or in the case of a consolidation all of the statements required by this act to be set forth in the original articles in the case of the formation of an association

(4) The number names and addresses of the persons to be the first directors of the surviving or new association

(5) The plan of merger or consolidation

Section 1009 Rights of Dissenting Shareholders A If any shareholder of an association which becomes a party to a plan of merger or consolidation shall file with such association prior to or at the meeting of shareholders at which the plan of merger or consolidation is submitted to a vote or in the case of a shareholder of a surviving association which pursuant to the provisions of this act becomes a party to a plan of merger without action by its shareholders shall file within twenty days after the written notice of such merger has been given as required by this act a whitten objection to such plan of merger or consolidation and shall not vote in favor thereof and such shareholder within twenty days after the merger or consolidation was effected shall make written demand on the surviving or new association for the payment of the fair value of his shares as of the day prior to the date on which the vote was taken approving the merger or consolidation or in the case of a surviving association which pursuant to this act became a party to the merger without action of its shareholders the day prior to the date on which the articles of merger were filed with the Department of State without regard to any depreciation or appreciation thereof in consequence of the merger or consolidation the surviving or new association shall pay to such shareholder the fair value of his shares upon surrender of the share certificate or other evidence of his shares The demand of the shareholder shall state the number and kind of the shares owned by him Any shareholder [failing] who fails to file such written objection or any shareholder who files such written objection and fails to make demand within the twenty-day period shall be conclusively presumed to have consented to the merger or consolidation and shall be bound by the terms thereof if within thirty days after the date on which such merger or consolidation was effected the value of such shares shall be agreed upon by the dissenting shareholder and the surviving or new association payment thereof shall be made in cash within ninety days after the date on which such merger or consolidation was effected upon the surrender of the share certificate or other evidence of his shares Upon payment of the agreed value the dissenting shareholder shall cease to have any interest in such shares or in the association

B If within such period of thirty days the shareholder and the surviving or new association do not so agree then the dissenting shareholder may within sixty days after the expiration of the thirty-day period apply by petition to the court of common pleas in equity within the county in which the place of business of the surviving or new association is situated for the appointment by the court of three disinterested persons to appraise the fair market value of his shares without regard to any depreciation or appreciation thereof in consequence of the merger or consolidation The award of the appraisers or of a majority of them when confirmed by the court shall be final and conclusive The costs of such appraisal including a reasonable fee to the appraisers shall be fixed by the court and shall be assessed either upon the new or surviving association or upon the dissenting shareholder or upon both in the discretion of the court The award shall be payable only upon and simultaneously with the surrender to the surviving or new association of the share certificate or certificates representing the shares of the dissenting shareholder If the award shall not be paid by the surviving or new association within thirty days after the award was made by the appraisers the amount of the award shall be a judgment against the surviving or new association as the case may be and may be collected as other judgments in such court are by law collectible Upon the payment of the award or judgment the dissenting shareholder shall cease to have any interest in such shares or in the surviving or new association Unless the dissenting shareholder shall file a petition within the time herein limited such shareholder and all persons claiming under him shall be conclusively presumed to have approved and ratified the merger or consolidation and shall be bound by the terms thereof The right of the dissenting shareholder to be paid the fair value of his shares as herein provided shall cease if and when the association shall abandon the merger or consolidation

Section 1112 Order of Preference in Distribution A The following shall be the order followed by the liquidating trustee or trustees as the case may be in the distribution pursuant to the provisions of this act of the assets of any association which is being liquidated in pursuance of a plan of voluntary dissolution

First Any reasonable expense incurred by the liquidating trustee or trustees as the case may be in the management liquidation or distribution of the assets and affairs of the association any fee or other debt owing to the department for examinations or other services rendered or penalties incurred any other claim of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and any other claim which is given a preference by law

(b) Head Lamps on Motor Vehicles Every motor vehicle other than a Motorcycle or Bicycle with motor attached shall be equipped with two (2) head lamps and no less at the front of and on opposite sides of the motor vehicle which head lamps shall comply with the requirements and limitations set forth in this act and [except as to acetylene head lamps] shall be of a type which at the time of their use are approved by the secretary

(c) Head Lamps on Motorcycles Every motorcycle shall be equipped with at least one (1) head lamp and not more than two (2) which shall comply with the requirements and limitations set forth in this act and [except as to acetylene head lamps] shall be of a type which at the time of its use is approved by the secretary

(d) Rear Lamps and Illumination of Rear Registration Plate Every motor vehicle and every trailer or semitrailer attached to a motor vehicle and every vehicle which is being drawn at the end of a combination of vehicles shall carry at the rear a lamp of a type which at the time of its use is approved by the secretary and which exhibits a red light plainly visible under normal atmospheric conditions from a distance of five hundred (500) feet to the rear of such vehicle [and] Either such rear lamp or a separate lamp shall be so constructed and placed that the number plate carried on the rear of such vehicle shall under like conditions be so illuminated by a white light as to be read from a distance of fifty (50) feet to the rear of such vehicle When the rear number plate is illuminated by an electric lamp other than the required rear lamp said two (2) lamps shall be turned on or off only by the same control switch at all times whenever head lamps are lighted

(e) [Clearance Lamps Every vehicle having a width at any part in excess of ninety (90) inches shall carry at least one (1) clearance lamp on the left side of such vehicle and displaying a white or green light visible under normal atmospheric conditions from a distance of five hundred (500) feet to the front of the vehicle and displaying a red light visible under like conditions from a distance of five hundred (500) feet to the rear of the vehicle Provided That motorcycles having more than two (2) wheels or with side car equipment shall display a clearance lamp in such a manner as to indicate the right lateral extension of the vehicle Every combination of vehicles couples together having an overall length in excess of thirty-five (35) feet shall carry at least one (1) clearance lamp on both the right and left sides of such vehicles and displaying a white or green light visible under normal atmospheric conditions from a distance of five hundred (500) feet to the front and rear of such vehicles]

Reflectors Every motor bus motor omnibus commercial motor vehicle trailer or semi-trailer when operated on a highway shall display at the rear a red reflector meeting the following requirements

Whenever a red reflector is so used or whenever red or green reflectors are used as hereinafter provided it or they shall be mounted upon the vehicle at a height not to exceed forty-two (42) inches and not less than twenty-four (24) inches above the ground upon which the vehicle stands and every such reflector shall be of a type which at the time of its use is approved by the Secretary and shall be so designed and maintained as to be visible at night from all distances within five hundred (500) feet to fifty (50) feet from such vehicle when directly in front of or opposed to a motor vehicle displaying lawfully lighted head lamps as provided in this act

(f) Every commercial motor vehicle trailer or semitrailer or every motor omnibus or motor bus except motor buses or motor omnibuses operated entirely within municipalities when their interiors are illuminated shall display lighted lamps at the times mentioned in subsection (a) when and as required in this section except that such lamps may be but are not required to be lighted when any such vehicle is upon a highway which is sufficiently illuminated by street lamps to render any person or vehicle visible at a distance of five hundred (500) feet

1 Clearance Lamps Every such vehicle having a width at any part in excess of eighty (80) inches shall be equipped with two (2) clearance lamps located on the extreme left side of such vehicle one located at the front and displaying a green light visible from a distance of five hundred (500) feet to the front of the vehicle and the other located at the rear of the vehicle and displaying a red light visible from a distance of five hundred (500) feet to the rear of the vehicle and said rear clearance lamp shall be in addition to the red rear lamp hereinbefore required Provided however that vehicles equipped with acetylene headlamps may in lieu of such clearance lights be equipped with a green reflector in front and a red reflector in the rear which shall be so designed and maintained to meet the requirements as to reflectors provided in this section

2 Identification Lamps Front and Rear Every motor vehicle trailer or semitrailer or combination of such vehicles having a length in excess of thirty (30) feet or a width in excess of eighty (80) inches shall be equipped with lamps on the front displaying three (3) green lights and lamps on the rear displaying three (3) red lights and the lights in each such group shall be evenly spaced not less than six nor more than twelve (12) inches apart along a horizontal line near the top of the vehicle and said lights shall be visible from distances of five hundred (500) feet to the front and rear respectively of the vehicle Provided however that vehicles equipped with acetylene headlamps may in lieu of such identification lamps be equipped with red and green reflectors

3 Side Marker Lamps Every such vehicle or combination of such vehicles which exceeds twenty (20) feet in overall length shall be equipped with at least four (4) side marker lamps one (1) on each side near the front and one (1) on each side near the rear Said lamps near the front shall display green lights and said lamps near the rear shall display red lights each visible from a distance of five hundred (500) feet to the side of the vehicle on which it is located If the clearance lamps on the left side of a vehicle as hereinbefore required display lights visible from a distance of five hundred (500) feet at right angles to the left of the vehicle they shall be deemed to meet the requirements as to left marker lamps in this paragraph In lieu of such side marker lamps any such vehicle may be equipped with four (4) reflectors two (2) on each side and otherwise meeting the requirements of this act

[(f)] (g) Lamps on Bicycles Every bicycle and every bicycle with motor attached shall be equipped with a lighted lamp on the front thereof visible under normal atmospheric conditions from a distance of at least [two] five hundred [(200)] (500) feet in front of such bicycle or bicycle with motor attached and shall also be equipped with a [reflex mirror] red reflector or lamp on the rear exhibiting or reflecting a red light visible under like conditions from a distance of at least [two] five hundred [(200)] (500) feet to the rear of such bicycle or bicycle with motor attached

[(g)] (h) Lights on Other Vehicles All vehicles not required in this act to be equipped with specific lighted lamps shall carry one (1) or more lighted lamps or lanterns displaying a white light visible under normal atmospheric conditions from a distance of not less than five hundred (500) feet to the front and with a lamp or lantern displaying a red light visible from a distance of five hundred (500) feet to the rear of such vehicles except for vehicles other than motor vehicles loaded with hay or straw in bulk

[(h)] (i) Lights on Parked Motor Vehicles Whenever a motor vehicle is parked or stopped upon a highway or shoulder adjacent thereto whether attended or unattended during the time when lights are required by this section may in lieu of the lighting equipment specified show one (1) white or green light carried on the left side of the motor vehicle visible under normal atmospheric conditions from a distance of five hundred (500) feet to the front of such vehicle and projecting a red light visible under like conditions from a distance of five hundred (500) feet to the rear Provided That local authorties may by ordinance establish zones within which motor vehicles may remain standing without lights Any lighted headlamps upon a parked vehicle shall be depressed or dimmed

Penalty Any person violating any of the provisions of subsection (a) (b) (c) (d) or (e) of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days Any person violating any of the provisions of subsection (f) [or] (g) (h) or (i) of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of two ($2) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than one (1) day

Section 802.1 Multiple Beam Road Lighting Equipment

Except as hereinafter provided the headlamps or the auxiliary driving lamps or combinations thereof on motor vehicles shall be so arranged that the driver may select at will between distributions of light projected to different elevations subject to the following requirements and limitations

(a) There shall be an uppermost distribution of light or composite beam so aimed and of such intensity as to reveal persons and vehicles at a distance of at least three hundred fifty (350) feet ahead for all conditions of loading The maximum intensity of this uppermost distribution of light or composite beam one (1) degree of arc or more above the horizontal level of the lamps when the vehicle is not loaded shall not exceed eight thousand (8000) apparent candlepower and at no other point of the distribution of light or composite beam shall there be an intensity of more than seventy-five thousand (75,000) apparent candlepower

(b) There shall be a lowermost distribution of light or composite beam so aimed that

1 When the vehicle is not loaded none of the high intensity portion of the light which is directed to the left of the prolongation of the extreme left side of the vehicle shall at a distance of twenty-five (25) feet ahead project higher than a level of ten (10) inches below the level of the center of the lamp from which it comes

2 When the vehicle is not loaded none of the high intensity portion of the light which is directed to the right of the prolongation of the extreme life side of the vehicle shall at a distance of twenty-five (25) feet ahead project higher than a level of five (5) inches below the level of the center of the lamp from which it comes

3 In no event shall any of the high intensity of such lowermost distribution of light or composite beam project higher than a level of forty-two (42) inches above the level on which the vehicle stands at a distance of seventy-five (75) feet ahead

(c) Where one intermediate beam is provided the beam on the left side of the road shall be in conformity with subsection (b) one of this section except when arranged in accordance with the practice specified in subsection (e)

(d) All road lighting beams shall be so aimed and of sufficient intensity to reveal a person or vehicle at a distance of at least one hundred (100) feet ahead

(e) All road lighting equipment manufactured and installed on and after January first one thousand nine hundred thirty-six shall be so arranged that whenever any beam is used which is not in conformity with subsection (a) of this section two (2) white or yellow lights one (1) on each side of the vehicle visible to an oncoming driver and to the driver of said vehicle shall be lighted except that other suitable alternate means may be provided for indicating to the driver behind the light when such beams are on Indicator lights shall not be connected otherwise than as required in this paragraph Beam indicator lights and front parking lights shall be so connected that neither of said lights shall be lighted when a beam is in use which conforms with subsection (b) one of this section

Penalty Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10.00) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days

Section 802.2 Use of Multiple Beam Road Lighing Equipment

(a) Whenever a motor vehicle is being operated on a roadway or shoulder adjacent thereto during the times specified in section eight hundred one (801) the driver shall use a distribution of light or composite beam directed high enough and of sufficient intensity to reveal persons and vehicles at a safe distance in advance of the vehicle subject to the following requirements and limitations

(b) Whenever the driver of a vehicle approaches an oncoming vehicle within five hundred (500) feet such driver shall use a distribution of light or composite beam so aimed that the glaring rays are not projected into the eyes of the oncoming driver and in no case shall the high intensity portion which is projected to the left of the prolongation of the extreme left side of the vehicle be aimed higher than the center of the lamp from which it comes at a distance of twenty-five (25) feet ahead and in no case higher than a level of forty-two (42) inches above the level upon which the vehicle stands at a distance of seventy-five (75) feet ahead

Penalty Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days

Section 802.3 Single Beam Road Lighting Equipment Headlamps arranged to provide a single distribution of light not supplemented by auxiliary driving lamps shall be permitted on motor vehicles manufactured and sold prior to one (1) year after the effective date of this act in lieu of multiple beam road lighting equipment herein specified if the single distribution of light complies with the following requirements and limitations

(a) The head lamps shall be so aimed that when the vehicle is not loaded none of the high intensity portion of the light shall at a distance of twenty-five (25) feet ahead project higher than a level of five (5) inches below the level of the center of the lamp from which it comes and in no case higher than forty-two (42) inches above the level on which the vehicle stands at a distance of seventy-five (75) feet ahead

(b) The intensity shall be sufficient to reveal persons and vehicles at a distance of at least two hundred (200) feet

(c) Any motor vehicle may be operated under the conditions specified in section eight hundred one (801) when equipped with two (2) lighted lamps upon the front thereof capable of revealing persons and objects seventy-five (75) feet ahead in lieu of lamps otherwise required Provided however that at no time shall be it operated at a speed in excess of twenty (20) miles per hour.

Penalty Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days

Section 802.4 Number of Driving Lamps Required or Permitted

(a) At all times specified in section eight hundred one (801) at least two (2) lighted lamps shall be displayed one on each side at the front of every motor vehicle exceept when such vehicle is parked subject to the regulations governing lights on parked vehicles

(b) Whenever a motor vehicle equipped with headlamps as herein required is also equipped with any auxiliary lamps or a spot lamp or any other lamp on the front thereof projecting a beam of an intensity greater than three hundred (300) candlepower not more than a total of four (4) of any such lamps on the front of a vehicle shall be lighted at any one time when upon a highway

(c) Any lighted lamp or illuminating device upon a motor vehicle other than headlamps spot lamps or auxiliary driving lamps which projects a beam of light of an intensity greater than three hundred (300) candlepower shall be so directed that no part of the beam will strike the level of the roadway on which the vehicle stands at a distance of more than seventy-five (75) feet from the vehicle

(d) Any motor vehicle may be equipped with not more than two (2) side cowl or fender lamps which shall emit an amber or white light without glare

(e) Any motor vehicle may be equipped with not more than one (1) running board courtesy lamp on each side thereof which shall emit a white or amber light without glare

(f) Any motor vehicle may be equipped with a back-up lamp either separately or in combination with another lamp except that no such back-up lamp shall be continuously lighted when the motor vehicle is in forward motion

(g) No person shall operate or move any vehicle except fire department and fire patrol apparatus upon a highway with a red light displayed on the front thereof

Penalty Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days

Section 17 That section eight hundred three of the said act is hereby repealed [Section 803 Requirements as to Head Lamps and Auxiliary Driving Lamps]

[(a) The head lamps or head lamp of motor vehicles shall be so constructed arranged adjusted and attached that except as provided in this act they will at all times mentioned in this act and under normal atmospheric conditions and on a level road produce a driving light sufficient to render clearly discernible all vehicles persons or substantial objects one hundred sixty (160) feet ahead but shall not project a glaring or dazzling light to persons in front of such head lamps or head lamp Provided That for motorcycles the distance at which vehicles persons or substantial objects shall be clearly discernible shall be one hundred fifteen (115) feet]

[(b) Head lamps or head lamp shall be deemed to comply with the foregoing provisions prohibiting glaring and dazzling lights if no part of the main bright portion of the headlamp beam rises above a horizontal plane passing through the lamp centers parallel to the level of the highway upon which the loaded vehicle stands and in no case higher than forty-two (42) inches at a distance seventy-five (75) feet ahead of the vehicle]

[(c) Whenever a motor vehicle is being operated upon a highway or a portion thereof which is sufficiently lighted to reveal vehicles persons or substantial objects on such highway at a distance of two hundred (200) feet ahead of motor vehicle it shall be permissible to dim the headlamps or headlamp or to tilt the beams or beams downward or to substitute therefor the light from side lights or auxiliary driving lamps subject to the restrictions as to tilted beams and auxiliary driving lamps as provided in this act]

[(d) Restrictions on Lamps Bulbs and Reflectors Any device other than lamps spot lamps or auxiliary driving lamps which projects a beam of light of an intensity greater than twenty-five (25) candlepower shall be so directed that no part of the beam will strike the level of the surface on which the vehicle stands at a distance of more than fifty (50) feet from the vehicle]

[Every electric lamp or bulb used in any head lamp or auxiliary driving lamp on any motor vehicle shall not exceed the mean spherical candlepower designated in certificate of approval as issued by the secretary]

[Every electric lamp or bulb used in any side light shall not exceed four (4) mean spherical candlepower]

[Every reflector which is used as a part of any head lamp shall have a highly polished silvered or glass or other reflecting surface and shall be free from dents rust and other imperfections]

[(e) Whenever a motor vehicle meets another vehicle an any highway it shall be permissible to tilt the beams or beams of the headlamps or headlamp downward or to substitute therefor the light from auxiliary driving lamps subject to the requirement that the tilted beams or beam or the beams from the auxiliary driving lamps shall give sufficient illumination under normal atmospheric conditions and on an approximately level highway to render clearly discernible vehicles persons or substantial objects seventy-five (75) feet ahead of the motor vehicle but shall not project a glaring or dazzling light to persons in front of the motor vehicle Provided That at all times required in this act at least two (2) lights shall be displayed on the front of and on opposite sides of every motor vehicle other than a motorcycle which shall display at least one (1) light as provided in this act]

[Penalty Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10.00) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days]

Section 18 That section 804 of the said act is hereby repealed [Section 804 Acetylene Lights]

[Motor vehicles may be equipped with two (2) acetylene headlamps of aproximately equal candlepower when equipped with clear plain glass fronts bright spherical or Mangan mirrors not to exceed six (6) inches in diameter and standard acetylene five-eights (⅝) foot burners not more and not less and which do not project a glaring or dazzling light into the eyes of approaching persons except that motorcycles may be equipped with one (1) acetylene headlamp of these specifications]

[Penalty Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days]

Section 19 That section 807 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 807 Revocation of Certificates of Approval of Lighting Devices

(a) Any certificate of approval however heretofore or hereafter issued may be revoked by the secretary after a hearing before the secretary or his representative of which the person named therein or his successor in interest shall be given reasonable notice or opportunity to hear or to be heard upon the ground that the lighting device reflector or mechanical signal device does not comply with the provisions of this act regulations adopted or is not being supplied in production in accordance with specifications original blueprint assemblies or sample devices originally submitted However revocation of certificates of approval of devices heretofore or hereafter approved shall not take effect until three (3) months after decision of the secretary revoking same

(b) The secretary may adopt uniform standard specifications for head lamps auxiliary driving lamps rear lamps signal lamps reflectors and may promulgate certain rules and regulations not inconsistent with this act to govern his decision in approving any lighting device reflector or mechanical signal device or revoking any certificate of approval issued for such devices

(c) Certificates approving each type of head lamp device hereafter issued by the secretary will expire and be void after [two (2)] four (4) years from date of issue unless the manufacturer has prior to the expiration date made application for renewal of such certificate furnishing two (2) pair of samples for test purposes in accordance with this act together with the fee provided in this act and new certificate of approval has been issued

(d) Certificates approving each type of auxiliary driving lamp rear lamp mechanical signal device reflector and signal lamp hereafter issued by the secretary will not expire [and be void after two (2) years from date of issue unless the manufacturer has prior to the expiration date made application for renewal of any such certificate furnishing two (2) samples for test purposes in accordance with this act together with fee provided in this act and new certificate of approval has been issued] until revoked for cause by the secretary

(e) When no renewal application is made and when an application for renewal of certificate of approval is refused the head lamp auxiliary driving lamp rear lamp mechanical signal device reflector or signal lamp will become illegal for use on motor vehicles after [two (2)] six (6) years from date of expiration of certificate Provided however new motor vehicles will not be title unless the lighting devices are of an approved type for which certificates of approval are in effect at the time of application for title

Section 20 That subsection (a) of section eight hundred eight of said act be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 808 Enforcement and Authority to Refuse Title or Registration

(a) A head lamp or auxiliary driving lamp arranged to provide a single distribution of light will be presumed to project a glaring or dazzling light if the top of any main beam of ligh projected by it is at a distance of twenty-five (25) feet ahead of the motor vehicle on an approximately level stretch of highway projected on the body of a person or on a motor vehicle or on any object at a height greater than the distance of the centers of the lamps from the highway A head lamp or auxiliary driving lamp arranged to provide a single distribution of light and mounted on a motor vehicle at a height higher than forty-two (42) inches above the highway will be presumed to project a glaring or dazzling light if the top of the beam of light projected by it on an approximately level stretch of highway be higher than forty-two (42) inches above the highway seventy-five (75) feet ahead of the vehicle

Section 21 That subsections (c) (d) (e) (f) (g) (h) and (i) of section eight hundred eleven of said act be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 811 Brakes

(c) [all such brakes shall be maintained in good working order and shall conform to regulations further provided in this act] Every trailer or semi-trailer of a gross weight of three thousand (3,000) pounds or more when operated upon a highway shall be equipped with brakes adequate to control the movement of and to stop and to hold such vehicle for at least fifteen (15) minutes and so designed as to be applied by the driver of the towing motor vehicle from its cab and said brakes shall be so designed and connected that in case of an accidental breakaway of the towed vehicle the brakes shall be automatically applied

RESOLUTION

Mr. HOLSTROM offered the following resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was twice read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, June 18, 1935.

Amend Resolution No. 107, Serial No. 136, Printer's No. 503, as follows:

Strike out all of paragraph number five, and insert in lieu thereof the following: "RESOLVED, That said committee make its report to the House of Representatives at the next Session of the Legislature and be further"

STATEMENT BY MR. WICKERSHAM

Mr. WICKERSHAM asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, we have heard not once but many times the Governor of Pennsylvania and other Democratic leaders declare that relief must be kept out of politics. As this session draws to a close, we are entitled to examine the record and ascertain whether these statements were idle gestures intended only to mislead and to deceive the public, or whether they were the sincere pledges of a Governor who intended to sponsor legislation which would carry out his pledge and help in the battle to take relief out of politics.

The history of this House contains the answer. Nowhere in its pages can we find reference to a single bill introduced by a Democrat that would assist in the carrying out of this pledge.

Furthermore, we find that the Democratic controlled Committee on Elections has deliberately "pickled" Republican legislation which would remove sinister political implications from the distribution of relief funds.

Early in the present session I became convinced that there would be no Administration measure pertinent to the subject. Accordingly on March 14, I introduced House Bill 1551 which makes it a misdemeanor for anyone connected with the distribution of relief funds to attempt to influence the vote of a recipient of such funds at a primary or general election.

The Democratic controlled Committee on Elections indefinitely postponed consideration of the bill and never allowed it to appear on the floor of the House.

I personally inquired of the Chairman of this Committee why such a bill should be "pickled". He gave me two reasons. The first was that the act was unnecessary as there was similar federal legislation covering the subject.

Mr. Speaker, this assertion is not borne out by the facts, and I so advised the Chairman of that Committee. I have carefully examined the United States statutes, and find that there is no federal law prohibiting those engaged in the distribution of relief from attempting to influence the vote of a recipient of relief. With an abundance of precaution I wrote the Federal Emergency Relief Administrator to ascertain whether he could direct my attention to any such law. I quote from the reply I received.

Federal Emergency Relief Administrator
Walker-Johnson Building,
1734 New York Avenue, NW,
Washington.

May 21, 1935.

Hon. Thomas R. Wickersham,
300 Mechanics Trust Building,
Harrisburg, Pa.

My dear Mr. Wickersham:

In answer to your letter of the 14th, allow me to say that I know of no Federal legislation declaring it to be a criminal offense for persons having to do with the distribution of relief to attempt to influence the vote of a recipient of relief.

(Signed) Bruce McClure,
Personal Assistant to the Administrator.

The second reason given me by the Chairman of the Committee on Elections for "pickling" House Bill No. 1551 is as fallacious as the first. It was that even should the House pass such a bill, it would not pass in the Senate. I immediately requested Senator George L. Reed to introduce a similar bill in that body, and on May 8 he did so. This Bill, Senate Bill No. 1298 passed the Senate on May 21, and on May 22 was referred to the Committee on Elections in the House. Since that time it has been "bottled" in Committee as effectively as House Bill No. 1551.

Facts speak for themselves, Mr. Speaker, and the facts in this case irrefutably indict the Democratic leadership with stifling every attempt to take relief out of politics. Perhaps our radio-conscious Governor in his next address will tell the people of Pennsylvania what legislation he has sponsored to prevent the economic bribery of recipients of relief at the polls. My belief, however, is that this is a subject he will prefer not to discuss.

The distribution of relief funds is an important governmental function, and those actively engaged in the work hold positions of public trust. There can be no sound reason advanced to support the position that they should become ward workers at election time. On the contrary, if our system of government is to prevail, if Democracy is to guarantee the freedom of selection at the polls, we must take immediate action to curb the intimidation of those unfortunate persons on relief when they approach the ballot box. There still remains sufficient time to take a definite step in the right direction. It is important that Senate Bill No. 1298 appear on the calendar immediately.

The Democratic party is in control of this house, and therefore in control of its Committee on Elections. I call upon the Democratic leadership to report out immediately Senate Bill No. 1298, or to stand convicted of planning to use the distribution of relief funds as a political club to intimidate the vote of persons on relief.

STATEMENT BY MR. O'KEEFE

Mr. O'KEEFE asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it is true that the gentleman from Dauphin did come to me on several occasions, and I told him the status of the House and the Senate bill, but had the gentleman come to me within the last two weeks and asked what had happened to his bill, I believe, then, this statement of this morning would have been uncalled for. Before adjourning last week, I called a meeting of the Committee on Elections purposely to discuss this bill. Unfortunately, the gentleman who was to report the bill out last evening was sick and was unable to report the bill out, but I wish to say, in answer to the gentleman from Dauphin, that the Committee did act favorably on his bill and that the committee cannot be accused of pickling it.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE TO MEET DURING SESSION

Mr. SCHROPE asked and obtained permission of the House for the Committee on Game to meet during the session.

COMMITTEE TO DRAFT FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE LEGISLATION

Mr. DENT, offered the following resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent to have it read for the information of the House.

The resolution was read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, June 18, 1935.

Whereas, This nation continues in the grip of the economic depression which has now lasted for a period of five years; and

Whereas, The various experiments which have been tried have not appreciably corrected conditions, and have seemingly overlooked a vital factor which adds to the depression, that is the ever increasing percentage of employables among our population; and

Whereas, This percentage of employables may be reduced only in one way, by withdrawing from industry those who have arrived at certain ages in order to open positions for the young people who are in need of employment; and

Whereas, It is apparent that the solution does not lie in providing insurance for the unemployed, but in providing financial assistance for those over certain ages, thus permitting this class to withdraw from industry; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall appoint a committee of three members of this House whose duty it shall be to study and draft legislation providing for financial assistance to those over fifty years of age who will withdraw from industry and in such study to take into consideration the provisions of House Bill No. 269, entitled "An act providing financial assistance for certain residents of this Commonwealth over fifty years of age, who are not gainfully employed and who do not have a certain income, establishing claims against the estates of such persons for assistance received, requiring a certain percentage of the assistance received to be expended monthly, creating and defining the powers of the citizens retirement board and defining the powers of the Department of Labor and Industry," and House Bill No. 270, entitled "An act imposing an income tax on residents of Pennsylvania, including fiduciaries, providing for disposition of proceeds of the tax for citizens' retirement, defining taxable income and requiring filing of returns thereof, providing for the withholding of the tax at source in certain cases, and imposing duties on withholding agents, providing methods and proceedings for determination and collection of the tax and imposition of liens therefor, providing for administration of the act by the Department of Revenue, authorizing that department to make rules, imposing penalties and making an appropriation for administrative costs."

Resolved, That said committee shall report to the next regular session of the House of Representatives.

The SPEAKER. The resolution will be filed with the Clerk under the rules.

Mr. DENT. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent for the immediate consideration of the resolution.

The SPEAKER. Are there objections?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I object.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears objection and consent is not granted.

MOTION TO SUSPEND RULE 84

Mr. DENT. Mr. Speaker, I move that Rule 84 be suspended for the specific purpose of consideration this resolution at this time.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. DENT. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this resolution merely calls for the appointment of a committee—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin will state his point of order.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is out of order when he begins to discuss what the resolution calls for.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is well taken. The resolution cannot be discussed at this time. The question before the House is the suspension of the rule.

Mr. DENT. Mr. Speaker, in order to bring home to the members the necessity for setting aside Rule 84, in order to have this resolution discussed and voted upon at this time, I believe it is necessary to bring to the House the contents of the resolution.

The SPEAKER. The resolution has been read for the information of the House.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. DENT. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. DENT. Mr. Speaker, preceding the vote on this motion to set aside the Rule, is it possible for a member to make a statement pertaining to the resolution, if given consent of the House to make a statement?

The SPEAKER. The House has not given its consent for discussion of the resolution. The gentleman, however, can state why he feels that the rule should be suspended.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I will withdraw the point of order with respect to the gentleman discussing the merits of the resolution if he so desires and the Chair so desires.

The SPEAKER. The only way that the resolution can be discussed is if the gentleman withdraws his objection to the immediate consideration of the resolution.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I will not do that.

STATEMENT BY MR. DENT

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I wish to first thank the gentleman from Philadelphia for withdrawing his objection.

This resolution is nothing more nor less than for the purpose of the appointment of a committee of three to study the contents of two bills which were introduced in the early part of this session. These bills pertain to the question of old age retirement or voluntary retirement on the part of the citizenship of Pennsylvania.

I am going to take a few minutes of your time to bring home a little argument that I feel is necessary, in order that you may realize how serious I deem this question.

In the days of the aboriginal tribes the question of old age was easily solved. When a man became too old to work or fight or a woman to old to gather food or bear children a war club swung in a well aimed circle descending on a white head would settle the problem. The scavengers did the rest. A tribe was faced with the necessity of feeding the children and the able bodied adults. It meant a survival of the fittest.

Since that long gone day, the war club has been relegated to museums and a new way of dealing with the superannuated is demanded. To watch them starve is unpleasant and against human nature. Chloroform has been suggested but this does not appeal to the public, especially the old people. Illogical as it may seem, many of the old wish to keep living.

What happens to a person refused employment because of age restrictions? He is relegated to the scrap heap of human misery by becoming an object of public charity.

The poor-house is the traditional answer. You will find one or more poor-houses in almost every county in the United States. Last official figures (1930) show 3,124 persons sheltered in poor-houses out of a probable list of 716,798 over the age of 50 yrs. Of course we have private charity homes, and homes which accomodate a few more thousand. Figures for 1934 show that no less than 15 percent of the entire relief load is made up of persons over the 50 year age limit. In view of the fact that most industries will not hire new help over the ages of 40 and 45 it would naturally leave the conclusion that this percentage of our working population will be permanently unemployed. Under protection of labor unions and the NRA, many persons over 45 have escaped the axe. Why even this relief set-up refuses employment to a person over the age of 45. Something must be done for this group of citizens. Any system set-up that does not carry contributions on the part of the employed will not stand because it is then a charity instead of a pension. This contributary system has proved successful in this State by the operations of the State employes retirement, the teachers fund and various police and firemen pension funds.

A survey of old age pensions show that 27 states and 2 territories have old age pension acts. There are 40 foreign countries with national laws pertaining to this vital question.

18 labor unions have old age pension funds out of which they paid $6,148,302 in 1932. Many of these organizations maintain homes as well as cash payment pensions.

In 1925 persons receiving pensions from contributory systems managed by the company employing them totalled 35,453. There were 245 firms with pension systems. In 1932 this number had mounted to 434 covering nearly 4,000,000 employes. Pension payments to 175,000 persons during 1931 amounted to approximately $85,000,000. Retirement ages range from a low of 50 years to a high of 70 years. Pension systems have a decided bearing on hiring ages. Where a maximum hiring age is in force the age limit is usually 45 and in some instances 40 and 35. The contributory system is by far the most successful as it really a cross between non-contributing pensions and life insurance. The prospective pensioner surrenders part of his pay to a fund drawing interest to which the employer and the government also contribute. The federal government has paid retirement pensions since 1920, this state has a retirement pension plan for its employes. Most states including Pennsylvania retire their school teachers out of funds partially made up by contributions from the taxpayers in one form or another. Policemen and firemen's pension systems are practically all of the contributory type and payments vary in various cities, for instance in Cleveland, Ohio payments range from $87.66 to $125.00 a month while in Pittsburgh they range from $50.00 to $75.00.

These facts show the necessity of a state-wide system. House Bills 269 and 270 are based on this need. There is no doubt that there should be a complete study made before any legislation is passed on this important subject. Our increasing numbers of unemployed youth, who upon finishing school find all employment agencies closed coupled with a natural shrinkage in employment due to improved machinery and mass production demand a study of this question. A feeling of human and natural interest in our aged demands this study.

Decency demands this study as asked for in this resolution, because of the fact that in many industries citizens have worked all their lives so as to buy a small home. Now, through, I think, no fault of their own, they are out of work, are faced with the danger, with the absolute fact that they will lose their home in the next few years, if they have not lost it already, due to the fact that under the present system practically no person over the age of fifty can now secure a job.

With the foregoing explanation, I ask that this committee of three men be appointed to make a study of this question and to submit a report to the next session of the Legislature, and the next session of the Legislature can study this same question and know what to do with it.

I, therefore, ask for the suspension of the rule and for your vote on this resolution.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I rise to support the motion of the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, to suspend the rule of the House and permit the immediate consideration of this resolution, and in support thereof I want to read to you a very short poem, which is the basis of my argument:

The pot was empty,
The cupboard was bare.
I said, Papa,
What's the matter here?
I'm waitin' on Roosevelt, son
Roosevelt, Roosevelt,
Waitin' on Roosevelt, son.

The rent was due,
And the lights was out.
I said, Tell me, Mama,
What's it all about?
We're waitin' on Roosevelt, son,
Roosevelt, Roosevelt,
Just waitin' on Roosevelt.

Sister got sick
And the doctor wouldn't come
Cause we couldn't pay him
The proper sum—
A-waitin' on Roosevelt,
Roosevelt, Roosevelt,
A-waitin' on Roosevelt.

Then one day
They put us out o' the house,
Ma and Pa was
Meek as a mouse
Still waitin' on Roosevelt,
Roosevelt, Roosevelt.

But when they felt those
Cold winds blow
And didn't have no
Place to go
Pa said, I'm tired
O' waitin' on Roosevelt,
Roosevelt, Roosevelt,
Damn tired o' waitin' on Roosevelt

I can't git a job
And I can't git no grub
Backbone and navel's
Doin' the belly-rub-
A-waitin' on Roosevelt,
Roosevelt, Roosevelt.

And a lot o' other folks
What's hungry and cold
Done stopped believin'
What they been told
By Roosevelt,
Roosevelt, Roosevelt.

Cause the pot's still empty,
And the cupboard's still bare,
And you can't build a bungalow
Out o' air-
Mr. Roosevelt, listen!
What's the matter here?

That poem was written by one of the greatest colored poets of the present day.

We should not continue waiting, we should support Mr. Dent and do something for ourselves.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The question was determined by a rising vote, eighty-eight members or less than a majority voting in the affirmative and ninety-nine in the negative, the question was determined in the negative and the motion was not agreed to.

MOTION TO EXPUNGE

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I don't know whether I am in order or not, but I simply rise to ask that the poem, which we have just heard read by the gentleman from Philadelphia be expunged from the record. I consider parts of it very indecent, and for that reason I ask that it be not incorporated in the Legislative Journal.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman make a motion to that effect?

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the poem just read by the gentleman from Philadelphia be expunged from the record.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the poem I just read, don't remember in what particular magazine it appeared, but it was one of the great national magazines that it spread broadcast over the United States.

I know of nothing in that poem that is disrespectful to anyone. I would not object for a moment if it came from the Democratic side against my side. To expunge this poem from the record is to show a spirit of unfairness. I am always ready to meet my opponents. I do not cry afterwards if I am defeated nor do I go around lauding my group should I be victorious.

Members of the House, stand up for fairness. To expunge that poem from the record will give it more publicity than if it be left in the Legislative Journal, which will go on somebody's shelf and never be read.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I ask your consideration of the motion from a parliamentary point of view. A motion to expunge from the record should be the most severe of all possible punishments. It is the very summit of disapproval. That being the case, it is clearly in defiance of parliamentary tradition to use what might be termed a punishment for murder and identify it with a punishment for petty larceny. If expunging from the record is to mean anything, it must be saved as the unusual weapon of disapproval in an unusual case. Now, there has been a tendency in the last weeks of this session, otherwise I would not take the time of this House to be unduly sensitive, if some member desires to censor some other member, to make a motion to expunge. If we were to give that tendency free range, we would permit every member of the House who wants to make a motion to expunge to pass as censor upon the utterances of this House and that is clearly unparliamentary, Mr. Speaker, to expunge from the record unless the offense has been a matter of supreme moment. I hope the members will not pass this motion to expunge.

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I have no objections to the poem, except in one verse. Now, if that verse is eliminated from the poem, I have no objection whatever to the poem. I do not want to interfere with free speech, however. I do not think that this Legislature should put anything of that kind in the record, that is my own judgment; I have not talked to any of the members around me.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman withdraw his motion to expunge?

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, if you will give me permission to eliminate one verse of the poem, I will withdraw my objection.

MOTION LAID ON TABLE

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the motion of the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Brown, be laid upon the table.

The motion was agreed to.

RESOLUTION

Mr. JOHN J. DOWNEY offered the following resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was twice read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, June 18, 1935.

Resolved, That House Resolution No. 103, Serial No. 130, Printer's No. 417, adopted March 27th, 1935, as amended by House Resolution No. 115, Serial No. 149, Printer's No. 476, adopted April 3rd, 1935, be amended so that paragraph number five shall read as follows:

Resolved, That the Speaker of the House of Representatives appoint 13 members of the House of Representatives to constitute a committee as non-political as possible, whose duty it shall be to investigate the cost of transportation from the anthracite producing regions of Pennsylvania to consumption points in maritime Canada and New England and the seaports of New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, and that if said committee find that high rates have materially reduced or will materially reduce the market for Pennsylvania anthracite coal in competition with coal produced in Great Britian or other foreign countries, or in competition with fuel oil selling at unreasonably low prices due to world wide over-production of cheap grades of crude oil, to endeavor to secure lower freight rates to the markets above mentioned by negotiation with carriers involved and if necessary by requesting the Interstate Commerce Commission to revise and reduce such transportation rates as are within their purisdiction, and further to inquire into and investigate such matters, practices and discriminations, aside from the cost of transportation, as are believed by said committee to have adversely affected the present market for anthracite coal, or which said committee believes will likely adversely affect its future market; and be it further

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 3026, as follows:

An Act authorizing the Commonwealth to negotiate temporary emergency loans to defray the current and/or other expenses of the State government during the two fiscal years beginning the first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-five evidenced by tax anticipation notes secured by and payable from currrent revenues levied assessed collectible and/or accruing during such two fiscal years defining the powers and duties of the State Treasurer in relation thereto providing for the payment of interest on and the repayment of such loans and making an appropriation

Whereas the present Session of the General Assembly has provided new revenues of the Commonwealth amounting to one hundred thirty millions dollars ($130,000,000) in addition to ther revenue for general purposes and

Whereas such revenues in the amount of sixty million dollars ($60,000,000) are specifically appropriated and set aside during the first fiscal year of the biennial fiscal period beginning the first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-five for unemployment relief and the remainder of such new revenues amounting to seventy million dollars ($70,000,000) though due will not be available to defray the current expenses of the State government when the same is actually necessary for that purpose or until the second fiscal year of such period and

Whereas the revenues though levied and assessed will not be available for the current expenses of the State government until the end of the first fiscal year of the aforesaid biennium and the collectible revenues will not be sufficient to defray the current expenses of the State government during such fiscal year and

Whereas the total revenues (including the aforesaid remainder of new revenues amounting to $70,000,000) which will be available for current and other expenses of the State government and which will accrue and will be paid into the General Fund of the State Treasury during both fiscal years of the said period will be sufficient to meet such current and other expenses during such period and

Whereas in order that the obligations of the Commonwealth for current and other expenses may be met promptly and in order that the State government might not fail through lack of funds it is necessary temporarily to obtain funds to defray the current and other expenses of the State government during the fiscal period aforesaid until the revenues that will subsequently accrue to the State Treasury during the aforesaid fiscal period are available for this purpose

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the Governor the Auditor General and the State Treasurer on behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania are hereby authorized and directed during the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred thirty-five from time to time to borrow on the credit of the current revenues of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania such sum or sums of money not exceeding in the aggregate the sum of fifty million dollars ($50,000,000) as may be necessary to defray the current and other expenses of the State government during such fiscal years

Section 2 (a) Such loans shall be evidenced by notes of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania maturing not later than the thirty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven Such notes are hereby declared to be tax anticipation notes Such notes or renewals thereof shall be issued from time to time for such total amounts in such sums and subject to such terms and conditions rates of interest not in excess of four and one-half per centum (4½%) per annum and time of payment of interest as the Governor Auditor General and State Treasurer shall determine and direct

(b) All notes issued under the authority of this act shall bear the signatures of the Governor the Auditor General and the State Treasurer and a facsimile of the great seal of the Commonwealth

(c) The current revenues of the biennial fiscal period beginning the first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-five are pledged for the payment of principal and interest of such notes which shall be payable in lawful money of the United States All notes issued under the provisions of this act shall be exempt from taxation for State and local purposes

Section 3 The proceeds derived from the negotiation of loans under the provisions of this act shall be paid into the General Fund of the State Treasury and shall be used for the payment of appropriations made from such fund to defray the current and other expenses of the State government for the biennium beginning June first one thousand nine hundred thirty-five

BILL ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2073 (Senate Bill No. 139), entitled:

An Act to amend sections four and seventeen of the act approved the twenty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws one hundred forty-nine) entitled "An act imposing a State tax payable by those herein defined as distributors on liquid fuels used or sold and delivered within the Commonwealth which are ordinarily practically and commercially usable in internal combustion engines for the generation of power providing for the collection and lien of tax and the distribution and use of the proceeds thereof requiring such distributors to secure permits to file corporate surety bonds and reports and to retain certain records imposing duties on retail dealers common carriers county commissioners and such distributors providing for rewards imposing certain costs on counties conferring powers and imposing duties on certain State officers and departments providing for refunds imposing penalties and making an appropriation" by providing for refunds of taxes paid on liquid fuels consumed on a farm in agricultural pursuits and providing penalties and providing for the suspension of this act under certain conditions

The first section was read as follows.

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That sections four and seventeen of the act approved the twenty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws one hundred forty-nine) entitled "An act imposing a State tax payable by those herein defined as distributors on liquid fuels used or sold and delivered within the Commonwealth which are ordinarily practically and commercially usable in internal combustion engines for the generation of power providing for the collection and lien of the tax and the distribution and use of the proceeds thereof requiring such distributors to secure permits to file corporate surety bonds and reports and to retain certain records imposing duties on retail dealers common carriers county commissioners and such distributors providing for rewards imposing certain costs on counties conferring powers and imposing duties on certain State officers and departments providing for refunds imposing penalties and making an appropriation" are hereby amended to read as follows

Section 4 Imposition of Tax Exemptions and Deductions A State tax of three cents a gallon or fractional part thereof is hereby imposed and assessed upon all liquid fuels used or sold and delivered by distributors within this Commonwealth excepting liquid fuels delivered to the United States government on presentation of a duly authorized United States government exemption certificate or other evidence satisfactory to the department and such liquid fuels used or sold and delivered as are not within the taxing power of this Commonwealth under the Commerce Clause of the Constitution of the United States Provided That the tax herein imposed and assessed shall be collected by and paid to the Commonwealth but once in respect to any liquid fuels

[Distributors shall be liable to the Commonwealth as taxpayers for the payment of the tax imposed by this act]

The tax imposed by this section shall be payable by the distributor but shall be borne by the last purchaser and the payment by the distributor shall be deemed to have been for the account of such purchaser However the intent of this act is to place the ultimate burden resulting from such tax on all persons using liquid fuels except in agricultural pursuits on a farm and to that end provisions for refunds are made hereinafter where the tax has been paid by a distributor on liquid fuels used on a farm in agricultural pursuits

The tax shall be payable upon liquid fuels sold and delivered to or used by the Commonwealth and every political subdivision thereof

Each distributor who shall promptly pay on or before the last day of a particular month the tax due for the preceding month shall be allowed in consideration of leakage spillage shrinkage evaporation and any expense to which he may be put in carrying out the provisions of this act a discount of two per centum on the aggregate amount of tax which is payable by the distributor for such preceding month The discount may be deducted by the distributor from the amount of tax payable for such month

Section 17 Refunds The Board of Finance and Revenue may refund to distributors taxes penalties and interest paid by them on liquid fuels delivered to the United States government or paid as the result of an error of law or of fact or of both law and fact Claims for [refund] such refunds shall be made under the procedure prescribed by The Fiscal Code

Any person who shall buy liquid fuels on which the tax imposed by this act shall have been paid and shall consumed the same actually on a farm in agricultural pursuits and not in any vehicle ordinarily traveling the highways shall be entitled to a refund of the amount of such tax All such claims for refund shall be made by affidavit in such form and containing such information and be presented within such time as the Board of Finance and Revenue by rules and regulations shall prescribe and the claimant shall satisfy the board that he has borne the tax and that the liquid fuels have been consumed by him in a manner actually on a farm in agricultural pursuits The Board may require such further information or proof as it shall deem necessary The action of the Board on Finance and Revenue in granting or refusing a refund shall be final Any person making any false or fraudulent affidavit for the purpose of a refund of the tax shall be guilty of perjury

All refunds of moneys allowed hereunder shall be paid from the Motor License Fund and the Liquid Fuels Tax Fund in amounts equal to the original distribution and payment of such moneys into said funds

As much of the moneys from time to time in the Motor License Fund and the Liquid Fuels Tax Fund as may be necessary is hereby appropriated to the Board of Finance and Revenue for the purpose of making refunds as herein authorized Estimates of the amounts to be expended from these funds for refunds from time to time by the board shall be submitted to the Governor for his approval or disapproval as in the case of other appropriations to administrative departments boards and commissions and it shall be unlawful for the Auditor General to honor any requisition of the Board of Finance and Revenue for the expenditure of moneys hereunder in excess of the estimates approved by the Governor

On the question,
Will the House agree to the section?

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. FURMAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Highways for the purpose of further study and amendment.

On the question.
Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. HABBYSHAW. Mr. Speaker and Members of the House of Representatives, the bill before you is: The Rice-Zeisenheim bill which exempts farmers from tax on gasoline used for domestic and agricultural purposes on the farm.

During the early part of the session I had introduced in this House a bill which was the same as the one before you at this time, but for some reason was unable to move the bill out of committee. A few weeks' ago I offered an amendment to the Stewart one cent additional gas tax to relieve the farmers of all taxes on gasoline used for agricultural and domestic farm purposes. My amendments were voted down by the Democratic members of this House. Last week, I, again, on the floor of this House, reminded the members concerning this bill in Ways and Means Committee, after which the committee met and reported the bill out as committed.

A motion to recommit would simply delay the passage of this bill and I appeal to the Members—and, especially, appeal to the rural members of this House to support this bill and give the farmers a little break on the taxes which they are paying without any returns.

We have some farmers in the state who use gasoline to operate different kinds of machinery, who never use the Highways, and yet today they are called upon to help pay these taxes.

Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, I have been much interested in this piece of legislation and I ask for a roll-call.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. HABBYSHAW and Mr. TAHL.

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

So the question was determined in the affirmative and the motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2991 (Senate Bill No. 562), entitled:

An Act to amend the title and the act approved the seventh day of April one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws twenty-six) entitled "An act empowering counties cities boroughs towns and townships to borrow money from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to finance certain projects and prescribing the manner of such borrowing" extending the provisions of said act to include borrowings from the Public Works Administration and other Federal agencies

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

BILLS ON SECOND READING

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 2922, Senate Bill No. 1384, Printer's No. 476, on page 9 of today's calendar, bills on second reading postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. SPROUL and,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House resumed the consideration on second reading of House Bill No. 2922 (Senate Bill No. 1384), entitled:

An Act to amend section twelve hundred and five of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred nine) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" as amended further regulating the compensation of and contracts with teachers

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE TO MEET DURING SESSION

Mr. RUTH asked and obtained permission of the House for the Committee on Ways and Means to meet during the session of the House.

APPROPRIATION BILLS ON FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1670 (Senate Bill No. 535), as follows:

An Act making appropriations to The Glen Mills Schools situate in Delaware County Pennsylvania

Sections 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the sum of three hundred and one thousand dollars ($301,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated to The Glen Mills Schools situate in Delaware County Pennsylvania for the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five for the purpose of maintenance

Section 2 In addition to the appropriation made by section one of this act the sum of one hundred fifteen thousand four hundred seventy-seven dollars and ninety-four cents ($115,477.94) is hereby specifically appropriated to The Glen Mills Schools situated in Delaware County Pennsylvania for the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred thirty-five for the payment of obligations incurred for the maintenance of such schools during the two fiscal years ending May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred thirty-five and which were not paid out of the maintenance appropriation made to such schools by the General Assembly at its regular session of one thousand nine hundred thirty-three because of insufficient revenues in the General Fund

Any law to the contrary notwithstanding amounts payable to The Glen Mills Schools situated in Delaware County Pennsylvania out of this appropriation shall be paid as promptly after the effective date of this act as the revenues of the General Fund will permit and for this purpose payments from this appropriation shall take precedence over payments from the appropriation made by section one of this act

Section 3 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment and shall be retroactive to June first one thousand nine hundred thirty-five

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 2089 (Senate Bill No. 754), as follows:

An act making appropriations to the Trustees of Temple University at Philadelphia Pennsylvania

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the sum of seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated to the Trustees of Temple University at Philadelphia for the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five for the general maintenance of the University and the purchase of such apparatus and equipment as the Trustees may deem necessary for the best interests of the University

Section 2 In addition to the appropriation made by section one of this act the sum of two hundred ninety-seven thousand dollars ($297,000) is hereby appropriated to the trustees of Temple University at Philadelphia Pennsylvania for the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred thirty-five for the payment of obligations incurred by the trustees for the general maintenance of and the purchase of apparatus and equipment for such University during the two fiscal years ending May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred thirty-five and which were not paid out of the appropriation for such purposes made to such trustees by the General Assembly at its regular session of one thousand nine hundred thirty-three because of insufficient revenues in the General Fund

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I fear I may commit a traditional sin, but I hope not an unpardonable sin for rising on the floor of this House to oppose this appropriation bill. For a number of years such a move has been one that might be considered as treading upon the toes of certain people. I might repeat that such a move in times past might have been considered as treading upon holy ground, likely to call down upon the head of one who made such a move the wrath of the Gods.

Members of the House we have before us just at this time today and yesterday, a stupendous problem of distributing the money of this great Commonwealth, not our money but the money that belongs to the taxpayers, to all the various parts of the state to its institutions so that it may benefit not a few, but the great masses of our State. I believe every member of this House voted freely and willingly when we made appropriations to the aged, when we increased that appropriation from twenty million to forty million, that we might relieve suffering humanity. We voted for mothers pensions; we are trying to take care of the blind; we are doing all we can to relieve suffering humanity, but today we are asked to appropriate one million two hundred ninety-seven thousand dollars to one of our higher institutions of learning

I submit to you, members of this House, that we have before us some tasks that precede others, that should come before them, and the tasks that I have mentioned taking care of the aged, the blind, the infirm and the suffering are some of the primary tasks that are before us. But when you get down to this matter, it would seem to me that it is our prime duty, our first duty, to take care of the boys and girls in the lower grades and in the high schools. We have come from our districts, from the various parts of this great Commonwealth. When we sought this office, we said to our taxpayers at home "We are going to bring back relief to real estate so that the farms and the homes will no longer be sold from you in order to maintain our institutions."

But today we are attempting to appropriate to a higher institution of learning this vast sum of money, and we are leaving our high schools in destitute circumstances.

Just last week there was considered before the Educational Committee House Bill 2166, which would continue a reduction of ten percent to our teachers, and conditions are getting very hard on the teachers of the fourth class districts. Secretaries from three of the municipalities of this Commonwealth plead with the committee that we would enact a law and let this continue for another two years. There was the decision for this Committee to make. The teachers that were enduring this cut and owners of homes who were about to lose their homes..

The statement was made by some of these secretaries that they could not collect over sixty-five percent of their tax duplicates without the use of the sheriff,—the use of the sheriff in the selling of the homes.

We are not opposed to higher education. We would gladly give it if we had it. But we haven't got it. We are not in position to take from the funds that were raised for the primary purpose of educating the boys and girls in the elementary grades and the high school, and give it to those higher up.

I submit to you, ladies and gentlemen of this House, if that statement is not correct. We have institutions in this state that are contributing to our education in this state, that are producing teachers of a high grade and a high character, sending them out and giving their services to us, and these colleges are getting nothing from our appropriations.

Now, I don't come before you today and ask you to vote either for or against this bill, but I come to you with my protest and ask you to give it particular consideration.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would not rise at this time except that the gentleman from Beaver has fallen into an error that I feel that we should not allow to rest in the minds of the members of the House. When he talks of the teachers of the public schools and of the appropriations that should be made to them, I want to say that under the general appropriation bill as it left this House, it carried fifty-eight million dollars which is the entire amount that will be needed under the Edmunds Act in the next two years.

The necessity for granting permission to the school districts to cut teachers' salaries is not because the state is not making its full contribution to the public schools as required under the Edmunds Act, but is occasioned by the fact, as stated in many districts they are unable to collect their tax duplicates, and it will be necessary for them to either close their schools or to raise the taxes upon the properties of those who can pay the taxes in order that they can increase the amount of the local yield.

The failure is not on the part of the State; the failure is on the part of the local tax payers and upon that part of the burden which the local taxpayer pays towards the support and maintenance of the public schools.

And then let me say one other word while we are speaking about the institutions of higher learning, and while we may think of the grade schools, because I believe they are not only necessary for higher education, but they are great police factors in times like this, but remember the younger men and younger women who are today graduating from our institutions who have no opportunity of getting into business, want to secure an education and want to prepare themselves for that time when they can enter business. They will have to meet stiff competition and in meeting that stiff competition they want to be prepared as best they can. It is essential that we keep our higher institutions of learning open, that we can give that opportunity to these young men and women to make that preparation. Our Federal government has recognized that in its great program of expenditure of money and is aiding thousands of students throughout the United Staes in our higher institutions of learning.

These institutions too are having great problems to carry on. Remember there are thousands of professors whose salaries have been cut, who are working at a wage that it seems almost impossible for them to live in the circumstances in which we expect them to live, and if these institutions do not receive appropriations, if they do not receive assistance from the state government there may be thousands of men and women who have a right to expect to earn their living in these institutions who have given up their lives and many years of service in the past to the public and to the children of our state, and who have a right also to expect something from the Commonwealth.

Mr. CANNON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I rise to oppose this appropriation bill. Knowing that I came here in behalf of humanity, those in distress, those unemployed, those who sought work and who were unable to obtain it through no fault of their own, those deserving old age assistance, those deserving pensions for the blind, which measures we have already passed in this session. I rise to oppose this bill for this reason, that we stand here making appropriations, seeing what was going over last night when amendments were made to certain bills—I rise to oppose this appropriation bill, gentlemen for the simple reason that on Wednesday, December 12, 1934, there was published in one of the Philadelphia newspapers an article and I am only going to quote a short part of that article: "Through the aid of a donation of sixty-six thousand dollars from the Welfare Federation to it—" that is this hospital to which I am referring,—"an advance of one hundred four thousand dollars from the Athletic Association, Temple University last year made a profit of twenty-one thousand dollars according to its financial report."

The reason I oppose this, members of the House, is that if we are charitably inclined, charity in my estimation is a virtue and should never be a racket.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, in view of the apparent misinformation which has been given to the membership of this House, I feel that it is my duty to call certain salient facts to the attention of the members.

In the first place, questions have been raised that the Commonwealth has been derelict in its duty as far as primary and secondary education is concerned. The members of this House already know that the appropriation for education under the Edmunds Act to the local school system has been increased by this membership from fifty-three million to fifty-eight million dollars. This House has already passed a five million dollar bill for the aid of distressed school districts. This House has already acted on appropriations for State Teachers' College, which is exactly the same as that appropriation passed in the session of 1933 and '34.

In addition thereto there is buried in the general appropriation bill approximately two and one-half million dollars as a subsidy to the school system for the teaching of the children that are blind or deaf and unable to attend the regular school functions.

Also we have various appropriations to welfare institutions, to those who are mentally afflicted and who cannot take their part in the educational processes of this Commonwealth.

Now, we are confronted with the problem of making appropriations to the higher institutions of learning. This is not a new venture on the part of this Commonwealth; this is not a new venture on the part of any Commonwealth. Reference to the budget on page thirty-four will show you that to the institutions of higher learning, including our own State College, the Commonwealth appropriations are six million eight hundred twenty-eight thousand dollars as carried in the budget. That figure is decidedly less than the same amount of appropriations made by other Commonwealths in the United States. The large, liberal, mid-western Universities have been appropriated funds greatly in excess of the six million eight hundred twenty-eight thousand dollars which is carried in this budget.

In addition thereto, those state universities in the mid-west and in the west maintain their professional schools and a very important part of the education of the citizens of the Commonwealth is the necessity for training men and women who are competent to take care of our professions, with particular reference to the doctors, trained dentists, trained lawyers, and for the protection of the people of the Commonwealth that come from the higher institutions of learning.

Some objection possibly might be made to the fact that our own university, State College, has a grant of three million four hundred thousand dollars and the balance goes to institutions that are not owned entirely by the State. Let me call this to your attention, that with the situation of State College in the center of the State, in a rural agricultural district, the facilities for the laboratory clinic and the other facilities that are required in the training of professional men are not available and by necessity we must establish some means for training that type of student in the large centers of population. Therefore, you will see that the monies that are being appropriated to the higher institutions of learning are expended in the large centers of population.

In addition, I wish to call attention to the fact that these higher institutions of learning are almost universally heavily endowed, and that the cost of the education of a medical student amounts to approximately two thousand dollars a year for an individual who goes through with a medical course. That deficiency between the two thousand dollars and the four or five hundred dollars which the student is prepared to pay must be made up in one of two methods, either through the endowment that the institution has, or from the contributions that the state makes for that purpose, and I submit that appropriations for these higher institutions of learning, and you will see by consulting your budget on page twenty-four, are simply to maintain those professional schools and are directed to those institutions which are maintaining higher education of individuals, the like of which is not afforded by any other institution in the state.

Mr. SHEPARD. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this appropriation bill for this additional reason; the cost of higher education is going up everyday, and it is getting to the place where it is almost impossible for a person of moderate means to get a higher education.

Temple University is one of the institutions in this state that makes it possible for young men and women of moderate income who come from families who are not well off to get an education. One of the finest safeguards for democracy is education, and trained leadership, and I rise in support of this appropriation bill for Temple University, to leave the door of opportunity open for young men and women who do not come from wealthy families, nevertheless through Temple University they will have an opportunity to partake of higher education and aid in building up strong democratic leadership for this Commonwealth.

I ask the members of this House to support this, one of the finest institutions of higher learning, one of the greatest institutions of higher learning that Pennsylvania has ever had.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 2501, as follows:

An Act providing for the utilization of labor of adult men who are employed and receiving relief through the State Emergency Relief Board in the construction and maintenance of airports and hangars for Boroughs Cities and Counties in which they reside

Whereas Many unemployed persons receiving public relief are unable to secure any employment and

Whereas It is the duty of the Commonwealth to provide shelter for unemployed persons and moneys are appropriated to the State Emergency Relief Board for such purposes and

Whereas The Commonwealth cannot indefinitely continue to provide relief for unemployed persons without some reimbursement in the form of constructive improvement of the Commonwealth for the benefit of its taxpaying citizens and creating some new business or occupations which can when established furnish work in ways not now available and

Whereas The present policy of administering relief produces nothing which will tend to end the necessity for relief by making new fields of employment therefor

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the county commissioners of any county the mayor of any city or the burgess of any borough shall have authority to employ men eighteen years of age or older residing in their county city or borough who are receiving public relief for periods up to thirty hours per week and not over six hours per day upon the construction extension improvement or maintenance of airports and hangars thereon belonging to or leased by said county city or borough

They shall provide transportation for said workers so employed to and from work where the distance is over one mile from the said workers residence They shall carry workmen's compensation insurance on said workers They shall pay said workers so employed at the end of each period of thirty hours such wages as said county city or borough can reasonably afford but not less than the sum of twenty cents per hour in cash Said compensation shall be in addition to any relief now received and shall not be considered as employment which will deprive the worker so occupied and receiving such compensation of the right to continue to receive unemployment relief in the same manner and to the same extent as though he were wholly unemployed Provided however that any such person offered such employment and who shall refuse to accept such employment or to work thereon willingly when physically able to do so and without having any other remunerative work available shall be reported by said commissioner mayor or burgess to the State Emergency Relief Board who shall upon being satisfied of such refusal having been made without good cause deprive such individual refusing such work of all further public relief This refusal however shall not deprive the wife and children of relief which however must thereafter be administered solely to and through the wife or mother

Section 2 The State Emergency Relief Board shall adopt such rules and regulations as may be deemed necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this Act and prevent benefits of public relief going to individuals refusing employment offered upon projects conducted under this Act

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I cannot let this opportunity go by without calling your attention to this bill as amended.

It was amended last night so as to increase the wages paid under it from the munificent sum of ten cents to twenty cents per hour. I wish to congratulate the sponsor upon the increase. If it were doubled again it might give somewhere near the prevailing rate of wages for laborers.

I certainly do not think that this House wants to go on record in favor of a measure which will compel those persons who are on relief to work for wages at twenty cents an hour. I realize that the bill says "not less than twenty cents," but it also says "for such wages that the said county, city or borough can reasonably afford." and I am afraid that some of our municipalities cannot reasonably afford to pay any wages at all, and if you are going to leave it to be determined upon that basis, they will very likely take the minimum.

Then going over to page 3, anyone who refuses to work for these munificent wages of twenty cents shall be denied all further public relief. It has not even any qualification in case any person may later return and offer to go to work. Apparently they will be taken off relief permanently.

Furthermore the bill provides that you shall continue to get relief when you are working, which I believe is contrary to the Federal regulations, to the Federal requirements on relief, and that part of the bill probably could not be enforced at least so far as payments from Federal funds are concerned.

I suppose that the state funds could be used for that purpose. but he bill in he form that it is, in my opinion will establish in Pennsylvasia a modified form of peonage and I don't believe that we want any such thing.

I am in favor of work relief at the prevailing rate of wages, and that anyone not willing to work under such conditions should be denied relief. I don't want anyone to get up and say that I have tried to argue for the right to remain on relief and refusing to work when they are able to do so, but I do say that we don't want to set up any such form of peonage in Pennsylvania as to require anyone in Pennsylvania to work for twenty cents an hour even with the relief payment added to it. It will drive down the standards of the workers of this Commonwealth and I ask you to vote "no."

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker, I regret very much the necessity of saying anything whatever on this bill, because of the fact that the wording of the bill is very very clear.

Mr. Speaker, three or four weeks ago, I called the attention of the House to this bill and requested and invited amendments from any and all sources, including by personal invitation the gentleman who has just spoken, asking that any constructive amendments should be given to me or offered on the floor of the House. In spite of the fact that the wording of his bill at that time contained a maximum wage and a minimum wage which was no satisfactory to me, as a sponsor, nevertheless nobody offered any suggestions at all. Accordingly at the last possible hour for anybody to offer amendments I doubled the minimum wage scale, and I call to the attention of the House that that is a cash payment in addition to any amounts received from relief. I also call the attention of the House to the fact that this labor can only be used on municipal airports. The airports must be owned or controlled by the municipality in which the person working resides. It is entirely optional with each community whether they use the authority granted by this bill or not. If there is serious objection in any community, I have no doubt that the local authorities may not desire to use the authority hereby granted. In addition to that, the wage scale, being for unskilled labor, is by the bill left entirely to the local authorities.

There is nothing mandatory in this bill requiring that they either use the bill at all or that they pay any particular scale of wages, except that they cannot pay any less than six dollars a week in cash, in addition to relief.

I call your attention to the further fact that even though an able-bodied person refuses to work and is taken off relief, his family cannot be taken off, regardless of what he may or may not do.

This bill necessarily must be limited in scope, because no community will want a whole host of airports.

I call attention also to the fact that probably many of you know that Pennsylvania is probably the most dangerous state in the United States for air travel. It is commonly so admitted. And why? Because we have no places in our large forest and mountainous areas where they can safely land when they get into trouble.

I have been forced down over forests a number of times and a number of my friends have been killed. I suggest to you that the scope of this bill is limited and that it is not such that it can do any great harm.

I call attention further to the fact that those persons who are opposed to this bill have offered no amendments. I suggest that you pass this bill and offer any suggestions for changes or amendments to the Senators from your districts.

I ask your support for it.

APPROPRIATION BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1672 (Senate Bill No. 537), as follows:

An Act making an appropriation to the Elwyn Training School at Elwyn in the County of Delaware Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That an appropriation be made to the Elwyn Training School of Elwyn in the County of Delaware and Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the maintenance of wards of the State at three hundred and fifty dollars per capita per annum and that the sum of three hundred and seventy-five thousand two hundred dollars ($375,200) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated to the said institution for the purpose stated to cover the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five

Section 2 In addition to the appropriation made by section one of this act the sum of one hundred thirty-six thousand seven hundred twenty four dollars and two cents ($136.724.02) is hereby appropriated Elwyn Training School at Elwyn in the County of Delaware for two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred thirty-five for the payment of obligations incurred for the maintenance of such school during the two fiscal years ending May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred thirty-five and which were not paid out of the maintenance appropriation made to such school by the General Assembly at its regular session of one thousand nine hundred thirty-three because of insufficient revenues in the General Fund

Any law to the contrary notwithstanding amounts payable to Elwyn Training School out of this appropriation shall be paid as promptly after the effective date of this act as the revenues of the General Fund will permit and for this purpose payments from this appropriation shall take precedence over payments from the appropriation made by section one of this act

Section 3 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment and shall be retroactive to June first one thousand nine hundred thirty-five

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

RESOLUTION INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. DENT, RESOLUTION No. 176.

In the House of Representatives, June 18, 1935.

Whereas, This nation continues in the grip of the economic depression which has now lasted for a period of five years; and

Whereas, The various experiments which have been tried have not appreciably corrected conditions, and have seemingly overlooked a vital factor which adds to the depression, that is the ever increasing percentage of employables among our population; and

Whereas, This percentage of employables may be reduced only in one way, by withdrawing from industry those who have arrived at certain ages in order to open positions for the young people who are in need of employment; and

Whereas, It is apparent that the solution does not lie in providing insurance for the unemployed, but in providing financial assistance for those over certain ages, thus permitting this class to withdraw from industry; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall appoint a committee of three members of this House whose duty it shall be to study and draft legislation providing for financial assistance to those over fifty years of age who will withdraw from industry and in such study to take into consideration the provisions of House Bill No. 269, entitled "An act providing financial assistance for certain residents of this Commonwealth over fifty years of age, who are not gainfully employed and who do not have a certain income, establishing claims against the estates of such persons for assistance received, requiring a certain percentage of the assistance received to be expended monthly, creating and defining the powers of the citizens retirement board and defining the powers of the Department of Labor and Industry," and House Bill No. 270, entitled "An act imposing an income tax on residents of Pennsylvania, including fiduciaries, providing for disposition of proceeds of the tax for citizens' retirement, defining taxable income and requiring filing of returns thereof, providing for the withholding of the tax at source in certain cases, and imposing duties on withholding agents, providing methods and proceedings for determination and collection of the tax and imposition of liens therefor, providing for administration of the act by the Department of Revenue, authorizing that department to make rules, imposing penalties and making an appropriation for administrative costs."

Resolved, That said committee shall report to the next regular session of the House of Representatives.

Referred to the Committee on Labor.

RESOLUTION

Mr. HINDMAN offered the following resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was twice read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, June 17, 1935.

Resolved, That paragraph 5 of Resolution Serial No. 95, Printer's No. 311, be amended to read as follows: "Resolved, That the said committee shall make a report to the House of Representatives [during this] at the next session as early as possible.

BILL ON SECOND READING

Mr. GREENSTEIN asked and obtained unanimous consent to call up out of order House Bill No. 2902, Senate Bill No. 1128, Printer's No. 715, on page 8 of today's calendar, bill on second reading which was passed over.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2902 (Senate Bill No. 1128), entitled:

An Act to protect the obligors or guarantors of bonds and mortgages and others indirectly liable for the payment thereof and owners of property affected thereby by restricting the right to proceed against certain property and persons and limiting the amount of deficiency judgments

The first to the sixth sections, inclusive, were separately read and agreed to as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That in all cases where a bond and mortgage or any other obligation securing or guaranteeing the payment thereof is or has been given for the same debt the real property bound by such bond and mortgage shall first be proceeded against and sold on execution and the amount of the deficiency judgment ascertained as hereinafter provided before any other property real or personal of the mortgage debtor may be attached levied on or sold for the debt secured by such bond and mortgage and before any other person bound by any obligation securing or guaranteeing the payment of said mortgage debt may be proceeded against or any property real or personal of any such other person may be attached levied on or sold for the debt secured by such bond and mortgage

Section 2 Whenever any real property is sold on or before June thirtieth one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven on any execution on the foreclosure of any mortgage or on a judgment entered on any obligations secured by mortgage and the sum for which such property was sold is not sufficient to satisfy the debt interest and costs including taxes the plaintiff or use plaintiff shall within six months after such sale petition the Court out of which such execution issued to fix the fair value of the property sold at the time of such sale

Section 3 The petition shall set forth

(a) The location by address or description of the real estate sold the name or names of the mortgagors and all other persons known to petitioner to be or who may be directly or indirectly liable to petitioner or any other person for the payment of said mortgage debt

(b) The price for which said property was sold at Sheriff's sale

(c) The cost of the proceedings under which the property was sold

(d) The amount of the judgment and the accrued and unpaid taxes water rents and other State and Municipal liens and interest and penalties thereon and other prior mortgage or judgment liens at the time of the said sale

(e) A statement of the fair value of said property at the time of said sale and shall name as respondents the mortgagors and all other persons known to petitioner to be or who may be directly or indirectly liable to petitioner or any other person for the payment of said mortgage debt or any obligation securing or guaranteeing such mortgage debt

Section 4 The Court shall thereupon fix a date for hearing on said petition not less than fifteen days after the filing thereof and said petition shall be served upon each and all of the persons named therein as respondents at least ten days prior to the date fixed for hearing At any time prior to the hearing any respondent or other person in interest may appear and answer setting up in his answer his interest in the proceedings and answering the averments of the petition Any party in interest may prior to the time of the hearing demand in writing a jury trial on any material issue or issues of fact raised by the pleadings whereupon the said issue or issues shall be determined by a jury trial as in other cases

Section 5 Said petition may be served by the Sheriff of the County or by the Sheriff of any other county specially deputized for that purpose upon the respondents named therein

(a) By handing an exact copy thereof to each of them personally or

JOINT COMMITTEE TO STUDY RELIEF AGENCIES

Mr. SPROUL offered the following resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was twice read, considered and adopted.

In the House of Representatives, June 18th, 1935.

The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania has during the past few years, to an ever increasing extent, recognized its obligation to the weak and the unfortunate, in the form of appropriations of vast sums of money.

These moneys are distributed, and the various systems of aid and relief are administered, by numerous separate, and sometimes wholly unrelated, agencies, resulting in an unncessarily heavy overhead expense, and at times in overlapping and duplication of efforts. In addition, local political subdivisions have from earliest times, administered local poor relief, and, more recently, mothers' assistance, therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That a committee be created to consist of nine members, three of whom shall be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, three by the President pro tempore of the Senate, and three by the Governor. The committee shall organize on the call of the Governor, and shall select a chairman and a secretary from among its number. The duties of the committee shall be to make a study of the various administrative systems for the distribution of public funds for unemployment relief, poor relief, mothers' assistance, old age assistance and assistance to the blind, with a view to (1) correlate the efforts of the various existing agencies, (2) prevent duplication of effort, and (3) consider, as bearing upon public aid, the efforts of private agencies.

Resolved, That the committee shall make a report to the next general session of the Legislature. Such report shall include the recommendations of the committee, together with drafts of such legislation as the committee shall deem beneficial.

Resolved, That the committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person to appear before them and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the force and effect of subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of said committee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the committee. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said committee or to produce any books, papers, records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 814, entitled:

An Act to amend section one hundred and one of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws three hundred fifty-nine) entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" as amended transferring the skunk or polecat from the fur-bearing animal class to the vermin class.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SURFACE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, when I first came here and saw the immense array of gigantic legal talent and heard the addresses of these legal members, I felt like a pigmy in a forest of giants, but when I later found out that their knowledge was confined to their limited sphere as I was confined to my own and that they knew no more of mine than I did of theirs, and that while they had been studying legal subjects, I had been studying the phenonmena of nature, I felt a little more at home. Then, when I was called upon to defend the eel and the eel bill and made a little address on the subject of eels, some members possibly thought, "My, what a lot Surface knows about eels. He must have been studying them all his life." Well, perhaps that is a misapprehension too. For many years I was economic zoologist in the Department of Agriculture and at that time prepared more literature upon the habits of animals and upon the flora of this state than any other person has ever published and some of the knowledge that I prepared for the public at that time still remains with me.

I want to say, in the first place, that I fear we have been given to a great deal of frivolous legislation, and I feel that perhaps we are living in the age of the comic strip. I wonder how many persons, if we had an honest confession about it, would know more about the fate of Orphan Annie than they would about the editorials appearing in the paper? Nevertheless it is well to stop for a while and learn about some of the things other than those which we are studying. I think that we are in need of a lesson in economic zoology and I shall deliver the same, keeping in mind the injunction of our very capable Speaker that we shall be brief. In five minutes I can give you two hundred dollars worth, or in ten minutes twice that, according to the estimate of forty dllars a minute. When you feel you have got your money's worth, you can tell me by jingling your ink wells or kicking your spitoons, and I shall feel no offense. I shall take it as a signal that you have got your money's worth, but remember "small jugs are soon filled."

In this region, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, there are several of God's natural made creatures living around us of which we know almost nothing. In this group are the bats. I saw a bat in the room here the other night, and a number of persons were trying to knock down the flying creature. Some people think that if a bat gets in their hair, it will have ruinous results and others think that bats carry bed bugs.

The bat, the skunk, the mole, the shrew and voles, there is something just briefly to be said about each, to show you who have been giving your time and your thought to legal subjects entirely have missed some of the opportunities of learning something about this subject. Take bats, for instance, it is the common belief that they carry bed bugs. That is absolutely erroneous and yet that is the common belief. The subjects of skunks, of which I shall speak specifically and more particularly in a few minutes, is one of very great interest, because of their peculiar means of self-defense. and it is almost universally believed that it is the urine of the skunk that produces the odor, which is not at all true. Take also the case of the mole: it is commonly said that moles are tree girdlers in areas occupied by fruit trees. I have had many, many persons write me about it, stating that fruit trees have been girdled by moles. No moles in this country have ever girdled a fruit tree and never will because that is not their habit.

About the shrews: About all that some persons know about the shrew is that Bill Shakespeare or some other writer made mention of it in "The Taming of the Shrew."

As to voles, I wonder how many of you would know one if you met it coming down the street. Yet they are the most destructive of common mammals found in this region. They are commonly called the short-tailed meadow mouse or Microtus pennsylvanicus, to give it the scientific name, but I will excuse you as students of my class from stopping to learn these scientific names this afternoon.

My attention has been twice called during the week to how little people know about skunks, by prominent persons speaking about skunks to me: "Oh, yes; I know all about skunks. They feed chiefly on eggs." If that were true, what would they do during the several months when no eggs were available. Nature doesn't do business that way, and I can say, too, that the skunk is neither an odious nor an odorous aninal. It is a peaceful, quiet creature that never attacks until it is first attacked or believes it is attacked. Among the most useful of all creatures in this region is the skunk. We must acknowledge, Mr. Speaker, that the spray pump has failed as a means of controlling insect pests. I mean to say that it is entirely impossible for one to go out on the farm and control insect pests with a spray pump alone. It is absolutely necessary for him to call to his aid other factors, such as the birds, for instance, the woodpeckers that go after the insects in the trees, which can not be reached by the spray gun. The skunks go after the insects that live in the ground.

Go out along a pasture field and you will see in the morning a number of little holes dug down into the ground indicating where the skunks have been busy getting their early breakfast. The largest of these is army worm and other pests of the insect army that the spray pump can not reach.

Each of these various creatures is placed here in accordance with the great Divine plan to perform its function in its own sphere.

"Each moss, each shell, each crawling insect in the dust holds rank important in the plan, holds rank which, if lost, would break a chain and would leave behind a gap that Nature herself would rue."

Go along the hill side in the morning and there will be stones the size of a man's hand turned over, a great many of them. There the skunk has been at work through the night time devouring insects concealed beneath the stone. I have examined the excreta of skunks time and time again and have invariably found it to be composed entirely of indigestible fragments of insects.

Let me also call to your attention the value of the pelts of the skunks as a commercial article. There is only one animal that yields a greater return in value and that is the muskrat. During some years the muskrats have yielded over one million dollars in pelts in one season and the skunks almost one million dollars in pelts in one season. Let us remember that this is money that is returned to the farmer's boy, the lad who needs to earn his shoes and stockings, the lad who must pick up his living in a manner as best he can. He goes out and sets his traps and traps the muskrats and the skunks, and notwithstanding this they seem to be creatures that can stand persecution and still survive. All that is necessary to kill them is to introduce a little piece of raw meat containing strychnine. Occasionally they get into the poultry yard, but the damage that is involved there isn't one percent of the great good they do during the year.

I want to say that the Grange is back of me in this movement to protect the skunk. I have a letter on my desk from Mr. John H. Light, secretary of the Grange, in which he asks me to stress the economic value of the skunk, because of their great value as destroyers of insects.

I urge your help this afternoon to help the defenceless skunk. because it is practically defenceless except in one regard, by voting "no" on this bill.

Mr. MOUL. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I assure you that I do not want to take up a great deal of your time. However, I feel that it is my duty to answer my colleague, Mr. Surface.

I have the very highest respect for his opinion, but I want to remind the members of this House that I, too, have been educated as a scientist and for years taught biology, the subject about which he spoke, but I am not going to take your time talking about biology nor of moles; I am going to bring you right down to the skunk proposition. While I will admit that there is some economic value to the skunk and that he does act as a protector, to a certain extent, for the farmer against insects, yet he will only be that as long as he has a sufficient food supply. When a family of skunks is so large that there is no longer a sufficient supply of bugs, that family will become a robber of other things in the community. We have in the southeastern section of Pennsylvania at the present time a condition that has become rather serious to the farmers in that the skunk population, due to the fact that the pelt of the skunk is now very low in price, has increased to such an extent that the skunk no longer has a sufficient food supply in the normal channels in which he feeds and it comes to the point where he has started to rob henhouses, whenever that is possible. If that is the case, then it is only reasonable to suspect that the skunk has not only gone in and robbed the henhouse, but he has also undoubtedly gone out after pheasant, after quail, after birds and other natural friends of the farmer, who also eat bugs and protect the farmer against the farmer's enemies in the field.

Now, you may be under the impression, and I believe that gentleman from Snyder is under the impression that under this bill we are attempting to eliminate the skunk from the state. That is not the function of this bill. The intent of this bill is merely to permit the farmers and others in the communities where the skunk has become a nuisance to kill the skunk when he has become a nuisance, I want to call your attention to the fact that up until nineteen hundred and twenty-three the skunk was not a protected animal in the State of Pennsylvania, and at that time skunk pelts were sold for as much as eight dollars a piece. At that time he was really of value to the farmer boy who was willing to trap him at that figure, but at the present time I want to remind you of the fact that the pelts are selling for from sixty to eighty cents, and I ask any member of this House if he would be willing to trap any skunk at sixty to eighty cents. I might also remind you that while the farmers in our section are in favor of this regulatory measure, the Sportmens' Federation of Pennsylvania, since this bill has been introduced, has also gone on record as being in favor of this measure as a protector of game. This was not originally put out as a sportsmen's bill, but it was put out as a protection for the farmer, to curb the number of skunks in his territory if he saw fit so to do.

One other thing and I am through. Under the present law, if you have one of these beautiful "kitties" come around your premises and he becomes a nuisance and he goes into your cellar, you are not permitted to kill that skunk. One of our members told me today that in his territory—I believe within the last year—a farmer boy was arrested and jailed for killing a number of skunks in his territory out of season.

We are not trying to exterminate the skunk, we are simply trying to put him in such a position that when he becomes a nuisance you will be permitted to kill him and get him out of the way.

We urge you to support this bill.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Public Utilities.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. Speaker, I am surprised at this late state that a member of this House would ask to recommit this bill. I think that you owe it to your constituents to pass this bill and save some of the taxes that the utilities of Pennsylvania are getting by with now. The state taxes the manufacturers, but the utilities have come through this depression unscathed.

I ask the members of the House to vote down this motion and keep this bill upon the House calendar and make the members vote so that they can show the people back home how they stand on the utilities.

On the question recurring

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the "ayes" appear to have it,

Whereupon, a division was called for, one hundred and three members voting in the affirmative, and fifty-five in the negative, the question was determined in the affirmative, and the motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 205, as follows:

An Act providing for liens in favor of the Commonwealth and every charitable association corporation or other institution maintaining a hospital in this Commonwealth supported in whole or in part by public or private charity and furnishing therein care treatment and maintenance to persons injured in accidents upon the rights of action claims or demands of such injured persons against other persons corporations partnerships and other unincorporated associations whatsoever for damages on account of the negligence causing the injuries and upon the proceeds of the settlement of any such claims or demands providing for the entry recording release and discharge of such liens and imposing duties upon prothonotaries

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and every charitable association corporation or other institution maintaining a hospital in this Commonwealth supported in whole or in part by public or private charity shall be entitled to a lien upon any and all rights of action suits claims counterclaims or demands of any person admitted to any such hospital and receiving care treatment and maintenance therein on account of any personal injuries received in any accident as a result of the negligence of any other person corporation partnership or other unincorporated association which any such injured person may or shall have assert or maintain against any such other person corporation partnership or other unincorporated association for damages on account of such injuries for the amount of the charges of such hospital for such care treatment and maintenance

Section 2 The lien created by section one of this act shall attach to but shall not exceed fifty per centum of any verdict report decision decree award judgment or final order made or rendered in any action or proceeding in any court of record of this Commonwealth in any suit action or proceeding brought by such injured person or by the persons entitled to recover damages for any injuries causing death in case of deaths as a result of such injuries against any other person corporation partnership or other unincorporated association for the recovery of damages on account of injuries received in any such accident as well as to not more than thirty-five per centum of the proceeds of any settlement thereof or the settlement of any such claim or demand affected by any such injured person with any other person corporation partnership or other unincorporated association whose negligence is claimed or alleged to have been the cause of the said accident or affected with any other person corporation partnership or other unincorporated association on account thereof

Section 3 No release of any claim or demand on account of any such injuries or in respect of any such verdict report decision decree award judgment or final order made or rendered as hereinbefore mentioned executed by such injured person or by the persons entitled to recover damages for any injuries causing death shall be valid or effectual between the parties thereto or otherwise unless prior to the execution and delivery thereof all such hospital charges as to which a lien is provided in Section two hereof be paid or adjusted and unless such release shall also have been executed by the properly designated officers of the Commonwealth acting through the Department of Revenue charitable association corporation or other institution maintaining such hospital and every such verdict report decision decree award judgment or final order shall remain in force and effect until all such hospital charges shall have been paid or adjusted as provided in Section two hereof

Section 4 Every prothonotary shall at the expense of the county provide a suitable well-bound book to be called the hospital lien docket in which upon the filing of any lien claim under the provisions of this act he shall enter the name of the injured person the date of the accident and the name of the claimant and the said prothonotary shall make a proper index of the same in the name of the injured person and said prothonotary shall be entitled to twenty-five cents for filing each claim and at the rate of twenty-five cents per one hundred words or fraction thereof for such entry made in such lien docket and fifteen cents for every search in the office for such claim

Section 5 To discharge the lien evidenced by any notice filed under the provision of Section three of this act the Commonwealth acting through the Department of Revenue or the charitable association corporation or other institution maintaining such hospital acting through its properly designated officers shall file in the office of the county where said notice has been filed a certificate to the effect that such lien for treatment care and maintenance has been duly paid or adjusted as provided in this act or released and authorizing the prothonotary of the county in whose office said notice of lien has been filed to discharge the same and thereupon such prothonotary shall enter upon the margin of the hospital lien docket in which the said lien notice has been entered a memorandum of such filing and the date when such certificate of payment adjustment or release was filed in his office which certificate and entry shall constitute a discharge of the lien For the making of such entry the prothonotary shall receive the sum of fifty cents ($0.50)

Section 6 If any sentence section clause or part of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional the decision of the court shall not affect or impair any of the remaining provisions of this act It is hereby declared as the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional sentence section clause or part thereof not been included therein

Section 7 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed

Section 8 This act shall become effective the first day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary General for the purpose of further study.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. HOLSTROM. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill has been a very important bill to every hospital and institution in the state. It has happened time and time again in the past, where accident patients are brought into the hospital and wards are given to the injured persons that the hospital does not get one cent for the services that they have rendered to the injured patient. This bill gives the hospital the privilege of claiming a part of the award given by the jury to the injured patient, and therefore, it is to the best interest of the Commonwealth and of the hospital that we appropriate the money and pass this bill. Therefore, I ask the members of the House to vote "no" on the motion to recommit.

On the question recurring.

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was not agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the sponsor of the bill explain it and to explain just how this occupation tax works out.

Mr. JONES. Mr. Speaker, the object of introducing this bill was to try to correct the conditions which I found that only the state of Pennsylvania had. I have written to about twenty different states and none of them have a per capita tax. All other taxes, like school taxes, borough taxes, and city taxes, are on an occupational basis. On this per capita tax, the housewife who has no salary, who does her work for love, is taxed the same as a man who has one hundred thousand dollars of a salary. It also taxes the scrub woman the same as it does the millionaire who employs her. My object was to put it on the occupation, so that according to your occupation you would pay it.

In my own district, from my school board, I find that less than thirty percent of the housewives pay their taxes. Then there is seventy percent who do not pay their taxes, and the thirty percent who pay are being discriminated against. In writing to all of the tax collectors of the third class cities, they tell me it is utterly possible to collect but a small amount of this tax.

Ladies and gentlemen of the House, I feel that we as a body should take the threat off the mothers and wives who bear our children and not have the tax collectors threaten to put them in jail and threaten to sell their furniture, which in fact is practically the case with housewives in my own district. I think that the men and women of this House should pass a bill such as this to take that power away from the tax collector so that they cannot threaten our mothers and our wives. Somebody has to pay the wife's tax. In other words, it is a double tax to the married man because he may have to pay for his wife and he may have to pay for his mother and he may have to pay for his daughter. That is the reason I introduced the bill I thank you.

Shall the bill pass finally?

REASON FOR VOTE

Mr. SHUGARTS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to file the following reason for my vote.

Two years ago I introduced a like bill, but as the House was Republican controlled my bill never came out of Committee to be considered. I therefore vote "Aye."

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1316, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the ninth day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 177) entitled "An act providing for the reorganizing the conduct of the Executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments boards commissions and officers thereof including the board of Trustees of State Normal Schools or Teachers Colleges abolishing creating reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments boards and commissions defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers and of the several administrative departments boards commissions and officers fixing the salaries of the Governor Lieutenant Governor and certain other executives and administrative officers and of all deputies and other assistants and employes in certain departments boards and commissions and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employes of certain departments boards and commissions shall be determined" by adding thereto section one thousand two hundred and ten providing for the preparation and furnishing by the Department of Internal Affairs to county commissioners or boards for the assessment and revision of taxes of model forms for tax duplicates tax bills and tax receipts to be used for tax collection purposes.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2990, entitled:

An Act regulating the display of the coat-of-arms of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania on motor vehicles and providing penalties.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I gather from the preamble of this bill that this is a special privilege in the Democratic way. According to the preamble, it is the abolition of the present administrative system of issuing motor vehicle license plates to favorite persons and issuing them in the Democratic way.

You know that the Governor has said that the people who have had their initials on their license plates and those people who have had their house numbers on their license plates or the year in which they were born, or some other number in which they were interested, may may not have that number anymore because that is a matter of special privilege and it should not be allowed.

In order to carry out the idea of the Governor and abolish the present administrative system of issuing motor vehicle license plates to favored persons, Mr. Habbyshaw and I introduced a bill on February 26, which is known as House Bill No. 1117, which would have permitted the issuance of license plates to those people who would like to have a special number of some sort, if they were the first to apply for that number. It does not give them any privilege, until they are willing to pay for having that number. If that bill had been reported out and had become a law, it would have raised revenue for this Commonwealth to the extent of about one-half million dollars per biennium, but that was the type of special privilege which the Governor felt should not be granted.

n spite of the fact that anybody in the whole Commonvealth, who, would have come in first and paid his money vould have been the one to be issued the license. If policeman comes up and says "You are going too fast", ie won't be able to see the Legislative license plates next rear, or the Judicial license plate or the Official license plate. When he comes around to the side door you can point out and say that you have a seal on the door, but you want to be careful if you put a seal on the door next rear, and you do not take the seal off in December, if you happen not to be a member coming here again, and probably a good many of you won't, then you would have o pay ten dollars a day fine. So be sure that you get he seal off the day that you go out of office.

I think there might be another way of getting around his special privilege, and that is to change the color of he cards, the legislative cards, that are given, so that hey will be the same color as operator's license. We might be able to pull that out of our pocket and show it o the officer first. At any rate, I feel that this bill is of such a nature that it gives certain special privileges that ought to be paid for, or maybe there ought to be some amendment made to it, and therefore, Mr. Speaker, I move you that this bill be recommitted to the committee on "Governor's Ideas" for the purpose of amendment in the Democratic way.

The SPEAKER. The Chair rules the motion out of order.

Mr. HOLSTROM. Mr. Speaker, I will not take up any time on this bill. There should be no argument on this measure because the sentiment of the House expressed in the past has been such that they want some distinguishing feature for their licenses. We know that license plates have been discontinued, and this is just a gesture on the part of those who desire some consideration other than the ordinary rank and file of the citizens of this Commonwealth,—for those who are members of the Legislature or the Governor's Cabinet, members of the Supreme Court and certain members of the National Guard. This is just what the members of this House have asked for and I ask you to vote "aye" on this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

(c) Permits issued under the provisions of this act may be renewed annually before the first day of January upon application made to the department and the payment of a renewal fee of five dollars ($5) except that no renewal fee shall be required if the applicant possesses a mercantile license effective when the application is made

Whenever any permit issued under the provisions of this act is defaced destroyed or lost the department may issue a duplicate permit to the holder of the defaced destroyed or lost permit upon the payment of a fee of one dollar ($1)

(d) The department may suspend or after hearing revoke a cosmetic permit whenever it finds that the holder thereof has failed to comply with any of the provisions of this act or any rules or regulations of the department prescribed adopted and promulgated under this act Upon suspending or revoking any cosmetic permit the department shall request the holder thereof to surrender to it immediately all permits or duplicates thereof issued to him and the holder shall surrender promptly all such permits to the department as requested Whenever the department suspends a cosmetic permit it shall notify the holder immediately and afford him a hearing if desired and if a hearing has not already been afforded After such hearing the department shall either rescind its order of suspension or good cause appearing therefor shall continue the suspension or revoke the permit

Section 4 A State excise tax is thereby imposed and assessed upon all sales of cosmetics by dealers at the rate of one cent for each fifteen cents or fractional part thereof of the retail selling price thereof except such sales of cosmetics as are not within the taxing power of this Commonwealth under the commerce clause of the Constitution of the United States Provided That only one sale of the same package of cosmetics shall be used in computing the amount of tax due hereunder

Except as hereinafter provided dealers shall be liable to the Commonwealth as taxpayers for the payment of the tax imposed by this act and shall pay the tax into the State Treasury through the department by purchasing from the department adhesive stamps of such design and denominations as may be prescribed by the department

Manufacturers of cosmetics located either within or outside of this Commonwealth and wholesale dealers in cosmetics located outside of this Commonwealth may purchase stamps from the department and affix such stamps in the manner hereinafter prescribed to packages of cosmetics to be sold within this Commonwealth in which case the dealer within this Commonwealth receiving such stamped packages of cosmetics will not be required to purchase and affix stamps on such packages of cosmetics

Section 5 Each dealer shall affix within the time hereinafter prescribed to each package of cosmetics stamps furnished by and purchased from the department evidencing the payment of the tax imposed by this act and shall cancel such stamps before such cosmetics are offered for sale or before they are otherwise disposed of unless stamps have been affixed to such package of cosmetics before such dealer received them Each wholesale dealer in this Commonwealth shall affix such stamps to each package of cosmetics unless such stamps shall have been previously affixed thereto and shall cancel the same in the manner prescribed by the department prior to the delivery of such cosmetics to any retail dealer in this Commonwealth

Each retail dealer in this Commonwealth shall immediately upon receipt of any cosmetics at his place of business so affix such stamps to each package of cosmetics unless such stamps shall have been previously affixed thereto and shall cancel the same in the manner prescribed by the department or shall immediately mark in ink on each unopened box carton or other container of such packages of cosmetics the word "received" and the month day and year of such receipt and shall affix his signature thereto The retail dealer shall in any event open such box carton or other container and immediately affix such stamps to each package therein and cancel the same in the manner prescribed by the department within twenty-four hours after such receipt and prior to the sale of such cosmetics

Whenever any cosmetics are found in the place of business of such retail dealer without the stamps affixed and cancelled or not marked as having been received within the preceding twenty-four hours as required by this section the prima facie presumption shall arise that such cosmetics are kept therein in violation of the provisions of this act

Stamps shall be affixed to each package of cosmetics of an aggregate denomination not less than the amount of the tax upon the contents therein and shall be affixed in such manner that they will be torn and mutilated when the package is opened Upon affixing stamps to a package of cosmetics the person affixing them shall cancel them by such method or in such manner as may be prescribed by the department

Section 6 The department shall prescribe prepare and furnish adhesive stamps of such denominations and quantities as may be necessary for the payment of the tax imposed and assessed by this act The department shall make provisions for the sale of such stamps in such places and at such times as it may deem necessary

The department may appoint persons within or without the Commonwealth as agents for the sale of stamps to be used in paying the tax herein imposed upon sales of cosmetics and whenever the department shall sell consign or deliver to any such agent any such stamps for sale or use such agent shall be entitled to receive as compensation for his services and expenses as such agent and to retain out of the moneys to be paid by him for such stamps a commission of two per centum on the par value thereof The department is hereby authorized and required to allow such commission or compensation in the settlement of the accounts of such agent upon payment by him into the State Treasury through the department of any moneys which may be become due to the Commonwealth by reason of the sale delivery or consignment to such agent of such stamps

Section 7 Every person engaging in the sale of cosmetics at wholesale or at retail within this Commonwealth shall maintain and keep for a period of two years such record or records of cosmetics received sold and delivered within this Commonwealth by him together with invoices bills of lading and other pertinent papers as may be required by the department

The department or any agent appointed in writing by it is hereby authorized to examine the books papers invoices and other records the stock of cosmetics in and upon any premises where the same are placed stored and sold and equipment of any such wholesale or retail dealer pertaining to the sale and delivery of cosmetics taxable under this act to verify the accuracy of the payment of the tax imposed and assessed by this act Every such person is hereby directed and required to give the Secretary of Revenue or his duly authorized representatives the means facilities and opportunity for such examinations as are hereby provided and required

Section 8 Manufacturers of and dealers in cosmetics located either within or outside of this Commonwealth and wholesale dealers in cosmetics located outside of this Commonwealth may purchase stamps from the department and affix such stamps in the manner hereinafter prescribed to packages of cosmetics to be sold within this Commonwealth in which case the dealer or other person within this Commonwealth receiving such cosmetics shall not be required to purchase and affix stamps thereon

Section 9 In case any cosmetics upon which license stamps have been placed have been sold or shipped to a regular dealer in such articles in another state the seller in this Commonwealth shall be entitled to a refund of the actual amount of tax paid upon condition that the seller in this Commonwealth shall make affidavit that the cosmetics are so sold and shipped and that he shall furnish from the purchaser a written acknowledgment that he has received such cosmetics and the amount of stamps thereon together with the name and address of the purchaser whereupon the department shall with the approval of the Board of Finance and Revenue issue to the seller in this Commonwealth stamps of sufficient value to cover the refund

Section 10 The department is hereby charged with the enforcement of the provisions of this act and is hereby authorized and empowered to prescribe adopt promulgate and enforce the rules and regulations relating to

(a) The method and the means to be used in the cancellation of stamps

Section 15 This act shall become effective thirty days after the final enactment of this act and shall remain in force until the first day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Washington, Mr. John E. Brown.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Brown, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Brown, briefly and snappily tell the members of the House why he choose to tax the war paint of our ladies?

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, well, I know I like to pay my taxes, and every time I see a pretty girl, I like to think of the taxes they pay.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. McDEVITT. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Public Utilities for the purpose of further study.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman for what reason he thinks this bill should be recommitted.

Mr. McDEVITT. Mr. Speaker, I would say to the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Moran, this is exactly the same type of bill that was twice defeated in the House, and similar to a bill which was put forward by the same gentleman. I do not feel that the bill is workable and it is not at all in shape to pass. It is a bill that really ought to be recommitted for further consideration and possible amendment, if it can be amended.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, tht gentleman from Philadelphia refers to the bill as being twice defeated. The bill that was twice defeated was a water and gas bill. This is a bill on electricity. I think it is a very good bill and I ask the members of the House to vote down this motion.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the ayes appeared to have it,

Whereupon, a division was called for, eighty members having voted in the affirmative and eighty five in the negative, the question was determined in the negative and the motion was not agreed to.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 1755, Printer's No. 1539, on page 12, of today's calendar, bills on final passage postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. BLUMBERG,

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1755, entitled:

An Act to amend section two and section four hundred and eleven of the act approved the twenty-ninth day of November one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws fifteen one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three one thousand nine hundred thirty-four) entitled "An act to regulate and restrain the sale importation and use of certain alcoholic beverages conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board the Department of Public Instruction other officers of the State government courts and district attorneys authorizing the establishment and operation of State stores for the sale of such beverages not for consumption on the premises and the granting of licenses subject to local option to sell such beverages for consumption on the premises forbidding importation or bringing of such beverages into the State except as herein provided prohibiting certain sales or practices in connections with and transactions in such beverages by licensees and others making disposition of the receipts from State stores and of license fees and imposing penalties" better defining the word "club" and permitting sales by clubs on Sundays and election days.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend title page 2, last line of title by striking out the words "election days" and inserting in lieu thereof "eliminating the prohibition against the maintenance of a bar"

Amend Sec. 1, page 6, lines 1, 2 and 3, by striking out with light-faced brackets all of said lines.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there objection? The Chair hears none and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1832, entitled:

An Act relating to rag dolls teddy bears and toys and playthings of a similar kind regulating the making remaking renovating sterilizing disinfecting sale leasing delivering consigning and having in possession thereof with intent to sell lease deliver or consign the same providing for the tagging of such toys and playthings and fixing the fees for such tags and for adhesive stamps and providing penalties

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. VanSICKLE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the sponsor of this bill has just been called out and I feel that a few words of explanation should be given so that the members may understand exactly what this bill is about. This bill provides for the attaching of stamps to rag dolls and playthings of a similar sort, or nature, when they use second hand material in making these things. It has a two-fold purpose, namely, the raising of revenue, and the primary purpose of safeguarding the health of the kiddies of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

At the present time we have similar legislation providing for the attaching of stamps to pillows and upholstered goods, but at the present time we have no such regulation as to the material that is used in the toys that our kiddies play with. It is, therefore, a health measure and I ask the members of the House to vote for it.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the purpose of this bill is to make more jobs for more inspectors.

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am opposed to this bill because I think it is another attempt to sock the poor.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

WEDNESDAY, June 19, 1935.

The Senate met at 12 o'clock noon.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the Chair.

The Chtplain, Rev. William E. Howard, D. D., offered the following prayer:

Thou hast given us, O God, a goodly heritage. We live in a land flowing with milk and honey. Vast mineral deposits and great pools of golden oil lie beneath us. High hills and fertile valleys and plains, watered by flowing rivers are spread about us. These untold resources make our Commonwealth rich beyond human power of computation.

But all these material possession avail us naught unless our people are happy and contented. May these men into whose hands is largely committed the administration of all this abundance realize that they are Thy stewards. May their legislative acts be just and right, making equitable distribution of burdens to be borne and benefits to be enjoyed by the people of our State. And may the ultimate result of their actions be happy homes, prosperous business and contented hearts. Amen.

REPORT OF LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE PUBLIC RELIEF IN PENNSYLVANIA

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I desire at this time to present a report of the Joint Legislative Committee, appointed under Concurrent Resolution No. 110, for the investigation on the subject of the administration of unemployment relief. This is only a preliminary and partial report. The majority of the Committee recommends that the administration of relief be decentralized to a large extent. The majority of the committee recommends the passage at this session of the Legislature of some act or acts to further this recommendation.

The Senate has already passed two bills on this subject and transmitted them to the House, so I take it that any action that is to be taken at this time must be first taken by the House of Representatives. This report has been placed on the desks of the Senators.

To the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Your Committee was appointed to investigate public relief in Pennsylvania under House Concurrent Resolution No. 110 and the duty of the Committee as defined in the Resolution was (a) to make a searching and impartial study and investigation of the distribution of public relief through this Commonwealth (b) to ascertain whether and in what respect the present system is open to abuse, (c) to ascertain whether additional legal safeguard should be provided, (d) to ascretain whether appropriations for relief may be reduced, (e) to collate and digest reports of other investigating committees, and (f) to investigate such other facts and circumstances as may be deemed necessary and advisable to enable the General Assembly to act with some degree of certainty and establish an impartial, unpolitical, unwasteful and business system of aiding those of our unfortunates in need and of eradicating and punishing those who take advaneage of distressing economic conditions for their personal selfish ends whether as recipients or as distributors thereof.

The Legislature recognized that it was impossible for the Committee to make a full and extended report of its findings at this Session of the Legislature and directed that the final report should be made not later than February 1, 1937. It did however, require that a preliminary report be made at this Session of the General Assembly. It is in compliance with this requirement that the Committee makes this partial or preliminary report. The regular duties of the members of the Committee, as members of the Legislature, however, have greatly handicapped it in its endeavors to carry out its instructions and the lack of an appropriation of money up to this time has also prevented a more complete report being submitted.

The Committee did hold meetings each week since its appointment, calling before it the present Director of Relief in Pennsylvania and his predecessor, the heads of the various departments in the relief administration, and the chairmen of a number of the Relief Investigating Committees appointed by the House of Representatives to investigate the administration of relief in the several areas covered by their commissions, which chairmen made reports of the activities of their several committees. There also appeared voluntarily before your Committee quite a number of individuals from several widely scattered counties of the State who set forth matters of complaint respecting the administration of relief in their districts. From all these sources your Committee feels that it has secured a cross section as it were, and a general picture of conditions throughout the Commonwealth.

In the preamble to the resolution appointing your committee, it was set forth, among other things, as reasons showing the necessity of appointing such Committee that some inherent defect exists in the present system of relief distribution; that taxpayers are demanding that the light of publicity be thrown upon the whole system of distributing public relief; and that the system of administering relief fails to approach the task of placing relief upon a sound State-wide business basis.

While your Committee in no sense considers this a complete and final report, all members thereof are agreed that the evidence produced before the Committee substantiates the statements above set forth taken from the preamble to the resolution.

The enormous increase in the amount of expenditures for unemployment relief since the adoption of the Act known as the First Talbot Act in 1931, from an expenditure in the State of approximately one million dollars of State funds per month to an expenditure of State and Federal funds approximately twenty-one million dollars per month cannot be accounted for solely on the grounds that there has been an increase in the number of recipients of relief or that the amount of relief per individual was required to be increased.

While the complaints against the present system as set forth by the several witnesses before your Committee varied in detail, yet there seemed to be a more or less general agreement on a number of points, which your Committee now desires to discuss.

LOCAL CONTROL

On the chief defects in the present system is the lack of responsible, efficient control in a local board or director in each of the several counties or areas in the State. Employment relief in these areas has been conducted under various branches such as the Division of Direct Relief, the Works Relief Division, the Financial Division, Disbursing Office, the Employment Bureau, etc. In the past there has been a lack of coordination between these divisions each operating separately under various rules and regulations promulgated from Harrisburg and Washington and without anyone locally having authority to bring them into cooperation. As the conditions in the several counties and areas differ widely it is wholly impossible for uniform rules to apply satisfactorily. The result is necessarily confusion, inefficiency and waste, and what was intended for equality becomes gross inequity. One of two examples may be sufficient to illustrate this condition. For instance, relief checks have been mailed to persons for weeks after such reciepents have been reported by employers or others to have been given employment. This is due to the fact that such information must go around-about course from one persons or office to another and through a devious system of files and cards so that a long time elapses before the paymaster obtains the knowledge which stops the taxpayers' money from going where it is not needed.

Again by reason of the fact that a uniform budget system is set up applying to all counties or areas, persons on farms or small tracts of land or in other favorable situations may be given the same relief as those without the aid which these circumstances might have afforded if properly used. Even in the same county, different sections produce different conditions which cannot be met by any standard set of rules.

Relief administration therefore, in the opinion of a majority of the Committee should be decentralized to a much greater extent than at present and the local boards should be given authority to make such rules as will provide reasonable helief at a minimum of expense to the taxpayers. With such powers there would go, of course, a responsibility for which the boards would be held accountable.

CHISELING

The subject of chiseling was one that was brought to the attention of all the committees appointed to investigate the administration of relief. This term in its narrow sense may be limited to those who deliberately accept relief while having money in bank or elsewhere and those who receive relief checks while fully employed in private business. In its broader sense it may apply to all those who take more relief than needed, to those who fail to aid themselves by planting their farms and gardens and those who in work relief fail to render the service reasonably to be required for their pay.

The number of chiselers in the narrower sense the Committee feels is not so large as indicated in certain of the testimony. However, it is sufficiently large to take a considerable amount of money unlawfully. A few prosecutions of the flagrant offenders in each area should have a wholesome effect in discouraging this form of cheating the public.

The other form of chiseling to which we have referred is more serious in its lasting results. The giving of relief in itself has demoralizing features attached to it. The recipient at first reluctant to accept aid soon comes to feel that the State owes him a living without undue effort on his part. We feel that the attitude of the professional social worker too often encourages the relief worker to assume a position of dependence upon the State. More efficient local control with the employment of investigators who discourage giving relief to all who can help themselves, will have a salutary effect in stopping all forms of chiseling.

SOCIAL WORKERS

In the investigation by the Committee, no criticism occurred more frequently than that relating to the type of employees administering relief. Under Federal rules and regulations, the administration of relief has passed to a large extent into the hands of professional social workers and conducted from their point of view. The testimony of the Assistant Administrator of Direct Relief showed the large measure of free play given to the social influence in the whole administration of relief.

Unfortunately many of these persons have been salaried men and women who do not have the viewpoint of the taxpayer who conducts a business with great difficulty to avoid insolvency or who only by most strenuous efforts is able to save himself and family from going on the relief rolls. Everyone desires, of course, to uplift the standard of living of those in want but the danger today from the enormous increase in the cost of relief, is that the whole of society will be precipitated into the same ruin so that the standard of all will be eventually lowered.

The Committee feels that the minimum of relief that will reasonably support the unemployed and take from the overburdened taxpayer as little money as possible in this emergency is the best solution at this time. As the comprehensive report of the House Investigating Committee for Allegheny County puts it "The taxpayer cannot perpetually support one-fourth of the population as a social workers' experimental laboratory."

A common cause of complaint by recipients of relief was the rule requiring that investigators must have a college or high school education and in some cases must pass an oral examination by a "social welfare" supervisor. It was urged that many of those on relief would make better investigators and would save money for the taxpayers by being taken from the rolls. The Committee feels that too much stress has been laid on the social training qualification and that sound judgment in business and family training qualification and that sound judgment in business and family affairs is more important than a course in college, and that a policy should be adopted for the administration of relief on a basis of sound common sense rather than on a social basis.

WORK RELIEF

Considerable evidence was presented to the Committee indicating that the tangible results obtained through Work Relief were extremely expensive from the taxpayers' point of view. For example, several of the County Relief Investigating Committees presented evidence showing that Public Works Projects in their Counties were costing four to five times the amount of money which private contractors would have charged for the same work. Members of the unemployed groups appearing before the Committee complained about the method of administering such work and themselves pointing out that many of these projects were costing too much money.

Some of the reasons for this were pointed out by one of the auditors in the State Auditor General's Department. He produced evidence to show that on certain Works Projects in Berks County the overhead was running as high as forty per cent of the total cost of the project and that one of the reasons for this high overhead was the fact that foremen, timekeepers, etc. were on a straight salary basis instead of a per diem basis and were paid whether they worked or not. As few of those in a supervisory position come from the relief rolls, these high costs seem to be unjustifiable.

It is hoped that the Auditor General's Department may continue its audits with reasonable promptness as the moneys spent for relief purposes are larger in amount than the expenditures for all other purposes. We recommend that an appropriation be granted sufficient for this work.

The members of the Committee feel that relief projects would be more effective in their accomplishment and work done and in real benefit by submitting the same to contractors to be performed in accordance with general business rules.

As heretofore stated in this report, the committee has not completed its work. We submit this report at this time so that the General Assembly may take further action if it so desires on the whole subject at this Session.

Respectfully submitted,

MILES HORST, Chairman
WILLIAM J. EROE, JR.
CHARLES H. EALY
N. B. RODGERS

Harrisburg, Penna., June 18, 1935.

Senator James E. Norton, a member of the Committee has been given leave of absence for the remainder of this Session. Before leaving he gave his assent to the above report in principle and to such part of the same as had been prepared prior to his departure.

I dissent from the suggestion of the majority of the Committee that the State Emergency Relief Board should be decentralized, that is, that the administration of relief should be delegated to local boards in the counties. At the hearings which the Committee hold, the most general objection raised was the alleged preferment that obtains in the distribution of positions in the local boards as visitors and minor executives. It seems very obvious that decentralization would conduce to the enlargement rather than the diminuation of this evil. I believe that the plan of the State Administrator of relief to set up advisory boards in each area to determine local policies will permit a sufficient exercise of local discretion to meet the objection of the majority of the Committee on this score.

JOSEPH DAVID BUSH

The undersigned members of the Committee would suggest the passage of an Act of Assembly at this time for decentralization of the administration of relief. We feel that the State Director of Relief is making an honest effort to cope with a difficult situation but the bureaucratic system which has been built up will make such effort to a great extent fruitless. If a local board with large powers and responsible to the appointing power or to the electors as the case may be, is created by law in each of the counties to begin functioning at a future time to be fixed by the Director of Relief under certain limits, we feel it will be a decided step toward reduction of the relief rolls and the cost thereof.

The PRESIDENT. The report will be made a matter of record in the Legislative Journal.

Mr. BATCHELOR. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Somerset, Mr. Ealy.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Somerset. Mr Ealy, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. BATCHELOR. Mr. President, I notice with respect to the recommendation in this report. the committee suggests the passage of an act at this time for the decenralization of the administration of relief. Do you believe that either one of the bills passed by this Senate sometime ago, either the bill known as the Woodward bill, or the bill I presented, would accomplish this purpose?

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I have stated here a number of imes that I am opposed to the present system of administering relief. It have caused the establishment here in Harrisburg and throughout the counties of a great bureau, and I personally favor the passage of one of those bills which sometime ago passed the Senate with certain amendments. I personally feel that the time for the local boards to function should be put off to a time in the future after decentralization be completed—within a period of a month.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed the Senate will be in order.

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO APPOINTING COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE CHARGES OF SOLICITATION OF BRIBES BY "A SENATOR"

Mr. OWLETT offered the following resolution, which was twice read:

In the Senate, June 19, 1935.

Whereas, There appears in the Harrisburg papers today charges by Governor George H. Earle that "a Senator" solicited bribes from the Secretary to the Governor, Harry E. Kalodner, and Attorney General Charles J. Margiotti; now therefore be it

Resolved, That the president pro tempore of the Senate be, and he is hereby authorized to appoint a special committee of three Senators, to conduct an immediate, diligent and thorough inquiry for the benefit of the Senate into the charges thus made by the Governor and all other matters of a similar nature, and all others having any bearing thereon which may come to the notice of the said committee; and be it further

Resolved, That such committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee, and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas shall be served upon any person and shall have the force and effect of subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of said committee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the committee. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said committee or to produce any books, papers, records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases.

That said committee shall make report of its findings to the Senate during the present session or to any session hereafter. All of its powers shall continue after the close of the present session and until its final report is made.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39 which requires that concurrent resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee be suspended and that the Senate proceed to the immediat consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, instead of the resolution being read the second time, we would object until we have had a chance to see the resolution.

The PRESIDENT. Objection is made to the immediate consideration of the resolution.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President. I move that the rules of this Senate be suspended and the resolution be acted on immediately.

Mr. BATCHELOR. Mr. President, I second the motion

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognized the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, for the presentation of a resolution. Objection was made to immediate consideration, thereupon the Senator moved that the rules be suspended so that immediate consideration might be had. That is the motion now before the Senate.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, we object to this motion to suspend the rules. The resolution as presented does not clearly fit this case, and the resolution ought not to be adopted, that being so, we do not wish to suspend the rules for the purpose of having this resolution considered at this time.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, will the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, explain to the Senate wherein this resolution does not meet the situation?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, this resolution, as drafted, as I have said, does not fit the case, because it is intended to get into this proposed invesitgation matters other than the matters before the Senate. That is one of the objections.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, is there any place where, in the opinion of the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, it does not meet the situation?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, another objection is that an investigation of this kind should not be confined to three men.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Monroe if it is not a fact that I agreed with him to make it five members, if that is what he wishes.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, yes, the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, did so agree.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to call the Senate's attention to the fact that this resolution says "that the President Pro Tempore of the Senate be and he is hereby authorized to appoint a special committee of three Senators to conduct an immediate, diligent and thorough inquiry for the benefit of the Senate into the charges" made in the Harrisburg newspapers by Governor Earle that a Senator solicited bribes from the Secretary to the Governor, Harry E. Kalodner, and Attorney General Charles J. Margiotti, and that the charges thus made by the Governor and all other matters of a similar nature having any bearing thereon which shall come to the notice of said committee.

Mr. President, now it cannot be that the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, wants this committee's hands tied so that they can only hear Mr. Margiotti. This ought to be gone into thoroughly.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, is too good a lawyer, he is so good a lawyer that he ought not to try to have this Senate believe that this resolution is confined, or intended to confine this investigation to the activities of one Senator, and I am objecting very strenuously on that account, and I am asking the Senate to vote down this resolution and we will present a proper resolution on the matter.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, it has not been a week since we listened to our Republican colleagues objecting to amendments to Senator Batchelor's resolution, which amended the resolution to include other matters than as originally proposed in the Batchelor resolution. The cry from the other side of the House at that time was "do not confuse the issue", and, I submit, Mr. President, under this resolution as introduced and as it is before the Senate at this time, the resolution is deliberately calculated, if possible, to confuse the issues upon which this resolution is based, and, if possible, to make a whitewash investigation out of this case.

In addition to that, I object to this resolution because it allows the investigation to lie over almost indefinitely, until the regular Session of the Legislature in 1937. This Senate should investigate this matter thoroughly at this time.

Furthermore, Mr. President, this investigation should not be confined to any three, or even five members of this State Senate. There is only one way to conduct this investigation satisfactorily, and that is to conduct it by a committee of the whole, and after this resolution is disposed of, I propose to offer another resolution to investigate this matter by a committee of the whole of the Senate. I am just as much interested in listening to this testimony, or whatever may be produced, as is any other member of the State Senate, and every member of the State Senate should be interested in hearing this testimony and assisting in this investigation. Mr. President, I submit that this resolution, as it is before the Senate at this time, should be voted down and that the way to do that at the present time is to vote against this motion to suspend the rules.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Centre, Mr Thompson, permit himself to be be interrogated?

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I will.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I desire to ask the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, whether he can point to any precedent either in the National legislative bodies, or in the State legislative bodies, where an investigation was conducted by a Committee of the Whole.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, in answer to the Senator from Dauphin, of course, I am not familiar enough off-hand with the history of investigations of legislative bodies to answer that question "yes" or "no", Mr. President, I do know that this investigation should be conducted by this Senate.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I resent and resent thoroughly the charge by my colleague from Centre, Mr. Thompson, that this is a method to whitewash this man. There have been altogether too many of those loose charges made by he gentlemen on the other side. When a resolution of this serious character is introduced in this Senate, I say that no member has a right to say that it is merely for the purpose of whitewashing. With all the accusations that have gone around this body during this session, with the spectacle we have had of the Governor's Secretary and the Chairman of the State Committee parading up and down the aisles while votes were being taken, and then to come in here and say that this is a whitewash resolution.

Now, let us have an investigation and a real one by the Senate, and we are going to do it without having the Governor come over here and tell us what we must do. This is a legislative body, a legislative body elected by the people of this State. This Senate has been accused of doing pickpocketing and everything else, because we exercised our inalienable right to use our own judgment on legislative matters, and I say let us use our own judgment in this matter, and even if Mr. Kalodner is not satisfied to have this committee investigate this case, even if they do want to make it a political holiday, let us pass this resolution and pass it now.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I simply desire to say, after having made some investigation, that so far as my investigation goes, investigations of this character have always been made either by being referred to standing committees, or special committees, to make the investigation. I am certain that that has been the usual practice, if it has not been the universal practice. Charges are now made, coming from the office of the Governor, and I say that the only fair way to have an investigation is to have a committee appointed which would honestly make that investigation, and that is precisely the purpose of this resolution.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I wish the Senate would not deviate from the question before this Senate; and incidentally, I say that the Secretary to the Governor has the right under the rules, and by precedent, to come into this Senate. That is recognized in every legislative body, and it comes with poor grace—I do not want to say much about this—but it comes with poor grace from the gentlemen from the other side to say that the Secretary of the State Committee comes into this body. Why, from time immemorial, the Secretary of the State Committee of the Republican Party has been in this House and in the other House and has directed, in a degree that I have never seen any Democratic Administration direct.

The matter before the Senate is the character of the resolution, and I say that the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, is too good a lawyer to try to foist on this Senate this character of resolution to investigate this one subject. It is not intended to investigate the thing before the Senate. It is intended to investigate any man and any subject. What we want to do is to investigate the charge that has been made and nothing else, and I ask the Senate to vote down the motion.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the applause of the speakers on either side of this particular situation does not solve this problem. It is a very serious charge, and it is the duty of this Senate to see to it that this matter is thoroughly investigated. I have listened to the resolution and I notice the words "and other similar charges" inserted in the resolution. I think if this Senate wants to do justice to itself, it must confine this particular investigation to this particular charge, and there ought to be no words in this resolution which give the opportunity for anyone to think that other matters can be mixed up with this. It is my opinion, these other charges we have had here, charges concerning rumors and suggestions, should not be mixed up with this. As I read this statement, there is a specific charge made that there was a a certain thing said and done, and it seems to me, whether it is true or not, it is a very serious matter. It certainly ought not be allowed to go unchallenged, there ought not to be any feeling about it. I desire, therefore, to ask the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, whether he will agree to the elimination of those words from the resolution, which, in my opinion, make it possible for the matters to cover more than the particular subject which we are unfortunately now engaged in discussing

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, there is a motion now before this Senate, and in answer to the suggestion of the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, I wish to state that this resolution, in order to give this committee full power to investigate this entire matter, that no part of it should be deleted, and I cannot accede to his request. It seems to me that this committee wants to make an investigation in this matter and they should not be so confined that it can only hear Mr. Margiotti's charges against this Senator, whoever he may be.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair points out that the resolution is not before the Senate. The motion before the Senate is to suspend the rules so that the resolution may be considered.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the resolution reads: "Resolved that the President Pro Tempore of the Senate be, and he is hereby authorized to appoint a spcial committee of three Senators, to conduct an immediate, diligent and thorough inquiry for the benefit of the Senate into the charges thus made by the Governor, and all others having any bearing thereon." Now I would suggest that the resolution read as follows: "to conduct an immediate, diligent and thorough investigation into the matter that is charged and having any bearing thereon." That would give the committee the right to call not only Mr. Kalodner or anybody else, and would not preclude or restrict the committee in any way. In view of the words "other matters of a similar nature", in my opinion, enlarges the scope, whether it be the purpose or not. I have no doubt it is unintentional, but it enlarges the scope of this investigation and because of the seriousness of the situation, if I myself were involved, I would not want those words in there. I ask the Senator from Tioga again whether those words should not be taken out.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, may I suggest to the Senate, and especially the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, that if the rules are suspended in accordance with the motion of the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, that the resolution would then be on the desk of the President and before the Senate for such action as it may take, including the matter of amendment, but as it stands now it is not before the Senate, unanimous consent having been refused and the motion now pending before the Senate is to bring the resolution before the Senate in order that it may be disposed of, either by amendment, or referring it to committee, pass it, or anything else, and it may be that the amendment suggested by the Senator from Philadelphia, is entirely proper, that the question cannot be raised at this time, until the rules are suspended in order that the resolution may be considered by the Senate.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I am trying to get information, to guide myself as to how I shall vote on this resolution. I am looking a little further than the mere suspension of the rule, and if I had the word of the sponsor of the resolution that the words will be taken out. I think it would perfectly useless to go through a lengthy an involved an equal procedure.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, as the Chair has already ruled, this entire discussion is out of order; there is only one motion before the Senate at this time, and that is a motion to suspend the rule. I have no desire to shut off debate, but all remarks on this resolution should come after the vote to suspend the rules. The only question now is the motion to suspend the rules, and I ask that further debate be prohibited.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I have a few words to say as to why this motion to suspend a rule ought to be defeated. From the floor of this Senate the sincerity and the honesty of the Governor of this State have been attacked. Not only in the discussion that has just taken place but at other times, from the mouth of the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, has come the statement that the charges are loose charge —

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. BATCHELOR. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Beaver, Mr. Batchelor, will state his point of order.

Mr. BATCHELOR. Mr. President, nothing is debatable here at all except this motion to suspend the rule. The Governor has not anything to do with that.

The PRESIDENT. It is the opinion of the Chair that the statement of the gentleman who made the motion, with reference to the subject, had to do with the motion amending. The statement of the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, is along that line and is in order.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, my good friend from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, seems too to be highly excited about charges made by the Governor. Now, Mr. President, if the Governor is insincere in his charges, if there is no foundation for the Governor's charges, then, Mr. President, this motion—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. BATCHELOR. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Beaver, Mr. Batchelor, will state his point of order.

Mr. BATCHELOR. Mr. President, I still maintain that the gentleman is not discussing the motion.

The PRESIDENT. The point of order is not well taken.

Mr. BATCHELOR. Mr. President, I appeal from the decision of the Chair.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, this motion should be defeated, and the Governor asked, and the Attorney-General asked, to come in here, before this body, at this time, to defend their integrity, and to defend the charge made here that they are insincere, and that the charges made by the Governor and by the Attorney-General are loose.

The PRESIDENT. The motion is to suspend the rule, so that the resolution of the Senator from Tioga, Mr Owlett, may be considered.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. OWLETT and Mr. BATCHELOR and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—26.

Aron,	Coyne,	Hunsicker,	Salus,
Batchelor,	Ealy,	Mallery,	Sordoni,
Bean,	Gelder,	McClure,	Staudenmeier,
Bennett,	Graff,	Owlett,	Thompson,
Buckman,	Harvey,	Pierson,	(Westmoreland)
Chapman,	Homsher,	Reed,	Woodward,
Clark,	Howell,	(Dauphin)	Ziegenheim,

NAYS—23.

Baumer,	Law,	Rankin,	Rupp,
Cavalcante,	McCreesh,	Reed,	Shapiro,
Frey,	McGinnis,	(Washington)	Sones,
Harris,	Miller,	Rice,	Thompson,
Huffman,	Prince,	Roberts,	(Centre)
Kahle,	Pytko,	Rodgers,	Trainer,
Lanius,

So the question was determined in the negative.

The PRESIDENT. Rule 29 provides that "The consent of two-thirds of the members present shall be necessary to dispense with any rule." The motion is therefore not agreed to.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that the resolution be referred to the Committee on Judiciary General

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which was read as follows:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, June 19, 1935.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I transmit herewith a copy of a letter received today from the Attorney General, which is self-explanatory.

The Attorney General advises me that he is prepared to submit immediately for the consideration of your Honorable Body, the "unimpeachable and irrefutable evidence regarding the conduct of Senator William H. Clark" referred to in his letter.

I most respectfully urge your immediate consideration of the subject matter of this communication.

GEORGE H. EARLE.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, June 19, 1935.

Honorable George H. Earle,
Governor of Pennsylvania,
Harrisburg, Pa.

Your Excellency:

Last week I was approached by Senator William Clark, Chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee. He made the proposition that he would exert his influence to report out and pass certain appropriation bills then pending before the Senate Appropriations Committee in exchange for the assurance that he would continue to receive certain State insurance business which he had received from the previous administration.

I reported this conversation to your Excellency and was instructed by you to obtain unimpeachable and irrefutable evidence regarding Senator Clark's conduct. I now have such evidence in my possession.

It is my opinion that Senator Clark's conduct in this instance is most reprehensive and a violation of his Constitutional oath. I recommend that you immediately bring these facts to the attention of the Senate of Pennsylvania.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) CHARLES J. MARGIOTTI,
Attorney General.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, as I indicated in my former remarks, I have here a resolution to present, bearing upon this matter concerning which we have just received a communication from the Governor. When this resolution was drafted it was drafted rather in view of the statements of the press—rather more so than in contemplation of a communication from the Governor; so, possibly, the wording of the resolution, while it comprehends the same matter, which is before the Senate, is not quite in conformity with the present situation. I do, however, in connection with the offering of this resolution, desire to read the statements that were read to the press—

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, will the Senator yield for a minute? It seems to me it would be in order to dispose of the communication from the Governor before taking up the other matter. I therefore move that the communication from His Excellency the Governor be referred to the Committee on Judiciary General.

Will you pardon the interruption, Senator?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, it seems to me to be in order to dispose of the communication of the Governor before taking up new matters. I therefore, move that the communication of His Excellency the Governor of the Commonwealth be referred to the committee on Judiciary General.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I object to this. I had the floor, and was proceeding.

The PRESIDENT. That is right; the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, was not recognized by the Chair; the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, did not yield the floor, and will proceed.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, the statement which I am about to read is the correct statement which was made by the Governor to the press this morning; and it reads as follows:

To the Representatives of the Press, Gentlemen:

This is a most grave matter that I am taking up with you today. A few days ago, two members of my Cabinet, the Attorney General and my Secretary, Mr. Kalodner, reported to me that a Senator of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania had solicited bribes from them.

Remembering my campaign pledges to clean out graft in the State Government in so far as it was possible for me to do so, and remembering my oath of office, there was but one course open to me. I, therefore, instructed the Attorney General and my Secretary to get absolutely irrefutable evidence of this solicitation of a bribe.

Since this Senator in question belongs to the opposite party, I felt it advisable, as I have said, to get absolutely irrefutable evidence, otherwise the charge might be made that it was a political frameup.

This was a very unpleasant duty for my Attorney General and my Secretary to perform in such an unsavory matter but they had absolutely no choice, as I gave them my explicit instructions.

This evidence, absolutely certain and irrefutable, has been obtained. It is perfect human evidence and perfect mechanical evidence. Whatever sympathy I may have had for this Senator was dispelled by the fact that on more than one occasion during the discussion between this Senator and my Attorney General and my Secretary, the Attorney General called the attention of the Senator to the fact that his proposal was absolutely unlawful. In spite of that fact, the Senator practically admitted that he realized that it was unlawful but persisted in his proposal.

Now, gentlemen, I am turning you over to the Attorney General. First of all, I have instructed the Attorney General to lay all this evidence before the Senate of Pennsylvania immediately and I am turning you over to him with my instructions to him to give you every bit of the evidence in this matter. The only comment I have to make is that I am terribly sickened by the whole matter.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, will state his point of order.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, there is nothing before the Senate at this time.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I offer the following resolution, and move its immediate consideration.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, will state his point of order.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, there is a communication now pending before the Senate.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair would like to find out whether the resolution offered has any relation to the communication from the Governor. If it has, it is perfectly in order, just the same as the motion of the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, to refer the Governor's communication to a particular committee.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would suggest that the resolution be read for the information of the Chair and the Senate.

The resolution was read as follows:

In the Senate, June 19, 1935.

Whereas, There appears in the Harrisburg papers today charges made by the Governor, George H. Earle, that a Senator solicited bribes from the Secretary to the Governor, Harry E. Kalodner, and Attorney General, Charles J. Margiotti; now therefore be it

Resolved, That he Senate resolve itself into a committee of the whole to conduct an immediate, diligent and thorough inquiry for the benefit of the Senate into the charges thus made by the Governor; and be it further

Resolved, That subpoenas may issue under the hand and seal of the Secretary of the Senate at the request of any Senator commanding any person or persons to appear before the Senate to answer such questions touching matters properly to be inquired into and to produce such books, papers and all other records as a committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas shall be served upon any person and shall have the same force and effect as subpoenas issued out of the courts of the Commonwealth. Each member of the Senate shall have the power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the Senate and any person who shall wilfully neglect to appear or testify or to produce any books, records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided in such cases; and be it further

Resolved, That the said investigation be made a special order of business and that immediately upon the completion of the investigation, a report shall be forthwith drafted for action by the Senate thereon.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair is of the opinion that the resolution bears directly on the report and communication from the Governor.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that the communication from His Excellency, the Governor, together with the resolution offered by the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, be referred to the Committee on Judiciary General.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Bucks, Mr. Buckman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I would like to know if the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, is not the chairman of that committee, the Committee on Judiciary General.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, if the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, does not know that, I will inform him that I am.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions to be referred to an appropriate committee, be suspended and that the Senate do now proceed to the immediate consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I object.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I move that Rule 39, which requires resolutions to be referred to an appropriate committee, be suspended for the purpose of considering this resolution at this time.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, state his point of order.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, my point of order is that the motion of the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, is out of order; there is a motion pending—my motion that the communication from His Excellency the Governor, together with the resolution offered by the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, be referred to the Committee on Judiciary General.

The PRESIDENT. The motion of the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, was made after the presentation of the resolution by the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, my motion was made before the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, made any motion.

The PRESIDENT. No, the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, was handling his resolution at the time, and the Chair should have asked for the Senate to act on the question of unanimous consent for immediate consideration.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, that request was later made and refused.

The PRESIDENT. Objection was made.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, in the meantime my motion was made and was seconded.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair suggests that if the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, will go back in his mind, he will remember that the Chair did not recognize him when he made the motion.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I do not so remember.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, was on his feet at the time.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, will state his point of order.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, the motion made by the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman. is out of order. Either this resolution must go to a committee under the rules or be immediately considered, or the rules, of course. be suspended.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, just to review the parliamentary situation a little bit, the members will recall that in offering this resolution I moved its adopton. The adopton was seconded by the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Frey, and I asked for unanmous consent for immediate consideration. The Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, without recognition from the Chair then made the motion which was subsequently ruled out of order. Before any subsequent motion of any kind was made I then moved that the rules be suspended, so that the resolution might be considered at once. This likewise was seconded by the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Frey; and I submit to the Chair that the only thing in order is the question as to the suspension of the rules, and upon it I would request a roll call.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the resolution suggests a very serious matter, in which we are engaging, however, in some unnecessary horse play. It does not make any difference, to my mind, where the resolution goes, whether it goes to Judiciary General or remains on the floor; it is on the record now and has served its purpose. We received a letter from the Governor, and that is on the record now. and is in full force and effect. I suggest that the members of the Senate get down to businss and let the letter and the resolution go wherever they please.

The PRESIDENT. The motion before the Senate is to suspend the rules so that the resolution presented by the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, may be considered immediately

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. THOMPSON (Centre) and Mr. FREY, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—23

Baumer,	Law,	Rankin,	Rupp,
Cavalcante	McCreesh,	Reed,	Shapiro,
Frey,	McGinnis,	(Washington)	Sones,
Harris,	Miller,	Rice,	Thompson,
Huffman,	Prince,	Roberts,	(Centre)
Kahle,	Pytko,	Rodgers,	Trainer,
Lanius,

NAYS—25

Aron,	Coyne,	Hunsicker,	Sordoni,
Batchelor,	Ealy,	Mallery,	Staudenmeier,
Bean,	Gelder,	McClure,	Thompson,
Bennett,	Graff,	Owlett.	(Westmoreland)
Buckman,	Harvey,	Pierson.	Woodward,
Chapman,	Homsher,	Reed,	Ziesenheim,
Clark,	Howell,	(Dauphin)

So the question was determined in the negative.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that the resolution of the Senator, Mr. Thompson, and the communication from His Excellency, the Governor, be referred to the Committee on Judiciary General.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

A division being called for, thirty-two Senators voted in the affirmative and nine in the negative, whereupon the question was decided in the affirmative.

Mr. TRAINER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. TRAINER, from the Committee on Judiciary Special reported the following Resolution which was laid on the table:

INVESTIGATION OF GOVERNOR'S REMARKS TO SENATE FINANCE COMMITTEE RELATIVE TO BILL TO TAX CHAIN STORES

In the Senate, June 12, 1935.

Whereas, During a visit paid by the Members of the Finance Committee of the Senate of Pennsylvania to Governor George H. Earle at his office in the State Capitol, Tuesday, June 11, the Governor in a discussion of tax bills suggested an investigation into what he termed "ugly rumors" concerning the attitude of Senators upon pending legislation known as the bill to tax chain stores, and

Whereas, The remarks of Governor George H Earle have been given great prominence in the newspapers of Pennsylvania today and constitute a reflection upon members of this body, making it imperative that the facts upon which any such statement as made by Governor George H. Earle should be made known to the Senate, now therefore be it

Resolved, That the Senate of Pennsylvania hereby respectfully requests Governor Earle to submit to the Senate in writing any information he may possess as a foundation for the remarks made by him at his conference with Members of the Finance Committee of the Senate of Pennsylvania on Tuesday, June 11.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. GELDER, from the Committee on Highways re-reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 1490 (House Bill No. 2048), entitled:

An Act to amend Sections two and seven of the act approved the twenty-second day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred twenty) entitled "An act providing for the taking over by the Commonwealth under certain terms conditions and limitations of certain streets in cities of the second class A and third class as State highways and for the improvement construction reconstruction resurfacing and maintenance by the Commonwealth of certain defined widths of said streets imposing duties on such cities and on public utility companies using such streets providing that no assessment shall be made upon the Commonwealth in the elimination of any grade crossing thereon authorizing cities persons associations or corporations to enter into agreements with the Commonwealth to bear a portion of the cost of construction or maintenance providing for the assessment of certain portions of the cost of street improvements on abutting property owners regulating the replacement of certain facilities of public utility companies prohibiting the opening of said streets after improvement without a permit and providing penalty therefore regulating the maintenance of detours authorizing the increase of city indebtedness in certain cases and appropriating money in the Motor License Fund for the purposes of this act" as amended by adding certain new routes changing certain routes and providing for the relocation of city streets which are State highway routes

Also from the Committee on Appropriations, re-reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 1613 (House Bill No. 1857), entitled:

An Act to amend section two of the act approved the first day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws eleven hundred seventy-two) entitled "An act establishing certain streets in boroughs and incorporated towns as State highways and providing for their construction and maintenance at the expense of the Commonwealth" by changing certain routes and adding certain new routes

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON SENATE BILL No. 22

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, this bill is an exact copy of Senate Bill No. 178, introduced early in this Session. With only a few exceptions, it is an exact copy of that bill. That committee, after a full hearing, indefinitely postponed this bill. Therefore, another bill was prepared and introduced, Senate Bill 1510, and referred, instead of to the Committee on Public Health, to the Committee on Agriculture.

Mr. President, and members of this Senate, at the risk of unduly taking your time, I will be compelled to tell the members about this bill and its history. This bill was written by Mr. Wilbur K. Moffitt, Director of the Bureau of Milk Control in the Department of Health. I believe, Mr. President, that there has never been a greater effort on the part of any Bureau of this Commonwealth than was put forth by Mr. Moffitt in connection with this bill. This campaign of Mr. Moffitt to have this legislation enacted culminated on June 12, with the placing in every member's post office box of a tirade directed at me. I am told that other members of this Senate have been threatened by Mr. Moffit, and his colleagues they have threatened to go into their districts and oppose them if they voted against this legislation. Mr. President, this bill places in the hands of one Bureau Chief in this Capitol absolute control over the milk industry of Pennsylvania. It has been represented that this bill was put in this legislature for the purpose of taking control of ice cream and ice cream manufacturers. Those of us who have watched milk control legislation have repeatedly told Mr. Moffit that if he put in an amendment to the present law giving him control over ice cream and ice cream makers, we would not object, but he refused to do that, and instead worked up this bill. He represented to the committee that this bill was prepared by the previous administration and inquiry of this immediate previous administration was that he consulted them on one or two paragraphs of the bill, but outside of that he never saw them. The bill would give the right to Mr. Moffitt to establish rules and regulations of the Department, and if they are not complied with the offenders could go to jail or pay a fine of one hundred dollars. That would permit them to seize their milk and destroy it if it is considered unfit, without any appeal, without any compensation to the farmers.

Mr. President, in addition, this bill provides, if strictly interpreted, that if the name of the manufacturer is not borne on the dish of ice cream when it is served in a restaurant, it is a violation of this act and subjects the seller to a fine of one hundred dollars. This bill gives authority to Mr. Moffitt to approve any kind of a farm appliance in connection with a dairy farm. You can go into a farm or dairy that persists in the use of a certain type of equipment as against any other manufacturer. He may refuse or revoke permits and put people out of business even though they appeal to the courts. Just as I said, he may approve or disapprove or dictate plans for milk plants, he may make all sorts of regulations. In addition he may seize farmer's milk and destroy it without compensation.

Mr. President, I say that this bill, if enacted into law, puts this one man in control of the milk industry of Pennsylvania, and I cannot help but call this Senate's attention to the fact that the time has come when the Bureau Chief should not be permitted to go around this body and try to intimidate members of this Senate. We had another example just the other day, in the case of this stream pollution bill, where, after it was defeated, Mr. Grover C. Ladner, who has been for years the attorney for the Izaak Walton League, sends out at the expense of this State, over his own signature, to the sportsmen of this State, a list of Senators and tells them that when they come up for re-election, see that they get what they deserve."

Mr. President, this is another example of what you see on all hand, you establish a Bureau and give it a little power, and the first thing you know they reach out and control everything. I am just as much for pure cream and pure milk products, and pure ice cream as any member in this Senate. I have no interest in this other than seeing that the dairy farmers of this State are protected.

The Grange of Pennsylvania is opposed to this bill, every farm organization in the State is opposed to the bill, except Mr. Moffit's own organization, and I say members of this Senate, that this bill ought to be treated as any other bill should be treated when they attempt to force a bill through this Senate by methods of intimidation.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT BILL

Mr. President, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Agriculture.

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the Motion?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, we are not allowed, I understand, to discuss the merits of the bill.

The PRESIDENT. Not under the motion.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, then I would like to say, I do not know Mr. Moffit, but I am against every member of the Executive appointment, have no interest in any of them, and, therefore, I would vote to sustain the motion on that principle.

Mr. REED (Washington). Mr. President, according to the record, this bill was introduced by Senator Clerk on May 29, 1935, then referred to the proper committee and after some deliberation it was reported to the floor of this Senate. I think it was recommitted and it is now again before the members of this Senate for final action. This is a very important bill, important to the people of this Commonwealth in many respects and on that account it should not be recommitted at this time because if it is, final action will not be had on this bill during this Session. I understand that this bill is sponsored and favored by the medical profession of this State, I understand that the Tuberculosis League of this State is favorable to it and I understand that many groups are favorable to it. Now, no bill can be drawn so that it pleases all and on that account this important bill should be given the right to be fully discussed on the floor of this Senate, and every member herein should have the right to vote either for or against this bill.

I do not know any of the men that Senator Owlett refers to. I voted the same as he did on the stream pollution bill. I am only speaking for the people of this Commonwealth on a measure which I deem is of very prime importance. I repeat, if this bill goes back to Committee, we will not have the right to give our approval or disapproval to this important measure. I am unalterably opposed to this bill going back to committee at this time.

MR. PRINCE. Mr. President, this is a bill to prevent unwholesome and unhygenic conditions in the ice cream industry, the same as No. 178. This bill was amended almost expressly by those interested in the public welfare. It is precisely the same kind of a bill; it is a health measure.

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, The Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, made his remarks before he made his motion to recommit the bill and discussed the merits of the bill. That puts the Senators who are in favor of the bill at a considerable disadvantage, as on the motion to recommit the bill the merits of the bill are not debatable. If this bill is sent back to committee, of course, the bill is dead. I request the Senators to vote down this motion to recommit, so that this bill may be put forth before the body and discussed from both sides as there are many things to be said in favor of the bill and all that we are permitted to hear is the discussion against the bill.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. McCREESH and Mr. REED (Washington) and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—23

Aron,	Coyne,	Howell,	Reed,
Batchelor,	Ealy,	Hunsicker,	(Dauphin)
Bean,	Gelder,	Mallery,	Salus,
Bennett,	Graff,	McClure,	Sordoni,
Buckman,	Harvey,	Owlett,	Staudenmeier,

Harris,	Prince,	Rodgers,	(Westmoreland)
Huffman,	Pytko,	Rupp,	Trainer,
Kahle,	Rankin,	Shapiro,	Woodward,
Lanius,

So the question was determined in the negative.

MOTION TO RECONSIDER VOTE ON SECOND READING

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which this bill passed second reading, for the purpose of offering amendments.

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. REED (Washington). Mr. President, it is too late to make amendments and get final action on this bill. This is a deliberate attempt to kill it. I object to it and ask for a roll call on the motion.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, for the information of the Senate, I desire to explain that there were a number of amendments for consideration of this committee pending at the time this bill was reported out, and many of those amendments were agreed by all parties as being entirely proper. Some of them there was not an agreement on. It seems to be if this bill is to be acted on, certainly it should not be passed without amendments that were agreed on by both parties. The fact that it is too late is not important, the amendments were before the committee and I was not present when the bill was reported out.

Mr. PRINCE. Mr. President, the amendments had been before the committee and were considered by the committee. The effect of the amendments would be to destroy the usefulness of the bill absolutely. The Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, was not present, it is true, but it was not my fault, and in any event the committee had the largest attendance when the bill was reported out that it has had since I have presided over it, with the single exception of the meeting on the Milk Control bill. The amendments would destroy the bill.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Cumberland, Mr. Prince.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Cumberland, Mr. Prince, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PRINCE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, one of the amendments that was offered and that I propose to offer now, is as follows: "The bill authorizing the head of this Bureau, or any of his representatives, to promulgate rules and regulations for the milk industry, or of the milk dealers and of the producers in this State." One of them which I propose to offer would require that those representatives, or any official or employee of the Department of Health who shall have been delegated, under this act, no such representative, agent, official or employee, shall be interested either directly or indirectly therein, as proprietor of a dairy farm, in the sale, manufacture, processing, or distribution of milk, or milk products. In other words, this amendment, Mr. President, would prevent Mr. Moffit, or any of his agents who can establish rules by which they can control the entire industry, by which they can wipe out competitors, would require that they not be interested in the milk business. I would like to ask the Senator from Cumberland how such an amendment destroys the purpose of this bill, when it only prevents servants of this Department from being interested in the business.

Mr. PRINCE. Mr. President, that was not one of the amendments which was rejected to which objection was made.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Cumberland, Mr. Prince, if that amendment was put in before the bill was reported out.

Mr. PRINCE. Mr. President, no action was taken on that amendment.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, that was an amendment that nobody objected to, at least before the committee.

Mr. PRINCE. Mr. President, there was no objection to it.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, that amendment was not inserted in the bill?

Mr. PRINCE. Mr. President, certainly not.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, if he offered those amendments on the floor on second reading.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, in answer to the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Law, this bill was introduced and was sent to the Committee on Agriculture two weeks ago, after the Committee on Public Health had indefinitely postponed number 178, I cannot give you the exact date now that it was referred to committee, but the bill was passed out by the committee on the understanding that it should have two readings and go back to this committee for the purpose of amendments. That is why it was not amended on the floor on second reading. It had second reading some two weeks ago before the hearings were held. This is the first opportunity I have had to put these amendments in, because I was not present in committee when the bill was reported out.

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, it seems to me that the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, is running all around trying to kill the bill. There is one very bad feature in this bill, that is, milk, sour milk, any kind of milk, can be brought in from different states, and, by adding sugar or something else, you can use it for ice cream in the State of Pennsylvania. Now in New York State they inspect the milk brought in and they have rules and regulations. It seems to me that that is a very bad part of the bill, and we ought to do something about it, we should not allow milk outside of the State of Pennsylvania to be brought in here and used for ice cream purposes without being inspected.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, probably the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, is not aware of the fact that a resolution has been adopted by this General Assembly to adjourn this General Assembly on Friday of this week. Friday is the adjournment date, and to permit amendments to be made at this time is going to make it impossible for the House to pass on this bill. What objection is there to these amendments being made in the House?

Mr. OWLETT. I have no faith that the amendments will be put in the bill in the House, after the experience I have had with Mr. Moffit on this bill. I want to call the Senate's atention to the fact those tirades against me that were put in all the boxes of the Senators, were brought around here by none other than the man who is the publicity man of the Pennsylvania Milk Control Board, under salary from this State, and he brought around this propaganda supposedly put out by the Dauphin County consumers' organization.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, will state his point of order.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I do not believe that the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, is discussing the question of reconsidering the bill on second reading.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I am answering the inquiry of the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Tioga, is answering the question propounded by the Senator from Fayette.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I am asking what objection is there to having the amendments made in the House?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I was attempting to explain why I did not have faith that the amendments would be put in the bill in the House after having the exhibition of the propaganda now referred to, I do not see how we can be sure of that. I am well aware of the fact that this is Wednesday, I am well aware that we have adopted a resolution to adjourn on Friday, I am well aware of the fact that if we put the amendments in the bill, it is killed. Personally I would rather see the bill killed than have such vicious legislation passed by this Senate. If we do not have the chance to amend the bill on second reading, I think we had better kill the bill.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, the Senator from Tioga has now disclosed his designs, and the Senator from Tioga has on the floor of this Senate and attacked the integrity of every executive officer in this Commonwealth, and every executive officer in the Federal Government. Since he himself has disclosed the weasely way, the unfair way, the most vicious way of going about to kill the bill, the offering of amendments when his design is to kill the bill, Mr. President, in my judgment I say there is nothing that impeaches the integrity of a man more than the design which the Senator from Tioga has just disclosed in this body.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. OWLETT and Mr. SORDONI.

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I ask that the roll be verified.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. OWLETT and Mr. SORDONI, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—24

Aron,	Coyne,	Howell,	Reed, (Dauphin)

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 694 (House Bill No. 501), on third reading, entitled:

An Act authorizing the Department of Highways to build, construct and maintain sidewalks along State highways in townships of the first and second class, for the protection of public school pupils requiring townships of the first and second class to contribute to the cost of such building and construction and appropriating moneys from the Motor License Fund.

be recommitted to the Committee on Highways.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I second the motion

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, I desire to ask the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, the purpose of having this bill recommitted.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, in the first place, it is impossible to pass it in the present condition, the word "highway" being in two places where it should read "sidewalks"; and in the second place, the Committee on Highways desires to give the bill further study. It is absolutely impossible of enforcement in its present condition. The word "highways" occurs at two places where it should be "sidewalks".

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, whether he will withdraw his motion and allow the bill to go over in order.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President I will be glad to do so.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I withdraw my second.

The PRESIDENT. The motion to recommit the bill has been withdrawn.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 694 (House Bill No. 501), on third reading, entitled:

An Act authorizing the Department of Highways to build construct and maintain sidewalks along State highways of the first and second class for the protection of public school pupils requiring townships of the first and second class to contribute to the cost of such buildings and construction and appropriating moneys from the Motor License Fund go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE POSTPONED FOR THE PRESENT

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now resume consideration of Senate Bill No. 793 (House Bill No. 1088), on final passage postponed for the present, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the fourteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (P. L. 704) entitled "An act relating to limited power permits and limited water supply permits from the Water Supply Commission of Pennsylvania and the conditions thereof to the flooding and use by holders of limited power permits of islands owned by the Commonwealth to the unlawful use for water or steam power development of dams and changes in streams hereafter constructed or made otherwise than under limited power permits and to the proceedings for the enforcement of this act" by adding section three and one-tenths thereto providing that all moneys received from the annual charges on limited power permits and limited water supply permits shall be paid into the State Forests and Waters Fund.

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced presented communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor of the Commonwealth, which was read as follows:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, June 19, 1935.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

In view of your impending adjournment, and of the necessity for Pennsylvania's participation in the benefits of the Federal Works program, so that we may reduce unemployment and relief costs, I earnestly solicit your immediate consideration of nineteen bills now before your honorable body.

These bills have been presented as enabling legislation to permit us to take advantage of the Federal Works Relief program. Unless they are enacted into law in the form submitted, or without major changes, we will be unable to comply with the requirements of the Federal Government and will not receive the funds to which Pennsylvania is entitled.

These measures fall naturally into groups.

The first group clarifies and modifies existing legislation covering bond issues of political subdivisions, permitting them to sell their bonds in bulk or by agreement to the federal agency administering the Works Fund.

The second enables communities which have exhausted their borrowing capacities to avoid Constitutional difficulties by issuing bonds through a public corporation known as an "Authority". Such bonds could not, by any means, become the debt of the community. This group also creates similar authority to enable the State to construct needed correctional institutions, hospitals, arsenals, public buildings and the like, without increasing the debt of the State.

Another group enables larger cities of this Commonwealth to clear their slum districts and provide livable homes for the underprivileged, thereby eliminating unsanitary and crime-breeding districts.

If you do not pass these housing bills Pennsylvania will lose $20,000,000 which has been allocated for slum clearance, $10,000,000 i.. Philadelphia and $10,000,000 for Pittsburgh.

Another group of bills is for Rural Electrification. These would provide for expenditure of $15,000,000 for transmission and distribution lines to serve more than 28,000 families now denied such service.

There is also a bill to permit issuance of revenue bonds or certificates by political subdivisions that prefer to receive the federal funds direct rather than through the Authorities. Such certificates would not be obligations of the issuing power, but charges against the revenue from the project itself.

To cordinate all of these activities a bill providing for a State Planning Board, as requested by the Federal Government and now provided in forty-six States, is before you.

Of all these bills only three have been reported out of committee. These are the State Authority Bill, the County Authority Bill, and the Borough Waterworks Bill. They have been so amended that they do not meet the requirements of federal authorities, and so cannot be effective unless those amendments are removed or greatly changed.

I am sure all of you realize the great loss to this Commonwealth that will result if our people, as federal taxpayers, provide their share of the Federal Works Funds for lack of proper legislation fail to receive any benefits from that program.

GEORGE H. EARLE.

RECESS

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess for five minutes.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed, the Senate will be in order.

APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEES OF CONFERENCE

The PRESIDENT. The President Pro Tempore announces the appointment of the following Committees of Conference:

On Senate Bill No. 39, the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, the Senator from Montgomery, Mr. Bean, and the Senator from Lycoming, Mr. Sones;

On Senate Bill No. 155, the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. SHAPIRO, the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Aron, and the Senator from Cambria, Mr. Baumer.

HOUSE MESSAGES

HOUSE INSISTS UPON ITS AMENDMENTS TO TO SENATE BILL NO. 147

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced presented communications from the House of Representatives informing the Senate that the House insists upon its amendments, non-concurred in by the Senate to Senate Bill No. 147, entitled:

sistance in the several counties or by other trustees in certain cases authorizing appointment of trustees for the pensions payable to certain individuals authorizing the Department of Welfare to cooperate with and to accept and disburse moneys received from the United States Government for assistance to the blind and providing penalties.

APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I move that the Senate insist upon its non-concurrence in the amendments to the foregoing bill, and that a Committee of Conference be appointed to confer with a similar committee of the House (if the House shall appoint such committee) to consider the differences existing between the two Houses in relation to said bill.

Mr. HOWELL. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Orders, That Messrs. Batchelor, Reed (Dauphin) and Lanius be said committee on the part of the Senate, and that the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

HOUSE RECEDES FROM ITS AMENDMENTS NON-CONCURRED IN BY THE SENATE TO SENATE BILL NO. 19

He also informed the Senate that the House has receded from its amendments non-concurred in by the Senate to Senate Bill No. 19, entitled:

An Act to amend sections two, four, five, eight, eleven, twelve, seventeen, twenty-one and twenty-two and to repeal section three as amended, and sections thirteen, sixteen and nineteen, of the act approved the thirteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (P. L. 286), entitled "An act to provide for the health safety, and welfare of minors: By forbidding their employment or work in certain establishments and occupations, and under certain specified ages; by restricting their hours of labor, and regulating certain conditions of their employment; by requiring employment certificates for certain minors, and prescribing the kinds thereof, and the rules for the issuance, reissuance, filing, return, and recording of the same; by providing that the Industrial Board shall under certain conditions, determine and declare whether certain occupations are within the prohibitions of this act; requiring that certain minors shall, during the period of their employment, attend certain schools to be established as therein provided, and to be approved by the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, and regulating the conditions of such attendance; authorizing the State Board of Education, in certain cases, to appoint attendance officers to aid in enforcing the provisions of this act, and creating the salary and expenses of such officers a charge against the school district wherein they are employed; requiring certain abstracts and notices to be posted; providing for the enforcement of this act by the Commissioner of Labor and Industry, the attendance officers of school districts, and police officers; and defining the procedure in prosecutions thereunder, and establishing certain presumptions in relation thereto; providing penalties for the violation of the provisions thereof; and repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent therewith," by prohibiting employment of minors between fourteen and sixteen years of age, except in certain types of work which will not interfere with school attendance; further limiting the occupations in which minors between fourteen and eighteen years of age may be employed or permitted to work, and the hours of labor; further regulating employment certificates, and requiring minors under eighteen to procure such certificates; and imposing on school districts the duty to issue such certificates.

SENATE CONCURS IN AMENDMENTS MADE BY THE HOUSE TO SENATE BILL NO. 19

Mr. GRAFF. Mr. President, in view of the action taken by the House I now move that the Senate recede from its non-concurrence in the amendments made by the House to Senate Bill No. 19, and that it concur in the amendments.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. BUCKMAN, from the Committee on Insurance, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 1377 (House Bill No. 2537), entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the seventeenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (P. L. 682) as amended entitled "An act relating to insurance amending revising and consolidating the law providing for the incorporation of insurance companies and the regulation supervision and protection of home and foreign insurance companies Lloyds associations reciprocal and inter-insurance exchanges and fire insurance rating bureaus and the regulation and supervision of insurance carried by such companies associations and exchanges including insurance carried by the State Workmen's Insurance Fund providing penalties and repealing existing laws" by authorizing insurance companies associations and exchanges to apply for and obtain insurance of mortgages and to make further investments of capital reserve and surplus funds pursuant to the National Housing Act by adding a new section

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. HARRIS, from the Committee on State Government reported as committted, the following House Resolution No. 138, which was laid on the table.

In the House of Representatives, April 23, 1935.

Whereas The Federal Government in order to alleviate unemployment is developing various useful public works and

Whereas The Newspapers throughout the State have brought to the attention of many thousands of its citizens and to the members of this Legislature a project advanced by the State Planning Board involving the construction of a highway upon the abandoned railway grade of the South Penn Railroad through the Allegheny Mountains between Harrisburg and Pittsburgh and

Whereas At the time construction was abandoned by the South Pennsylvania Railroad in 1885 nine tunnels through the mountains were approximately two-thirds completed and many miles of right of way were graded and

Whereas The completion of these tunnels and the construction of the intervening portions of highway would provide the general public with a highway free from excessive grades avoiding the dangerous storms upon the mountain tops and upon which it would appear that at no point the highway grade would be in excess of one hundred feet to the mile and

Whereas The completion of these tunnels and the construction of this highway would require approximately 32,000,000 man hours of labor and would furnish immediate employment to many unemployed men now upon the relief rolls of the State and

Whereas All the materials entering into the construction project will be produced by the industries of Pennsylvania and

Whereas It is estimated that the cost of completion and operation of the roadway and these highway tunnels may be defrayed within a reasonable period of time by a system of tolls to be charged for the use of the tunnels and

Whereas This South Penn Tunnel Highway would possess invaluable military value in time of war therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur) That a committee of three members of the Senate and three Members of the House to be appointed by the President Pro Tempore and Speaker respectively and in connection with the State Highway Department the Federal Bureau of Public Roads and the State Planning Board and such other consultants as they choose to engage make an investigation of this project and

Resolved That said committee shall make a report to the Legislature during the present session as promptly as possible that they shall continue their investigations until a thorough study is completed.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. ARON, from the Committee on Municipal Government reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 1066 (House Bill No. 1533) entitled:
